AFTER DOCTORS FAILED

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Cured Her.

Willimantic, Conn.—"For five years I suffered untold agony from female troubles, causing backache, irregularities, dizziness and nervous prostration. It was impossible for me to walk upstairs without stopping on the way. I tried three different doctors and each told me something different. I received no benefit from any of them, but seemed to suffer more. The last doctor said nothing would restore my health. I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to see what it would do, and I am restored to my natural health."—MRS. ETTA DONOVAN, Box 299, Willimantic, Conn.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unparalleled. It may be used with perfect confidence by women who suffer from displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills, and suffering women owe it to themselves to at least give this medicine a trial. Proof is abundant that it has cured thousands of others, and why should it not cure you?

SASSAFRAS ITEMS.

Judge W. S. Morris is still seriously sick at his home near "Wilson's Point."

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Ernest entertained under the auspices of M. P. Rehoboth Church the Aid Society most royally on Friday evening last and a most charming evening was enjoyed by all. Mrs. John F. Ernest gave some beautiful selections of music on the piano and played beautifully, also Mr. John R. Ernest furnished some very fine instrumental and vocal music. An elegant collation was served to the many that spent such a delightful evening.

Mrs. Stephen Singleston, of Wilmington, is with her parents, Judge and Mrs. W. S. Morris.

Mrs. John F. Ernest and son, Mr. John R. Ernest, visited relatives at Townsend, Delaware, on Saturday.

Miss Cooper, of Cheswold, Del., is visiting Dr. and Mrs. Money, of Sassafras.

Mrs. Louis H. Dreka visited her relative, the entire of last week, Dr. E. G. Clark, at Middletown.

Mrs. John R. A. Price and sister, Miss Bessie Gunkie, of Warwick, was entertained by Mrs. E. W. Staats on Monday near Sassafras.

Mr. and Mrs. William T. Colgain are entertaining Mrs. Theiza Shallcross, of near town.

Mrs. Harry Griffith and two little daughters visited her mother, Mrs. W. R. Lockwood, of Middletown, on Saturday for the day.

Mr. John F. Tarbutton, of Annapolis, is visiting his family here.

We are pleased to state Mrs. Henry Rosin is greatly improved and able to be out.

Maryland Day was duly celebrated by the Sassafras School. Mrs. John F. Tarbutton read an essay on Edgar Allan Poe, Mrs. W. S. Morris sketches of the life of Sidney Lanier and selections of his work; of the author of Maryland, my Maryland, of the "Bentztown Bard." Folger McKinsey, by Frederick W. Shibles deserves particular mention of the noted Bard. The little children of the school deserve much praise for their many pretty pieces, and indeed the afternoon in spite of the snowstorm was greatly enjoyed by many guests, and some all the way from Masseys.

Mrs. James Calhoun is still very sick and confined to her bed. Mr. Calhoun we are pleased to state is able to be out.

Mrs. John R. H. Price and sister, Miss Bessie Gunkie, all of Warwick, visited their sister, Mrs. John F. Ernest on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. James D. Davis entertained the Mite Society under the auspices of the M. E. Church most royally on Saturday evening last and in spite of the stormy evening there was quite a large attendance. An elegant collation was served and a most delightful evening was enjoyed. Mrs. Davis and daughter, Miss Helen, gave some very fine music and selections on the organ.

More Pay.—Rural letter carriers will come in for a little extra compensation during the Sixty-first Congress if the two bills recently introduced by Representatives Bates, of Pennsylvania, and Humphreys, of Mississippi, are enacted into law. The bill introduced by Representative Bates provides an additional allowance of $150 per annum for subsistence, and that introduced by Mr. Humphrey provides that $250 per annum additional be allowed each rural carrier for the "purchase and maintenance of necessary horses, wagon and equipment." The carriers in Kent as far as we can learn do not object to this bill!

A new addition to the line. The best of leather, workmanship and fittings is put into "The Tailor Made." The pride of Dolly Madison. Retailing at $4.00. For sale at representative shoe stores.
