TAKE A LOOK.

at the walls of the homes you enter. You will see the characters of the inmates mirrorred thereon. On some walls you will find an ordinary, inoffensive sort of paper, that means thoughtfulness. On others you will see atrocious outrages in hideous colors and wonderful designs, that means carelessness. On others beautiful color combinations, harmony, delicate, graceful designs, the work of artists, speak of a love of beauty and one of our customers.

Social Club at Betterton.

The Betterton Club, an association formed to promote the athletic and social interests of its members, and more particularly to enhance the interests of the bayside resort at Betterton, Md., was formed July 16 by a number of energetic Baltimoreans, who are frequent visitors.

Among the propositions that have been discussed is that of erecting a clubhouse and laying out grounds on the water front with boating facilities. It is receiving active consideration. Admission is limited at present to 20 and is by invitation only. The assessments as provided by the constitution are as follows: "The assessment shall be a sum to be voted upon in accordance with the desire of it members and the necessities of the occasion."

The following gentleman, who have been prominent in both the social and athletic life of the city, constitute with one exception the officers for the ensuing year. The list is:

Grand president, Dr. D. A. Medders; vice-president, Harry Blimline; keeper of the seal and secretary, Dr. C. A. Overman; aquatic and water captain, Litt Crew, and chief butler, Harry Hechheimer.
