THE ISSUE.

The radicals say that Negro Suffrage is not the issue;—that they would not touch any one with a forty foot pole who is in favor of it, but in the same breath they declare their opposition to President Johnson's policy and their determination to stand by and endorse the action of Congress!

Now let us enquire for a moment, what is the action of Congress? We all know that Massachusetts rules Maryland and that Creswell crouches at the feet of Sumner like a base spaniel, and that Thad. Stevens holds the rod over Frank Thomas and John L. Thomas, and that none of these followers of Sumner and Stevens, who are now misrepresenting the views and feelings of the people of the proud old State of Maryland, dare disobey the will of their masters. But to the point:

A few days ago Thad. Stevens introduced a bill into Congress, "to regulate the admission of the late rebellious States into the Union." The fourth Section of said bill declares that, "all male citizens above the age of twenty-one years who have resided one year in said State, or ten days within the election district," shall be entitled to vote, and the Fifth Section says—"The word "citizen," as used in this act, shall be construed to mean all persons (except Indians not taxed) born in the United States or duly naturalized."

Thad. Stevens here says in his bill that negroes, and everybody else (except Indians not taxed) are citizens, and he says, a negro, or any other citizen shall vote and is competent to hold office! He is the acknowledged leader of the radicals in Congress and can carry any bill he chooses through that body. No Mississippi Planter ever held his slaves in greater subjection than Thad. Stevens holds his base tools. When the radicals endorse Congress, they endorse Thad. Stevens, Sumner, Creswell, Frank Thomas and Negro Suffrage and Negro Equality, and although they may squirm and screw and twist as they please, they can't get rid of it.—There is no such thing as rubbing it out. As Governor Swann says—"negro suffrage is the question"—shirk and dodge it as you may.

THE WAR NEWS FROM EUROPE.

The unpleasant fact comes to us, at last, that war can no longer be avoided in Europe; and there is little doubt but that Austria, which has assumed the responsibility of refusing to accommodate differences through the proposed conference, will seek to make it sharp, short, and decisive. This, according to the best accounts, she can do; because having for some time looked upon the impending conflict as something impossible to avoid, she is best prepared to take the field speedily, and so make the most of whatever advantages may arise from prompt action in seizing the initiative.

And if Austria is willing to enter upon the struggle, everything seems to show that Italy, especially, is still more so.—Eager for a chance, ever since the days of Solferino and Magenta, to try conclusions for Austrian Italy, it is probable that Victor Emmanuel desires no better chance than to enter upon the contest, especially with Prussia, and possibly France, to influence matters in his favor, to throw the balance against Austria when it comes to the acme of the struggle.

The next European arrival will probably bring the news of hostilities really commenced—a conflict which cannot last very long, as we think. What Austria, in a state of bankruptcy, does, she must do with little delay; but that she can put forth tremendous efforts for a brief space, the last encounter with France proves. Another war of the Titans, and sick of "wars and rumors of wars," the American people can only contemplate the terrible struggle with earnest regret.—Balt. Com.

THE CHOLERA IN SCHENECTADY, N. Y.—The real Asiatic cholera has made its appearance in Schenectady, N. Y., and three victims have already been claimed by the pestilence. The Troy Press, says:

The first was James Ladel, who was taken sick on Monday night and died Tuesday morning. He had been troubled with diarrahea for several weeks, but not so much as to incapacitate him for business. The second victim was Wm. H. Snyder, who had, up to within a short time of his death, been perfectly healthy. Mr. Snyder, it is said, had worked very hard during Tuesday, in fact over exerted himself, and on Tuesday evening, feeling very weary, drank freely of Congress water.—He was shortly afterwards seized with severe cramps, which were followed by a painless diarrhea, resulting in his death in about twelve hours. The third is Mr. John W. Evans. Mr. E., it is stated, had eaten of veal on Tuesday morning, and in a few hours afterwards was seized with painless diarrhea, but unfortunately neglected to call in the aid of a physician until afternoon. He continued growing worse during Wednesday, and shortly after midnight expired. The most experienced physicians of Schenectady pronounce all three of these cases real Asiatic cholera. In each instance was the victim seized with cramps, followed by a painless diarrhea, collapse, a numbness and coldness of the extremities and total prostration.
