POLITICAL NEWS LOCAL AND STATE

A conference of some representative workers in the Democratic patry was held Monday evening and unanimously endorsed the candidacy of Judge Thomas J. Keating to succeed himself.

An effort to adjust the Senatorial situation has failed up to this time and both Senator Wm. F. Russell and Ellsworth C. Bowers declare their intention to remain in the contest and to abide by the decision of the Democratic voters expressed in an open Primary.

Among the names mentioned by card for Sheriff are Adolphus Davis and William Steele, of Frst district; Lionel J. Keyser, of the Third; Chas. L. Gill, of the Fourth; William Goodman, of the Seventh; Albert C. Lewis of the Sixth, and others are being mentioned.

For County Commissioner no announcements by card have been made but the three names mentioned are Arthur Brice, S. J. Johnson and N. V. Walters. There are only two to be elected.

For Treasurer we hear the names of J. Raymond Simpers, Merrick Clements, Carroll Willson, G. R. Rasin, George Sutton, Albert Groves, Charles Judefind and others talked of. There are anly two announced by card.

The candidates for Legislature are slow in coming out. The names of Capt. Charles R. Kerr and Frank Ford, of Rock Hall, Andrew Wilson and Elmer Jarman, of Galena, Ray Startt, of Quaker Neck, and George Sutton, of Worton, are among those spoken of.

For Orphans' Court and State's Attorney the present incumbents seem to have a clear field.

In Cecil there are seven candidates for sheriff; 12 for county commissioner; 6 for orphans' court; several for other positions.

William R. Wilson, of Ingleside, and Dudley G. Roe, of Sudlersville, two men of high character, have announced their candidacy for Senate in Queen Anne's county. Mr. Roe lives in the town of Sudlersville, where he conducts a grain brokerage business which is the largest of its kind on the Eastern Shore. In addition he is actively interested in the Diocese of the Protestant Episcopal Church, a director in the Sudlersville Bank.

Mr. Wilson makes his home in Ingleside, where he is actively interested in a mercantile business, flour mill and cannery, being a member of the firm of Wilson and Merrick. In addition he is president of the Centreville National Bank, and for many years has been actively interested in the political doings of the county, at this time being also a member of the State Central Committee. Both of the candidates have been a member of the State Legislature.

Other candidates named are the following:

For Clerk—J. Fletcher Rolph.

For Legislature—W. Irving Walker, of the second district and David Clements, of the seventh district.

For Sheriff—James U. Quimby, of the fifth district.

"It was also stated that all three members of the present Board of County Commissioners would be endorsed.

As announced in News last week, J. H. C. Legg, practicing attorney of the Queen Anne's County bar, came out last week with the statement that he was an avowed candidate for Judge of the Circuit Court and would stay in the fight to the absolute finish. Until Mr. Legg made this statement it was very generally considered that there would be no opposition made whatever against Mr. Thomas J. Keating who now occupies the Judgeship Chair through an appointment made last year.

Judge Keating, has been a member of the county bar since he first began practicing law, and has always been actively associated in the political doings of both the county and State being at one time State Insurance Commissioner, and for two terms was State's Attorney.

The office of Judge is unquestionable the best goal, from a standpoint of honor and remuneration, that the voters of the circuit can confer upon one who enters the political race, consequently, it is a safe assumption that, regardless of the strength of of the candidates, the fight for the position will be a spirited one.

A campaign of unusual interest, at least to the newspaper fraternity of Maryland, is offered by the approaching contest in Somerset county, where Lorie C. Quinn, Jr., publisher of the Crisfield Times, is making an aggressive fight for the State Senatorship.

During the last three or four sessions of the Maryland Legislature Mr. Quinn has been a conspicuous figure at Annapolis, because of his whole-souled and unselfish interest in the watermen of Maryland. Somerset county has an unusually large number of citizens who are engaged in various seafood industries. The attitude of Mr. Quinn and other public-spirited men of Maryland prevented burdensome taxes and unreasonable legislation from being imposed upon the classes engaged in obtaining a livlihood from Chesapeake Bay and its numerous tributaries.

Statements made by Latham and Kendall after the accident are conflicting, each declaring the other responsible. Latham was seriously injured, sustaining a fractured wrist and shoulder, while Kendall was cut about the face and head. Two women passengers on the street car, Anna M.
