The Kent News.

CHESTERTOWN:

Saturday Morning, July 21, 1866.

THE NEWS.

President Johnson, on Monday, transmitted to Congress a message vetoing the bill recently passed by that body to continue in operation the law creating the Freedmen's Bureau for two years. He repeats substantially the views expressed in his message some months since vetoing the bill to enlarge and extend the provisions of the Freedmen's Bureau. The bill was passed over the veto, in the House by a vote of 104 yeas to 33 nays, and in the Senate by a vote of 33 yeas to 12 nays. It is estimated that it will require at least $20,000,000 to carry out the provisions of this bill. This is the way taxation is increased and the people's money squandered by the present unscrupulous and fanatical Congress, in providing for the support in indolence of thousands of freedmen who would otherwise perhaps earn for themselves a decent living. So long as the Radical party remain in power it is evident that the people need not expect any reduction in their taxes, for notwithstanding the enormous burthens now imposed, all sorts of impracticable and visionary schemes are resorted to, to still increase the public debt.

The Hon. Montgomery Blair addressed a large meeting of Conservatives at Reading, Pa., on the 18th inst. He predicted that should the Radicals carry the October election, the result would be the establishment of two Presidents and two Congresses, for the Radicals would then immediately impeach President Johnson and turn him out, while on the other hand, the Democratic members of Congress would unite with the regularly elected members from the South! He also warned his hearers that they were on the eve of another civil war, the battle field of which would be in the North, while the South would remain a unit.

Hon. Wm. H. Seward has written an able letter, endorsing the call for the National Convention to be held in Philadelphia on the 14th of August.

Excursions.—The Excursion on Tuesday next, by the M. P. Sabbath School of Chestertown, promises to be a very successful affair. The fine steamer "George Law," having been rebuilt and elegantly furnished, has been chartered; a good Band of Music engaged, and every other arrangement made, calculated to add to the comfort and pleasure of the excursionists. The privilege of landing at and viewing the interior of Fort Carroll has also been granted. The boat leaves Chestertown at 7½ o'clock, and will arrive in the city in time to allow the excursionists several hours to remain there and return at a seasonable hour in the evening.—Tickets can now be had at several of the stores, in Chestertown.

The St. James' M. P. Sabbath School advertise an excursion on the Trumpeter to Baltimore, and the Pavilion at North Point, on Wednesday, July 25th.

The Steamer Chester has been chartered for an excursion from Chester River to Cambridge, on Wednesday, Aug. 1st.

Land Sales.—Jos. A. Wickes, Esq., as trustee, sold on Tuesday last the farm of the late Ezekiel C. Wickes, situated about two miles and a half from Chestertown, and containing 150 acres. Purchased by Wm. W. Wallis at $66 per acre.

Also, 55 acres and 17 perches of land, without buildings, on the opposite side of the road from the above. Purchased by Wm. H. Hamilton at $52 per acre.

Serious Accident.—Mr. Jas L. Davis, residing near Chesterville, had his right foot nearly cut off at Slaughter's saw-mill, at Crumpton, on the 7th inst. The saw cut obliquely across the foot, entering from the right side just below the instep, leaving but a small bone connecting the parts. It was feared a few days ago that amputation of the entire foot would become necessary. Mr. D. is truly unfortunate, having but a few weeks since lost his dwelling by fire.

Camp Meeting.—The camp meeting for Kent circuit, M. E. Church, will commence in Baker's woods on Friday next. At a meeting of the managers on the ground on Wednesday, places were selected for about sixty tents, and it is thought the number will be increased to seventy or more by the time the meeting begins. The supply of ministerial help promises to be ample, a number of clergyman having signified their intention to be present.

Court.—An adjourned session of the May term of our Circuit Court was held on Tuesday. The motion for a new trial in the case of B. H. Gardner, convicted at the May term of an assault on the jail and attempting to liberate a prisoner therefrom, was withdrawn by counsel, whereupon the Court directed him to be fined in the sum of one hundred dollars and costs. Chancery business occupied the remaining portion of the session.

COUNTY MEETING.

Pursuant to the call issued by the majority of the State Central Committee, the friends of President Johnson met at the Court House in Chestertown on Wednesday, July 18th, at 11 o'clock, A. M.

