30 CENTS FOR TOMATOES

The Phillips Packing Company contracts with Cambridge Tomato Growers Association for 500 acres of tomatoes at 30 cents per basket.

A telegram from Cambridge, Md., dated March 5th, says: "The Phillips Packing Company contracted today with the Cambridge Tomato Growers' Association for 500 acres of tomatoes at 30 cents a basket, the highest price paid on the Shore, according to reliable reports from other parts. The best paid elsewhere is 25 cents the basket. Members of the association had previously signed individual contracts with the association itself to grow the tomatoes. The deal was made through A. B. Cochrane, agent for the association. It is estimated the 500 acres will yield from 150,000 to 250,000 baskets.

The Kirby Canning Company, of Trappe, announced last week that it would pay as follows: For peas, $60 a ton; tomatoes, $15, and corn, $11.

BOY KILLS A MAN

John Wilson, a colored boy aged 14, is in Chestertown jail charged with killing Lloyd Frisby, a colored man aged 23. The killing took place in front of Ireland's store, Coleman's, late Saturday night. Coroner Dodd held an inquest Sunday and the jury rendered a verdict that Frisby came to his death at the hands of Wilson. It seems that the man had been teasing the boy, had thrown him to the ground twice and injured his shoulder. In a fit of temper the boy grabbed a five pound stone and hurling it at the man struck him in the temple killing him instantly. Sheriff Hadaway, accompaned by Officer Jack Jester and Samuel E. Coopepr went to the scene of crime and returned with the prisoner. He was held for action of Grand Jury.

ROSE BUD FLOUR WINNERS

P. Medford Brooks, the hustling proprietor of Brooks' Mill, stirred up considerable enthusiasm among the bread makers of Kent and Queen Anne's by offering $30 in prizes for best bread. Last Saturday was the day and Imperial Hotel Building the place where prizes were awarded. There were 68 loaves presented from as many ladies. Fat loaves, lean loaves, big and little loaves. long and short loaves, high and low loaves, in fact there were all kinds of loaves and the sight would have made your mouth water. The judges were Misses Annie Copper and Susie Hill, two competent ladies, but they had their hands full. The winners were Miss Genevieve Brown, of Quaker Neck; Mrs. Julian Jones and Mrs. J. Frank Baxter, of near Chestertown. The prizes were $15, $10 $5. The recipes will be published later.

Maple Avenue To Be Concreted

As a result of a meeting of Chestertown taxpayers held on Monday evening, the concreting of Maple avenue driveway in the near future seems definitely assured. The State Road Commission promised to do this work but stated funds were not immediately available, but agreed if the town would advance sufficient money the work would be done under State supervision and the amount expended would later be refunded. At the meeting held Monday night the proposal was favorably received and a committee was appointed to provide the necessary amount, which will be done by negotiating a temporary loan through the local banks with personal endorsement. It is estimated that the work will cost approximately $10,000. The financial committee is composed as follows: William B. Usilton, P. M. Brooks, J. D. Bacchus, R. Hynson Rogers, Jas. G. Beck, Carl N. Bordley, Jesse Medders.

John Bailey's house on Church Alley took fire yesterday from an overheated pipe but was quickly extinguished by the Chestertown Fire Co. Bailey and Spielberger held the fire in check until the arrival of the Fire Company.
