CHAPTER 14.

An Act to incorporate the Baltimore and Savannah Steamship Company.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Jacob Brandt Jr., Robert Lehr, Henry R. Hazelhurst, Daniel Wiegand, Thos. C. Jenkins, Wm. S. Rayner and others, their successors and assigns, be, and they are hereby created and made a corporation and body politic, by the name and title of the Baltimore and Savannah Steamship Company, and by that name and title shall have succession and shall be capable in law to sue and be sued in any court of law or equity; to have and use a common seal, and to alter the same when deemed expedient; and generally to do all such acts as shall be proper and necessary for the purpose of employing one or more steamships to navigate the Chesapeake, its tributaries and the Atlantic coast, for the conveyance of passengers, towing of vessels, and the transportation of merchandise or other articles.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the capital stock of the said company shall be one hundred and thirty thousand dollars, divided into shares of one hundred dollars each; and it shall be lawful for said company hereby created to enlarge the capital of said company when necessary for the purpose of increasing the business of said company, so as the capital of said company shall not exceed five hundred thousand dollars, to be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each, to be subscribed for or disposed of from time to time in such manner as the resolution or by-laws made in pursuance of this charter shall provide.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That the affairs of said company shall be managed by a president and board of directors consisting of six persons, the president and directors to be chosen out of the stockholders of said company, the president to be a member of said board of directors; the said board of directors shall be elected on the first Monday of February in each and every year, or within thirty days thereafter, to continue in office until a new election; a majority of said directors at all meetings shall have power to act as if all were present; each stockholder shall vote in person or by proxy, and shall be entitled to as many votes as the shares of which he or she shall be the owner.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That the board of directors shall have power and authority to appoint and employ all such agents, officers, engineers, laborers and servants whatsoever, as they may deem necessary for the transaction of the business of the company, and may remove any of them at their pleasure; and to determine and fix their wages or salaries; that they may contract, agree to rent, lease, purchase or build, all such lands, tenements, chattels, boats, vessels, stages, carriages, materials, rights, privileges and effects whatsoever; and to make and repair, or cause to be made and repaired, all such steamboats, roads, wharves, buildings, boats, vessels, carriages and conveniences as they shall deem necessary for effecting the object of the company, and the same or any part thereof, to sell or otherwise dispose of, when in their judgment it will be to the interest of the company; and that they prescribe the mode of conducting the elections of said company, the manner and evidence of transfers of stock, the conditions of forfeiture thereof; and are hereby empowered to pass all by-laws and resolutions requisite for the welfare of the company; provided, such by-laws and resolutions shall not be contrary to the laws of the United States or the laws of the State of Maryland, or inconsistent with the provisions of this charter.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That the President and Directors shall declare dividends of the profits realized, if any, by the company, or on so much thereof from time to time as a majority of them shall deem expedient.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That the shares of the stock aforesaid may be transferred by the owners thereof, their executors, administrators or attorney duly and lawfully authorized, in a book to be provided for that purpose, and in such manner as the directors shall determine.

Sec. 7. And be it enacted, That the board of directors or the stockholders holding a majority of the stocks shall have power at any time to call a general meeting of the stockholders by giving notice at least three times a week for three weeks, in two of the newspapers of the city of Baltimore, for the time and place of such general meeting of the stockholders, and at all such meetings of the stockholders, the votes shall be taken as in the manner of electing directors, and a majority of the whole stock of the company shall have the power of closing and winding up the concerns of said company.

Sec. 8. And be it enacted, That the said corporation is hereby prohibited from issuing any note, certificate, device or evidence of debt to be used as currency; and the right is hereby expressly reserved to the General Assembly of Maryland to repeal this act at its pleasure.

Sec. 9. And be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to authorize the said corporation to go into operation until one thousand shares of stock are subscribed, and twenty-five thousand dollars paid in, and for every additional hundred thousand dollars of capital stock, fifty thousand dollars subscribed and twenty-five thousand dollars paid in.

Sec. 10. And be it enacted, That this act shall go into effect from and after the date of its passage.

CHAPTER 54.

