Locals

George W. Stevens has been named as postmaster at Sudlersville.

The ferry at Rock Hall is making regular trips to Bay Shore as per schedule.

E. Cordray Loud has purchased of W. P. Crenshaw his interest in the M. P. Hubbard Fertilizer Co., of Baltimore. The purchase gives Mr. Loud nearly the whole business.

There were over $100,000 invested in Cleveland Discount Co. in Kent county. A great deal of this money is secured by mortgages. The indications are that considerable time will be required to settle the affairs of the Company and it is hoped a wise management will have control so as to pay $1 for $1.

Wm. J. Ashley, former mail carrier between Chestertown and Rock Hall, fell from a load of hay Monday afternoon and fractured his left leg in two places. He was taken to Easton Hospital Wednesday morning.

A portion of the bridge spanning the Bohemia river gave way, early Saturday morning, causing a detour of traffic to Middletown in order to reach here. The big truck of Robert Shallcross was the first to get in the break, but fortunately got out without much damage. A new bridge is badly needed at this place.

The big hearse belonging to Chas. Dodd while enroute to Union Cemetery, near Worton, on Saturday, fell to the ground. A rear axle broke without any warning. A truck was soon obtained and the funeral proceeded to the cemetery. This motor hearse weighs 4500 pounds.

R. Lee Robinson is the first person in Chestertown to have a fine bunch of young chicks. They hatched Saturday and are doing well under hens in a warm house.

While Robert J. McWhorter was en route to his new farm in Delaware, Saturday, with a calf in his automobile, the calf became restless and began to give trouble. In his efforts to quiet the animal, Mr. McWhorter ran the car up on Fred. G. Usilton's lawn on Washington avenue, a shade tree stopped the progress of the runaway car. He has moved his family to Delaware, where he will have charge of a grape and fruit farm.

Lester Baldwin, recently appointed trustee in the bankruptcy case of James G. Harris, was in Chestertown the latter part of the week, and accompanied by Wm. Frazier Russell, Jr., who was appointed attorney, he made a survey of the property including six fine farms and a cannery that represent a very large part of the assets. Arrangements are being made to settle the proceedings as speedily as possible.

Fishing for pike and yellow perch through holes cut in the ice on Chester river is rare sport. Some fine fish have been taken with hook and line.

R. Hynson Rogers has purchased a fine skipjack which will be an acquisition to the speed boats on the Chester river during the summer.

Sach's shoe store is offering some special bargains in shoes at this time in commemoration of their sixth anniversary.

Clara Kimball Young's greatest picture "For The Soul of Raphael" will be shown at the Lyceum, Friday night. Don't miss it.

Frank A. Hurlock, Co., Still Pond, are offering some store fixtures for sale at bargain prices.

Chestertown Council No. 177, Jr. O. U. A. M. presented to Betterton High School a flag and Holy Bible on Thursday last. Members of the order were present and Charles N. Satterfield, past State Councillor, made the presentation speech. Frank Elburn also made an address. Harry Willis made the acceptance speech in behalf of the school. It being Washington's Birthday the scholars presented an interesting program of recitations and music.

Wednesday Robt. Regan and Capt. Charles R. Kerr went to Federalsburg to celebrate the birthday of the former's father, when he was 78 years old. Capt. Kerr and Mr. Regan, Sr., were congenial shipmates 51 years ago and had not met since.

Mr. and J. F. McLaughlin and son, Charles, were week-end guests of relatives in Wilmington.

Mrs. Sadie Raleigh has been quite sick for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ayres who have been spending several months with their son in Washington have returned to Chestertown.

Mrs. William Dumont, of Philadelphia, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Argus Robinson.

Miss Helen Collins spent the week end with relatives in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Jewell will move to the Howard Walls house on High street extended.

Mrs. Winifred Gray, of near Cambridge, is the guest of her brother, William C. Sutton.

Mrs. John Bennett has been housed with a cold the past week.

Mrs. Sarah Pfeffer is quite sick at her home on Cannon street.

Joseph Magragan, a farmer of near Millington, was painfully injured Wednesday morning when he had his left hand badly lacerated by coming in contact with the teeth of a wood saw, on the farm of Wm. A. Jackson, near Sudlersville.

Albert D. Mackey, Esq., a prominent member of the Cecil county Bar and member of the House of Delegates, on Saturday at the Maryland General Hospital in Baltimore sustained an operation by Dr. Robert P. Bay, for intestinal trouble. Mr. Mackey is reported to be recovering very satisfactorily. Mr. Mackey is well-known in Kent, being a Washington College graduate and a member of the Board of Visitors and Governors of that institution, and his many friends here are glad to hear of his improvement.