The meeting was organized by calling Gen. George Vickers to the Chair, and appointing S. W. Spencer, Esq, Sec'y.

After a statement by the chairman of the object of the meeting, on motion of R. Hynson, Esq., a committee of seven was appointed to prepare resolutions, and for the purpose of selecting delegates to attend the State Convention in Baltimore on Wednesday, the 25th inst., and also delegates to attend a Congressional Convention to nominate a candidate for Congress.

The chair appointed the following gentlemen on said committee, viz: Richard Hynson, S. W. Spencer, J. K. Hines, Horatio Beck, John Hadaway, William Welch and John Brice, who after consultation reported the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the efforts of the President, Andrew Johnson, to restore the Union upon a constitutional basis, to preserve the Constitution from violence and infraction by Congress by the exercise of his veto to the Civil Rights and Freedmen's Bureau bills, and his opposition to the proposed amendment of the Constitution for the purpose of elevating the negro to an equality at the ballot-box, merit the approbation and gratitude of every true lover of constitutional government.

Resolved, That the policy and measures of the Congress of the United States in reference to the Southern representatives and freedmen are demoralizing, disorganizing and revolutionary, calculated to engender and foster bitterness and estrangement of feeling, to retard and impair the material prosperity of the country, to unduly elevate the negro and disparage the white man; to unite and equalize distinct peoples, against the manifest laws of nature and of Providence, in direct conflict with the genius of our institutions and destructive of our frame of Government.

Resolved, That the policy of the President is calculated to re-unite us as a people—to restore harmony, fellowship and prosperity to our country; to preserve the Constitution, the Union, and our institutions; to allay the excitements of parties, and to promote the prosperity and happiness of the whole people.

Resolved, That the issue as presented to the people of Maryland at the next election, is virtually that of the preservation of the ballot-box from the votes of the negro and the retention of political power in the hands of white men—its present possessors. The passage over the President's veto of the Civil Rights bill, also the Freedmen's Bureau bills, which are to impose heavy burthens upon the people by increasing taxation, for the benefit alone of the negro and the numerous office holders appointed to execute their provisions, and which places the liberty of the citizen in the hands of a military commission in controversies which may arise between them and the freedmen; the proposed amendment to the Constitution by Congress, which offers a premium to such States as will give the ballot to the negro, and the reduction of the political power of those that shall refuse, and the rejection of which by our own State will lose us at least one representative in Congress; and the avowed opinions in debate of the leading republican members of that body in favor of universal suffrage and equality with the negro, all combine to exhibit clearly to the people of Maryland the fixed design and purpose of the Republican party to establish civil and political equality between the races.

Resolved, That the minority in Congress who have resisted the unconstitutional and inexpedient measures of the majority, by their debates and votes, are entitled to the commendation and thanks of every true patriot.

Resolved, That the Registry law should be so amended as to protect the rights of the people in the enjoyment of suffrage, without which no Government is republican, and to require in its administration a conformity only to the provisions of the Constitution.

Resolved, That the public declaration of Governor Swann that the Registry law shall in its future be administered in a fair and liberal, and not in a rigorous and intolerant manner as heretofore, meets our decided approval.

Resolved, That we approve the call of a National Convention on the 14th August, in Philadelphia, and recommend that, forgetting all former political denominations, the people rally as one man to the support of the President, the Constitution, and the Union.

The committee also nominated the following gentlemen as delegates to the State and Congressional Conventions:—For the State—Samuel W. Spencer, Wm. Welch, and George Vickers. For the Congressional—Richard Hynson, William Welch and Jesse K. Hines. These nominations were unanimously confirmed by the meeting

On motion, it was adopted that said delegations have power to fill any vacancies that may occur therein.

On motion, the meeting adjourned.

GEO. VICKERS, Chm'n.
S. W. Spencer, Sec'y.

The Weather.—Monday and Tuesday last were the hottest days experienced here for several years. On Monday, at 12 M., the thermometer in our office stood at 94°, and at 6 P. M. at 97°, and on Tuesday, at the same hours, at 96° and 98°. In some places in our town the mercury rose to 102° in the shade. The highest point attained in our office at any period last summer was 94°.

