Insurance Promptly Paid

John W. Barnes, Clerk of the local Modern Woodmen, handed to Mrs. Page Beck, through her agent, Mr. P. B. Hollis, this week a check for $2,000 the amount of insurance due on a policy carried by her late husband. Senator William W. Beck was one of the charter members of the order here, having been connected with the local camp for twenty-three years. The order is very prompt in meeting all claims of its policyholders.

A BIG SURPRISE

When the Pomona pastor, Rev. Mr. McClintock, was informed last Thursday night that Russell Starr needed his official presence, he very willingly put his book of ceremonies in his pocket and got in the car and away they went, but when they returned from Chestertown towards home he was puzzled until they got back to the parsonage and found sixty-five of his congregation and the kitchen almost filled with eatables of all kinds, then light came to him and he realized he was fooled, but agreeably so. After spending the evening pleasantly together all returned home with a kind invitation to come again and a determination to do so.

The Quaker Neck Churches are reviving wonderfully under Mr. McClintock's administration. Bond Chapels attendance for the last five years averaging from 5 to 25. Since Conference the attendance has been from 60 to 80. An Epworth League has been organized at both churches and all are working together with willing heart and hands and we hope for still greater blessings.