An Act to incorporate the Baltimore and Havana Stemship Company.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That George S. Brown, Charles De Garmendia, E. C. Wambersia, Henry R. Hazelhurst, James E. Ramsay, Samuel J. Pentz and Alfred Jenkins, their successors and assigns be, and they are hereby incorporated by the name of the Baltimore and Havana Steamship Company, for the purpose of establishing and carrying on a line of steamships between the cities of Baltimore and Havana, with liberty to touch and stop at the city of Charleston, or to establish and carry on a line of steamships to that place; and also with liberty to establish and carry on a line of steamships to the city of New Orleans, and touch and stop at the city of Havana; and said company shall have and possess all the powers proper for said objects, and especially, shall have power to build, buy, charter or hire, such vessels, to erect, purchase, lease or rent, such warehouses and wharves, to buy and sell goods, wares and merchandise; and to appoint such officers and agents as the board of directors of said company shall deem necessary or proper.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the capital of said company shall consist of such amount not exceeding five hundred thousand dollars, as may by the board of directors of said company, from time to time, be deemed necessary or expedient; and shall be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each, to be subscribed for or disposed of in such manner as the said board may direct.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That the management and control of the business and concerns of said company shall be vested in seven directors, to be elected annually from among the stockholders, four of whom shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business; and one of whom shall by said board be elected President; that the first annual election shall be held on the first Wednesday in February, eighteen hundred and sixty-six, and the succeeding annual elections on the same day in every year thereafter; and if for any cause an election should fail to be held on the appointed day, the Board of Directors shall appoint a subsequent day as soon as conveniently may be thereafter for holding such election; not less than one week's notice shall be given in a newspaper of the city of Baltimore, of the time and place of holding any annual election, and every stockholder shall be entitled to one vote for every share of stock which he or she may hold, and may vote in person or by proxy; vacancies in the board occurring after an election may be filled by the board, and every board shall continue in office until an election of another board shall take place; the persons named in the first section of this act shall constitute the first Board of Directors, and continue in office until the first annual election shall take place.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That said board shall have power to make such by-laws, consistent with law, as it may deem proper for the management of the business and concerns of the company, and to alter them from time to time.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That the company shall have a lien on the stock of every stockholder for any debt which he or she may owe to the company.

Sec. 8. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the day of its passage.

CHAPTER 65.

AN ACT to incorporate the Cherrystone Steam Navigation Company.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Moor N. Falls, William H. Kimberly, James M. Hunt, Nathaniel McKay and others, their successors and assigns, be, and they are hereby created and made a corporate and body politic, by the name and title of the Cherrystone Steam Navigation Company, and by that name and title shall have perpetual succession, and shall be capable in law to sue and be sued in any court of law or equity, to have and use a common seal, and to alter the same when deemed expedient, and generally to do all such acts as shall be proper and necessary for the purpose of employing one or more steamboats, to navigate the waters of Chesapeake Bay and its tributaries, and to connect thereto boats, vessels, stages or other carriages, for the conveyance of passengers, towing of ships, vessels, rafts or arks, and the transportation of merchandise or other articles.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the capital stock of said company shall be one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, to be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each, to be subscribed for or disposed of from time to time, in such manner as the by-laws or resolutions made in pursuance of this charter shall provide; and it shall be lawful for said company hereby created, to enlarge its capital when necessary, for the purpose of increasing its business; provided, it shall not exceed three hundred thousand dollars.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That the affairs of the said company shall be managed by a President and a Board of Directors, consisting of four persons; the President and Directors to be chosen out of the stockholders of said company; the President to be a member of said Board of Directors; the said Board of Directors shall be elected on the first Monday in May, in each and every year, or within thirty days thereafter, to continue in office until a new election, a majority of said Directors at all meetings shall have power to act as if all were present; each stockholder shall vote in person or by proxy, and shall be entitled to as many votes as the shares of which he or she shall be the owner.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That the Board of Directors shall have full power and authority to appoint and employ all agents, officers, engineers, laborers and servants whatsoever, as they may deem necessary for the transaction of the business of the company, and may remove any of them at their pleasure, and to determine and fix their salaries or wages; that they may contract, agree for to rent, lease, purchase or build, all such lands, tenements, chattels, boats, vessels, stages, carriages, materials, rights, privileges and effects whatsoever, and to make and repair, or cause to be made and repaired, all such steamboats, roads, wharves, buildings, boats, vessels, carriages and conveyances, as they shall deem necessary for effecting the objects of the company, and the same or any part thereof, to sell or otherwise dispose of, when in their judgment it will be to the interest of the company, and that they prescribe the mode of conducting the elections of said company, the manner and evidence of transfers of stock, the condition of forfeiture thereof, and are hereby empowered to pass all by-laws and resolutions requisite for the welfare of the company; provided, such by-laws and resolutions shall not be contrary to the laws of the United States or the laws of the State of Maryland, or inconsistent with the provisions of this charter, to determine the manner of employment, to establish the route or routes, hours of starting, prices of passages, fare, transportation of freights, and all other emoluments to be derived from the business of said company, in the best manner for the interest and advantage of all parties concerned; that the said Board of Directors shall keep a correct record of their proceedings, which shall be subject to the inspection of the majority of the stock duly represented.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That the President and Directors shall declare dividends of the profits realized, if any, by the company, or on so much thereof from time to time, as a majority of them shall deem expedient.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That the shares of the stock aforesaid may be transferred by the owners thereof, their executors and administrators or attorneys, duly and lawfully authorized, in a book to be provided for that purpose, and in such manner as the Directors shall determine.