The weather has been excessively hot in all sections of the country, and in the large cities many persons have died from sun-stroke and other effects of the heat.

MASS MEETING AT FREDERICK.

Speeches by Gov. Bradford & Gov. Swann.

Governor Swann and ex-Gov. Bradford addressed a large meeting of the friends of President Johnson, at Frederick, on Wednesday last.

A correspondent of the Baltimore Sun gives the following account of the meeting:

Resolutions were adopted with great enthusiasm, approving the restoration policy of President Johnson and the patriotic, national course of Governor Swann; approving the proposed Philadelphia Convention; appointing delegates to the State Convention on the 25th instant, and authorizing an appointment of delegates to the Philadelphia Convention.

Gov. Bradford then addressed the people for two and a half hours, in a speech such as has been rarely heard from any man. Eloquent and full of information and cogent argument, it enchained the attention of his hearers for the time mentioned frequently interrupted by tremendous applause. He thoroughly vindicated and sustained, the whole policy of the President, demonstrated that he has followed the lead of the late President Lincoln, denounced negro suffrage and negro equality, showed clearly that the Civil Rights bill and the recent amendments to the constitution proposed by Congress were but shifts and devices of radical politicians to maintain power at the sacrifice of constitutional rights of the States, as established by the founders of the government, and to destroy the character of the government; that whilst no Northern State would lose a single member of Congress, Maryland, already reduced from nine to five members, must lose one of them at least, and that the whole course of the radical party in Congress tended to embitter the South and to alienate from each other the sections of our common country, which it was the duty of every patriot to strive to cement.

Gov. Swann addressed the meeting in the evening, in a speech, the correspondent says, "powerful in manner and in matter, and which produced telling effect."

Adjournment of Congress.—Accounts from Washington say that at a caucus of Republican members of Congress, held on Saturday night last, it was resolved to adjourn the present session on Monday next, the 23d. A cotemporary very truthfully remarks that "it will be a great boon when once accomplished, for the Congress has been but a negative body through the major portion of the session, thwarting the great purposes of restoration which the people and President had earnestly at heart before its meeting, and keeping alive elements of division and animosity betwixt the sections which otherwise had been entirely allayed before this. Notwithstanding the issue that has been made with the President, and the doggedness with which it is maintained, there has nothing emanated from Congress of an antagonistic character which may be dignified with the term policy. The programme of proposed measures in that regard has proved an abortion, and nothing has been put forth but an impracticable constitutional amendment which the requisite number of States is not expected to ratify. It has been a mere negative Congress, keeping up the disruption of the States and preventing re-union of the people as far as it was able. The country, we say it again, is to be congratulated on its early prospective dispersion."

Railroad Meeting at Warwick.—A meeting of citizens friendly to the construction of the Kent County Railroad was held at Gillespie's hotel, Warwick, on Monday, 9th inst., for the purpose of comparing views, taking stock, and devising the most practicable railroad route best suited to the interest of the people. All present seemed fully alive to the importance of the occasion, and the sum of $10,000 was subscribed. Resolutions were adopted by the meeting recommending the location of a route from Middletown, Del., to the Head of Sassafras, in Maryland, and the following committee was appointed to superintend the survey: Hamilton Morton, J. W. Davis and John F. Stephens. A finance committee was also appointed to canvass the district for subscriptions to the capital stock of the company, composed of the following gentlemen: J. W. Davis, J. B. Morton and W. L. Lockwood. The following resolutions, among others, were passed:

Resolved unanimously, That a railroad route be run, tapping the Delaware Railroad at Middletown, Del., via Warwick, Cecil county, Md.; thence to Head of Sassafras, Massey's X Roads, and other intermediate places in Kent.

Resolved unanimously, (the money being raised on the day of meeting,) That a preliminary survey be made immediately of said railroad route.

Cabinet Changes.—Hon. W. Dennison, Postmaster General, tendered his resignation to the President on the 11th inst., which was accepted on the 14th.—Mr. D. informs the President that he resigns "chiefly because of the difference of opinion between us in regard to the proposed amendment of the Constitution, which I approve, and the movement for the Convention to be held at Philadelphia on the 14th proximo, to which I am opposed." The President has nominated to the Senate the Hon. A. W. Randall, the First Assistant Postmaster General, to be Mr. Dennison's successor.

