CRUMPTON

Mrs. Mary C. Sheppard entertained the Ladies' Aid Society of the M. P. Church Thursday evening.

Friends of Rev. Mr. Scarborough tendered him a delightful surprise party Monday evening, the occasion being his 56th birthday.

Mrs. John Harrison is on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. Hackett Emerson are occupying their new home on Main street, Wm. T. Godwin, the former occupant, having moved to the Granberry property.

Miss Addie Sheppard has been the guest of friends in Wilmington.

Mrs. Martha Lynch, a former resident of our town, died at her home in Linwood, Pa., Sunday evening, Jan. 7th. Funeral services were held in the M. E. Church Wednesday and interment made in Crumpton Cemetery. Mrs. Lynch had lived most of her life in this town, where her kind, general disposition had made her a host of friends. She was a widow of the late Amos Lynch, of this county. She is survived by two children, Miss Mary Barnes, by a former marriage, and Harry Lynch, both of Linwood, Pennsylvania.

Business Outlook for 1923

It is with much pleasure that C. A. Goodwin, Local Lincoln-Ford-Fordson dealer announces that his Service Department has been increased by the addition of W. W. Hadaway—who for some time past has been operating a shop of his own on Cross street.

Mr. Hadaway is one of the best known mechanics of Kent county, honest, energetic, and always pleasing and courteous in his manner.

Mr. Goodwin is always on the job to secure the best possible calibre of men for hisorganization and has rounded up one of the finest collections in the Eastern Shore, numbering among them: D. C. Benton, Chief Clerk, who originally hails from Sudlersville, and who recently married Miss Irene Kirby, of Chestertown. Mr. Benton is ably assisted by Geo. Cranor, as Stock Clerk. The sales force is made up of George Wooley, C. E. Hudson, George Titter and Frank Briggs.

The Service Department—which is known far and near from the excellent service given the Ford owners is made up of Fred Robinson, Philip Sewell, Oscar Hansen, Web Hadaway.

In our interview with Mr. Goodwin he states that he is looking forward to a great increase in business in 1923 and that general conditions throughout Kent and Queen Anne's county are improved and look bright. One of the big features of this organization is their loyalty and sincerity towards their employer which was shown by the splendid exchange of gifts at Christmas time. Mr. Goodwin surprised and pleased his men by a generous distribution of money gifts to them—and he in turn received a beautiful automobile robe.

Profit Sharing Plan For 1923

What possibly is the first step towards putting into effect a real profit-sharing plan was inaugurated by Mr. Goodwin when he took his men to Philadelphia on Thursday evening—giving them a sumptuous banquet at Boothby's Restaurant followed by a theatre party at the Sam S. Shubert Theatre.

The men were greatly pleased by the plan put into effect and have pledged allegiance to the cause—forming "The Go-Getters Association" for 1923 and there is no doubt that increased business will result to the benefit of all.

We feel this is a good step and believe Mr. Goodman is looking at the matter of taking his employees into consideration from the right angle. There is no doubt that the general public will receive, if possible, better and more courteous attention thru the interest the men will take in the business.

All enjoyed the "Passing Show of 1922" at the Shubert and are now ready to work in earnest for business in 1923.

Tide Sweeps Crabs Ashore.

Coast guards at Cold Springs Life Saving Station and Cape May Point report that hundreds of soft crabs were washed up on the beach Monday. These crabs are of the sand variety and bring seventy-five cents to one dollar a dozen in local markets. Long-shoremen at Cape May Point are picking up the crabs in relays, one shift working the morning tide and one the night tide. The crabs are of unusual size.

Fishermen attribute the coming of the crabs to the mild winter which they say is caused by the shifting of the Gulf stream in shore.

James Siegmund, Of 2832 Dillon St., Makes Remarkable Facts In His Case Public.

When the stomach goes wrong everything goes wrong. Such is the experience of James Siegmund, 2832 Dillon St., Baltimore, who enumerates more than a dozen disagreeable symptoms, which he says developed after his stomach got out of order. Mr. Siegmund briefly states his experience as follows:

"Since my stomach got out of fix, five years ago, nearly everything seemed to get the matter with me. Food seemed to form a lump right in the pit of my stomach and turn sour as vinegar. I suffered from indigestion, loss of appetite, gas pains, bloating, palpitation of the heart, shortness of breath, constipation, headaches, nausea, dizzy spells and my nerves were so bad I could hardly sleep. I had backache and rheumatism in my arms and legs and could neither walk or work without great pain.

"However, since I got Tanlac and my stomach and digestion got right my troubles are all gone and I have picked up forty pounds in weight. Before I got this medicine I was losing from three to four days a month from my work and my condition was getting worse all the time. I eat like a house afire, sleep like a log at night, and work comes twice as easy. It certainly was lucky for me that I got Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.—Adv.

Our Obligation

Telephone employees in Maryland realize what service means. They know that good telephone service—from the viewpoint of the patron—consists in being able to reach promptly and without confusion any person desired and to talk satisfactorily and without interruption.

Telephone employees also know good telephone service is not merely the handling of calls, but is made up of all of the Company's many and varied activities.

Good telephone service includes, in addition, the installation of telephones, the moving of telephones to new locations, correct directory listings and proper maintenance of the telephone equipment both in the central office and on the subscriber's premises, and many other things.

Telephone employees realize that to give the public of Maryland good telephone service, the Telephone Company must not fail in any of these things.