Sec. 7. And be it enacted, That the Board of Directors, or the stockholders holding a majority of the stock, shall have power at any time to call a general meeting of the stockholders, by giving notice at least three times a week, for three weeks, in two of the newspapers in the city of Baltimore, for the time and place of such general meetings of the stockholders, and at all such meetings of the stockholders, the votes shall be taken as in the manner of electing Directors, and a majority of two-thirds of the stock represented at meetings shall have the power of closing and winding up the concerns of said company.

Sec. 8. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect on and after the date of its passage.

CHAPTER 83.

A Supplement to the act entitled, an Act to incorporate the Baltimore and Philadelphia Steamboat Company, passed at December session eighteen hundred and forty-three, chapter one hundred and fifty-eight.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall and may be lawful for the President and Directors of the Baltimore and Philadelphia Steamboat Company, in case this act shall be accepted by the stockholders of said company, to increase the capaitl thereof by the issue of such number of additional shares of stock as they may deem expedient of the like par value each, as the existing shares; provided, nevertheless, that the whole number of existing shares shall not exceed twenty-five thousand.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the additional shares hereby authorized, may be disposed of from time to time, in such manner as the stockholders may by resolution direct.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

CHAPTER 140.

An Act appropriating a sum of money to pay the claim of Henry H. Owings, for costs in the Orphans' Court of Baltimore city, and in the Court of Appeals, due to him by the State, in the case of Henry H. Owings vs. State of Maryland.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Comptroller be and he is hereby directed to issue his warrant upon the Treasurer to pay Henry H. Owings, or order, the sum of one hundred and six dollars and eleven cents due him by the State, for costs in the Orphans' Court of Baltimore city, and in the Court of Appeals, in the case of Henry H. Owings vs. State of Maryland, the judgment for said costs being against the State and in favor of the said Henry H. Owings.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

AMMONIATED
SUPER-PHOSPHATE OF LIME.

FARMERS AND DEALERS
are respectfully referred to the above FERTILIZERS, as being prepared in the best manner, thoroughly reliable, and in every way calculated to give universal satisfaction. They are extensively known, having been used with great success during the past six or seven years.
☞ Read the following certificate of one of the best chemists of this country:
CHEMICAL LABARATORY,
No. 108 Arch Street,
PHILADELPHIA, April 10th, 1866.
During the last five years I have been in frequent consultation with Mr. George M. Woodward, manufacturer of Messrs. BERGER & BUTZ's artificial manures, in regard to the preparation of their Super Phosphate of Lime, etc. The materials used in these Fertilizers, are in all cases subjected to my examination and analysis before purchase. Being fully acquainted with their formula and methods of manufacture, I can assure those interested in the purchase and sale of Fertilizers, that their "EXCELSIOR" and "AMMONIATED" Super Phosphate of Lime are of such a character as must render them of great value to the farmer, and place them amongst the BEST FERTILIZERS now in the market. F. A. GENTH.
☞ We Guarantee these Fertizers to be UNADULTERATED. ☜
By the introduction of new and improved machinery into our factory these articles will be much better prepared than formerly.

SOLUBLE PACIFIC GUANO.
200 LBS. SOLUBLE PACIFIC GUANO contains 70 lbs. animal matter, yielding 7 to 8 lbs. ammonia.
Also 80 to 90 lbs. earthy bone Phosphate of Lime, 30 lbs. of which are soluble Phosphate.
It combines all the advantages of the best brands of Super Phosphate, with those of Peruvian Guano.
By reason of its greater concentration, we recommend 20 per ct. less by weight to be used per acre, than of any fertilizer costing the same per ton; and no more per acre than of those selling at 20 per ct. more per ton. Hence its economy.
This Guano weighs 65 lbs. per bushel, hence in applying it farmers must be governed by weight and not by bulk, for it is much lighter than the Super Phosphates. Every cargo duly inspected.
JOHN S. REESE & CO.,
GENERAL AGENTS FOR THE SOUTH,
ap28 3m. 71 South Street, Baltimore

"FLOUR OF BONE."
WE will give a money guarantee of the purity of this article. It is pure unsteamed, unburnt bone, reduced to the finenes of flour, which adds 100 per cent. to its value. It is as quick and active, as acid dissolved bone, hence its value is vastly greater, because it contains neither acid nor water, which necessarily add weight, and reduce the quantity of valuable elements. We recommend 250 lbs. to be used in place of 300 lbs. Super Phosphate or dissolved bone.