It is positively asserted that Secretary Harlan and Attorney General Speed have also prepared letters of resignation, but there is nothing to show that they have reached the hands of the President. Another report alleges that Secretary Stanton has also prepared a letter of resignation.

Camp Meeting.—Centreville Station of the M. E. Church will hold a camp meeting at the Wye camp ground, commencing August 10th.

The Philadelphia Convention—Letter from Gen. John A. Dix.—The following letter from General John A. Dix is addressed to Senator Doolittle:

New York, July 13, 1866.—My Dear Sir: I have received the call issued by yourself and others for a National Union Convention in Philadelphia on the 14th of August. I concur in its propositions, its reasonings and its objects, and will do all in my power to carry them out.

I long since expressed the opinion that the States were entitled to their representation in Congress; that their exclusion was a violation of good faith and of the obligations of the constitution; and that a persistence in such a policy, must lead to consequences most disastrous to the peace of the country. These and other considerations connected with the present unsatisfactory relations of the States to the Federal Government, and to each other, render most timely and proper such a meeting as you have recommended of the patriotic and reflecting men of the Union, to consult together for the general welfare.

I am, truly yours, John A. Dix.

Party Trickery.—The National Intelligencer remarks upon the adroit manner in which the majority leaders of the two Houses of Congress manipulate certain ticklish questions, which, if left untouched, or which, if pushed too far, might affect the chances of party success in the next elections. It refers particularly to the questions of negro suffrage and the tariff. Both these matters have been pushed through the House with great impressement; but both have received their quietus in the Senate. The Intelligencer adds:

"All this is highly artistic, in the shape of party trickery. It enables the party to go into the elections riding two horses.—Where negro suffrage is in demand, they can point triumphantly to the action of the House on the bill to authorize it in this District. When it is not palatable to the people, they can refer to the negative action of the Senate. And it is the same way on the tariff. Where the cry for protection is ravenous, they have only to refer to the bill which passed the House; where this issue does not pay well, they can present the other side of the picture, and show how beautifully the Senate let the thing down. It was said of the Roman Augurs that it was curious how two of them could meet without laughing in each other's faces. The remark is certainly wonderfully applicable to our majority leaders in Congress. They proceed, however, on the great principle, that the people can be humbugged and must be humbugged. And their signal success hitherto on this line is certainly some encouragement for them to proceed on the same road."

The steamer George Law having been rebuilt and remodeled, and refitted in the handsomest style, will resume her trips on the "Chester River Line" on Monday next, taking the place of the Arrow.—See advertisement in another column for the new arrangement of this line.

DEATHS.

At St. Agnes Hospital, Baltimore, June 21st, 1866, WILLIAM H. McKEAN, at an advanced age.

The deceased taught school in this county for many years. The writer's first recollection of him was as teacher of the public school at Caulk's field gate—1835-'37. Though a strict disciplinarian, and never tolerated idleness in school, yet he always commanded the respect and esteem of his pupils. He was what might be termed "a natural teacher"—possessing abilities pecularly adapted to that calling.—While in the school-room, exercising all the authority belonging to his position, during play hours, in his younger days, he would join heartily in the pastimes of his pupils. He was a man of warm and generous impulses, and never failed to secure and retain the respect and confidence of the community where he might reside. The deceased voluntarily left this county about a year ago, and was soon afterwards stricken down by disease and removed to the hospital, where he remained till death released him from his sufferings. There was no necessity, however, for his leaving this county; for although old, poor, and no longer capacitated for public teaching, the writer has knowledge that his friends here were ready to provide for his future wants.

The unwelcome tidings of his decease were received by none with deeper sorrow than the many citizens of this county—some of them now occupying prominent positions in society—who received the rudiments of their education at his hands; for in recounting the incidents of their school-boy days, they never fail to allude with pleasure to the many happy hours connected with the period spent under his tuition, and always speak of their old instructor in terms of the highest respect.