Mrs. Martha J. Naylor, 1023 Poplar street, Wilmington, celebrated her 84th birthday anniversary in the home of her daughter, Mrs. John H. Warren Sunday. She received many gifts, birthday cards and greetings. Mrs. Naylor was born near Milton, Sussex county, Del., in 1839. Before coming to Wilmington in 1918, she lived on a farm near Messey. Mrs. Naylor has three children, six grandchildren, and five great-grand children. The children are Mrs. John H. Warren and Mrs. Harry H. Hyland, of Wilmington, and John W. Naylor, of Massey.

The Crouch family, of Rock Hall, has been unusually unfortunate lately. Several weeks ago Capt. John using an axe with one hand accidently shopped the other across the back and still has a very sore hand. Irving Crouch had a gun burst when shooting at Love Point and a fragment tore his left forefinger causing it to abscess. His face also was pitted with powder. He has recovered. On the 19th John Crouch, son, of Washington, also had his father's duck gun burst at Love Point. A large fragment of the barrel tore through his sleeves and laid back the flesh over the muscle of his left upper arm. The wound was dressed by a physician at Stevensville and now receives daily attention by a local physician.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Sewell and daughter, Mrs. Webster Hadaway and two children were Sunday guests of their grandmother, Mrs. M. C. Ashley, of Rock Hall.

WASHINGTON COLLEGE QUINT AT SALISBURY

Meets Pick Of Shore Tossers On The Evening Of March 9th In Last Game Of The Season.

The Washington College basketball team, this year Md. State champions and rated as one of the strongest quintets in the East, will play its last game of the present season on Friday evening, March 9, at the First Regiment Armory, Salisbury, at 8.15 o'clock.

Meeting Coach Kibler's "Flying Pentagon" will be a team of Eastern Shoremen "All Stars," composed of the pick of this year's Cambridge, Salisbury, Laurel, Seaford and Milford teams, all of whom are collegiate players of repute.

This is the real sporting event of the season's calendar on the Delmarvia Peninsula and is expected to attract people from all neighboring towns.

Preceding the game at 6.30 o'clock, in the Peninsula Hotel, will be a Smoker for the Peninsula alumni of the Chestertown institution and its friends. Details of this may be secured by addressing Benjamin A. Johnson, Salisbury, attorney, and a member of the Board of Governors of the college. A dance will follow the game.

WASHINGTON HAS IT EASY WITH BLUE RIDGE FIVE

Washington College chalked up another win Saturday night to its long season's list when it topped easily the quintet from Blue Ridge, 39 to 17. The Eastern Shore men drew away to an early lead and held things that way until the end, sending in many subs.

ROBERT C. YOUNG

General Merchandise

Kennedyville, Md.

These are times when people naturally look around to find where their money will go the fartherest in buying of goods.

As we do not think much of advertising prices, simply ask that you call and make inquiries regarding prices.

We are going to do our best to help along this line. Realizing that "times are hard," and that every "penny saved is a penny made." We are going to slice off a penny or two wherever we can.

Home Remedies? Patent Medicines and Sick room Requisites? Why sure we have them—as cheap if not cheaper than elsewhere.

The 1923 SUPERIOR Chevrolet

5-Passenger Sedan

In 1922 Chevrolet led the world in closed car sales, chiefly because of the Sedan. This new Fisher Body Sedan is completely eclipsing its predecessor because:

QUALITY has been still further improved by more artistic design and added equipment.

ECONOMY has been still further increased by engineering refinements and greatly increased facilities.

SERVICE is now offered on a flat rate basis by 10,000 dealers and service stations.

PRICES of the new line remain the same in spite of added equipment and more expensive construction, which have greatly increased value.

Some Distinctive Features

Streamline body design with high hood; vacuum feed and rear gasoline tank on all models; drum type head lamps with legal lenses. Curtains open with doors of open models. Closed models have plate glass Ternstedt regulated windows, straight side cord tires, sun visor, windshield wiper and dash light. The Sedanette is equipped with auto trunk on rear.

POULTRY

THE POULTRY INDUSTRY is one of the largest crops of our state to-day. It is now almost as valuable as Maryland's Wheat Crop.

If then, as an industry it is one of our best producers, it would seem that we should use modern methods of production and growing.

We have given careful thought to this branch of our trade and have selected for your inspection the latest machines and accessories for poultry production.

We offer for your consideration and inspection the

BUCKEYE INCUBATORS AND BROODERS

We carry these in various sizes suitable for the needs of large or small growers.

BUCKEYE Machines are so well-known that we feel it is only necessary for us to say to you that we have them on our floors and are ready to serve you.

Come and see them or ask for catalogue by mail.
