Individuality Counts

THE MARKS of individuality are as clear as sunlinght in the Suit or Overcoat made expressly for you. Fads without follies, grace without grotesqueness—that's our virile standard. However the tastes differ, the new Fall and Winter fabrics meet instant indorsement. Stipes have first call in grays and other shades. Our range is broadest, our models brightest, our tailoring sublime. We are style creators in fashions realm.

"The Vogue," three buttons, long, graceful lapels; a truly captivating style. Fit perfect or no sale. you need no bulging purse here.

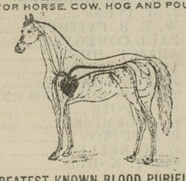
FEED FAIRFIELD'S BLOOD TONICS

A SEPARATE PREPARATION FOR HORSE, COW, HOG AND POULTRY.



GREATEST KNOWN BLOOD PURIFIERS

The working capacity of any horse can be practically doubled by feeding FAIRFIELD'S BLOOD TONIC for HORSES regularly. It exterminates worms, builds up the health and saves feed.

The farmer that sowed wheat all over his farm and expected to reap a crop of wheat, oats and corn from same, would be more foolish than the man who feeds his horse, cow, hog and poultry from the same package of Condition Powder and expects to get results. The intelligent farmer feeds FAIRFIELD'S, because there is a separate preparation for each kind of animal.

THE FAIRFIELD PREPARATIONS ARE SOLD UNDER WRITTEN GUARANTEE BY

Chestertown Gets $5,000.—Commissioner T. S. Bordley, of Chestertown, appeared before the Kent commissioners last Tuesday and explained the fact that Chestertown had not been getting her proportion of the road fund. Heretofore $2,000 has been given Chestertown, but the law says that Chestertown shall receive an amount proportionate to the assessed value of the town. This would entitle her to $4,204 in 1908 and $5,398 in 1909. The commissioners passed an order to allow the town according as the law directs, which entitles it to about $5,500, in addition to what she has already received.

Court Notes.—Chestertown was well represented at Easton court this week, there being several cases on trial from this county. The case of J. Romie Byron and George Hendrickson vs. the Chester Freighting Co., for loss of grain, was called Wednesday, continued until midnight same day and concluded on Thanksgiving day! We had never heard of holding court on this day, but under the circumstances the Judges deemed it necessary. Messrs. Hope H. Barroll and Harry Covington represented the plaintiffs, while Messrs Edw. Brown, Harry Legg and M. Shehan appeared for the defense, and it was a stubbornly fought case from start to finish. The case was finally not allowed to go to the jury, which of course means a verdict for defendants. It was shown that the boat on which the grain was shipped belonged to Charles Johnson, and that he was to have received the freight.

The second case was the suit of Beck, Walker Co. against Capt. Harry Pfeffer, for loss of material.

On account of absence of witnesses the case did not come to trial.

Among those in attendance on these cases were Messrs. Beck, Barroll and Wickes, attorneys; H. Pfeffer, Marion Coleman, Capt. Bachelor, P. B. Hollis, Thos. Massey, H. L. Boyd, Victor and George V. Hendrickson, J. R. Byron, T. D. Bowers, Fred. G. Usilton, J. E. Nickerson, Chas. H. Johnson, C. W. Kibler.

Careless Shooting.—Mrs. Eliza Gledhill, a well-known resident of near Chester bridge, made a narrow escape with her life Sunday afternoon. She was standing in her yard leaning against a fence post when several young men from Chestertown with pistols or cat rifles fired a shot which struck the post against which she was leaning. The Kent officials have no jurisdiction across the bridge, we therefore call upon our neighbors in Queen Anne's to protect their worthy citizens.

Don't forget the King's Daughter's entertainment to be given in Stam's Hall next Tuesday evening. It will be a rare treat and the proceeds are for a worthy purpose.
