The Amendment Catechism

Q—What are the issues involved in the campaign?

A—There is only one issue—Negro Suffrage.

Q—Who gave the negro the right to vote?

A—It was given him by the Fifteenth Amendment to the Federal Constitution.

Q—Was the Amendment adopted by the State of Maryland?

A—No. The Maryland Legislature voted against it unanimously, but two-thirds of the other States, which had but few negro voters, forced the Amendment upon the Southern States, and turned loose a horde of ignorant negroes to rule over their former masters.

Q—Which States have adopted these Amendments?

A—Every Southern State in which there are any appreciable number of negroes, except Maryland.

Q—Why should Maryland adopt such a measure?

A—For the same reason that urged other Southern States to secure relief. To make certain our State Government will always be in the hands of a majority of the white people.

Q—Why should anyone object to the rule of a majority of the white electorate?

A—There can be no objection except from individuals who desire to use the negro vote to advance their own political futures, and who know they cannot secure a majority of the white vote.

Q—What would be the result of negro disfranchisement?

A—Any party would be compelled to secure the endorsement of a majority of the white race.

Q—In the thirty-five years the negro has been allowed to vote has he given any evidence of his ability to use the ballot properly?

A—No, he is voting to-day just as he did thirty-five years ago for Abraham Lincoln's nose and the Republican party regardless alike of party principles or the fitness of candidates.

Q—Is there any danger from the negro vote in Maryland?

A—By a combination of fewer than 19,000 white men with the solid negro vote in seventeen counties of the State they can elect a majority of all the members of our Legislature.

Q—Why are we justified in trying to eliminate the negro as a political factor?

A—In violation of every principle of home rule, he was forced upon us as a voter by the Republican party of other States. At every election the Democrats are compelled to place in the ballot boxes of the State sixty thousand ballots from the hands of white men before we can begin to count in our effort to secure a majority of the white vote in this State.

Q—If the pending Amendment is passed, what will be its practical operation?

A—A white man, whether native or foreign born, Democrat or Republican, would be allowed to register without objection, both Democrats and Republicans being committed to this policy.

Q—In what does the pending Amendment differ from other Amendments that were proposed?

A—The pending Amendment will permit the registration of every white man in the State, no matter what his politics, or where he was born.

Every white man who believes in the supremacy of his race should vote for the Amendment and for every Democratic candidate on the ticket.

The court may enforce any order by attachment for contempt in said cases; neither party shall have any right of removal; exception may be taken to any ruling of the court at the hearing of said cases and an appeal shall be allowed to the Court of Appeals as in other cases; all such appeals shall be taken within five days from the date of the decision complained of, and shall be heard and decided by the Court of Appeals upon the original papers, or otherwise, as the Court of Appeals may by rule prescribe, as soon as may be practicable.

REV. J. B. JONES DEAD

Rev. John Bayley Jones 76 years old, pastor of Brooklyn Methodist Protestant Church, Anne Arundel county, died at 5.30 o'clock Tuesday evening at his home of paralysis, after 50 years of active service in the ministry.

He suffered a severe stroke last Thursday, and up to the time of his death was unconscious. His wife and daughter, Mrs. H. I. Ward, and two sons, Messrs. J. A. and T. C. Jones, were with him at the time of his death.

Well-kown in church circles, Mr. Jones' chief work has been among young men. He was born in Milton, Del., December 5, 1833, and received his education at Laurel and Milton academies, of that State. Later he taught at the Lewes Academy, Delaware.

In 1860 he entered the Maryland Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church. He served his first year in the ministry under the president of the conference. He was ordained in 1862. Afterward he was changed to the Alabama Conference, in Montgomery. During his service here the great yellow fever scourge broke out and he and the Catholic priest were the only ministers that would remain and bury the dead.

Among Mr. Jones' friends was Judge Bibbon Montgomery, a close confident of Jefferson Davis. He was also an honorary bearer at the funeral of Abe Lincoln. Burial took place in the M. P. Cemetery at Laurel. He leaves a widow and six children, viz., Dr. J. B., of Phil., Mrs. H. I. Ward, of Balt., Fred, J. A., T. C., and A. L. Jones.

His ministry in Chestertown was very successful and at no other place has he more devoted friends.

ROCK HALL NOTES.

On Sunday afternoon and evening Rally Day exercises were held in the M. E. Church. Two splendid programs specially prepared for the day were nicely rendered. Both services were largely attended. The choir service was specially fine. Mr. Abbett, of Chestertown, and Prof. Judefind, of this place, assisted in the choir loft with excellent effect. The offerings amounted to about $60, the young mens class taught by Prof. Greenhawk carried off the honors of the day. May the upbuilding of the Sunday School, numerically and spiritually, be of permanent effect.

The next special event here is the festival and supper of this (Saturday) evening on the lawn of St. John's R. C. Church and this is expected to be a most successful affair.

Mr. V. M. Kendall and family, of Chestertown, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Kendall, the former's parents.

A message received by Mr. Joseph Downey on Sunday morning announcing the death of Dr. A. P. Sharp cast a gloom over this section. A good man, a great benefactor to many Rock Hallites, is gone. His genial presence and kindness, so often enjoyed by our residents, will be long missed.

Prof. F. A. Greenhawk, with his mother, now occupies the Greenwood cottage on Main street.

Capt. Charley Thomas says no surrey for him. His next mode of family conveyance will be a motor car.

Mr. T. B. Durding has completed the construction of another building to his already highly improved farm.

Considerable corn is being husked by a number of our farmers.

The oyster business in Chester river is so unsatisfactory that many of the tongers have gone over to the bayside where there is better sales.

Miss Nannie Ryan is just the happiest girl in the Fifth district because of the return home of her sister Daisy, who has been spending nearly a month with relatives in Baltimore. Nannie has been housekeeper and cook with no one about home during the day time but herself. This is something she has not been used to, hence her joy.

The Odd Fellows of this place initiated several new candidates on Wednesday evening. After which a social set-out was enjoyed by a goodly number of members and invited guests.

Miss Anna W. Leary is enrolled among the new students at the Peabody.

Before painting it is advisable to post yourself as thoroughly as possible on every phase of the subject. We help you do that.

The mischief caused by covering your house with an inferior paint is hard to undo. Poor material makes painting a bugbear instead of the joy of beautifying the home that it should be. With our advice you need run no risk. A paint made of and pure linseed oil will give that fine, smooth, tough film, elastic and yet so rooted into the wood fibre as to seem like a part of the wood itself.

Such a paint is as durable as it is beautiful, and leaves the best possible foundation for repainting.
