The Kent News.

CHESTERTOWN:

SATURDAY MORNING, SEPT. 15, 1866.

For Comptroller of the Treasury:

COL. WILLIAM J. LEONARD,

OF WORCESTER COUNTY.

THE NEWS.

Col. W. P. Maulsby has been nominated for Congress by the Conservatives of the Fourth District, in opposition to Hon. Francis Thomas, the nominee of the radicals, who during the last session of Congress voted in favor of negro suffrage.

Hon. J. T. Hoffman, Mayor of New York, was yesterday nominated by President Johnson's friends in that State as their candidate for Governor, and Robert H. Pruyn for Lieutenant Governor.

The public debt has been reduced since August 1, 1865, $161,570,108, and if the reduction continue only at the same rate, the whole debt, funded and unfunded, will be extinguished in seventeen years.

THE New York Commercial Advertiser, Republican, says of the address of the Southern Disunion Convention that it is in its style intolerable. "Stilted, venomous and undignified—it would disgrace a schoolboy."

IT is a matter of history that Mr. Lincoln's desire for the immediate recognition of the right of the lately rebellious States to representation was so strong that he seriously contemplated compelling them to send Representatives to Congress.

IN Portland, on Wednesday last, sixty-two days after the great fire there, bricks dug out of the ruins were so hot that they were uncomfortable to handle. On the same day pieces of iron were taken from the Fox Block lot, that blistered the men's hands to touch them.

MORE than half of the coal operators in the Schuylkill region have closed their collieries for the season. The trouble is that 50 per cent. more coal has been brought to market than has ever been before at this season of the year, and this enormous surplus of 2,700,000 tons finds no outlet of sale. Prices are depreciating, and the operators don't want them to go any lower.

A NEW South Wales paper says "a sea monster has been caught in Bateman's Bay. It resembles a huge turtle, having four large flippers. It is covered with a bony shield. The head and neck resemble those of a tortoise. It weighs fifteen hundred pounds and is thirteen feet long."

A correspondent, writing about California earthquakes, says if the last severe shock in San Francisco had lasted but a few seconds longer, the city would have been a mass of ruins.

THERE is said to be a tremendous stampede from the radical ranks in Wisconsin. Many of the most prominent republicans in the State are coming out in favor of the President's policy.

Surgeon General Barnes is lying dangerously ill at Chicago with congestive chills. But slight hopes are entertained of his recovery.

A boy has been sent to the work house in Nashville for two weeks for stealing papers from under the doors of subscribers.

A NEW SENSATION.—The Richmond papers are poking fun at a sensational "special" appearing in the Chicago Post, and purporting to have been sent from Richmond, alleging that a new secret society is to be inaugurated there, with the design of making another effort for southern independence, which is expected to be achieved within five years. The Post man goes into all the particulars of "terrible tests" for the membership, European Powers to be embraced, &c., &c. The Richmond editors think it a little singular that no one thereabouts has heard aught about this formidable conspiracy, and aver that is an ambitions organization, indeed, that proposes to accomplish singlehanded in five years what the whole South, with immense armies, could not accomplish in four years of relentless war. The Richmond folks do not seem to appreciate the difficulties under which a newspaper reporter, hard up for an item, labors in these dry times.

ECCENTRIC PATRIOTISM.—The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun, gives the following incident, which may be regarded as a practical exhibition of genuine patriotism. Such instances are rare indeed, but one such occurrence is sufficient to show that, notwithstanding the seeming tendency of the American people to selfishness, and willingness to sell their country for their own personal aggrandizement, there is yet left in the hearts of some a genuine love of country:

"A gentleman, who declined to give his name, called upon the Treasurer of the United States a day or two since, and presented to the government eight hundred dollars in five-twenty bonds. He stated that he bought these bonds when he considered that the government was being destroyed, and now that he considered it safe, he desired to make a gift of the same bonds. The accrued interest on the bonds had not been collected."

RAILROAD MEETING---ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

Notwithstanding the unfavorable appearance of the weather in the early morning of Tuesday last, the meeting called by the Commissioners of the Kent county Rail Road, for the purpose of organizing the Company by the election of a President, Treasurer, and seven Directors, was very largely attended by the stockholders from all sections of the County, as well as from the adjoining counties, and the State of Delaware. No tickets had been previously prepared by the stockholdors, and had to be made out on the day of meeting, and after the meeting had been organized; as a consequence there were a variety of tickets voted, and only three out of seven of the board of Directors elected—it requiring a majority of the whole number of votes cast to elect. In consequence of the large attendance, it was resolved by a unanimous vote to close the polls and count the votes about 3 o'clock, P. M.

For President, but two gentlemen were named or voted for to any extent, Gen'l George Vickers, and George B. Westcott, Esq. General GEORGE VICKERS, receiving a majority of all the votes cast, was declared elected President. RICHARD HYNSON, Esq., was elected Treasurer with but little opposition, and Messrs. DAVID C. BLACKISTON, ISAAC PARSONS and THOS. J. SHALLCROSS, having received the requisite number of votes were declared elected Directors.

These gentlemen are all eminently qualified for the positions for which they have been selected, while the honor conferred is but due as a recognition of their invaluable services in pushing forward this great enterprise. It only remains now to complete the board of Directors—a meeting called for this purpose, to be held on the 25th inst., will be found in another column—when we hope to see some action taken with reference to the location and early commencement of the road, which will render its success no longer questionable.

THE LAST OPPORTUNITY.—The officers of Registration will sit again on Tuesday and Wednesday of next week, after which the books will be closed, and those neglecting to register will lose their right of franchise until the next year. It would be well for those entitled to vote to take advantage of the opportunity offered during the two remaining days, as much may depend during the coming year on the action of the registered voters at the ballot box.

INTERNAL REVENUE COLLECTOR.—Mr. W. J. Brittingham of Princes Anne, Somerset Co., has been appointed Collector of Internal Revenue for the First District of Maryland, embracing the whole Eastern Shore, in place of J. T. McCullough, Esq., The Princes Anne True Marylander says:

"Mr. Brittingham is a gentleman of fine social qualities, of superior business capacity, a firm and zealous supporter of the President's policy, and an uncompromising opponent of free-negro radicalism.—Impartial and honest in all his business transactions, we doubt not, he will discharge the duties of his office faithfully, and to the satisfaction of the public. Having been twice entrusted with a responsible and lucrative office by the people of this county, when they were permitted to select men of their choice, his fellow citizens will be gratified at this exhibition of confidence in him by the general government."

It is but justice to Mr. McCullough, the present incumbent, to say that he has discharged the duties of the office faithfully, and with a conscientious regard for the interest of the Government.

WHAT NEXT.—The Boston Commonwealth, the organ of Senator Sumner, has broken ground avowedly in favor of the abolition of the office of President, and exults in the strife between the President and Congress, on the ground that it will lead to that result. The country "can do very well without a Chief Magistrate," is the conclusion arrived at by the Commonwealth, which advocates a change of the Constitution, to remove all check upon the action of Congress. Where would the Radical plans end? First, in disunion; next, in anarchy.

WHO THEY ARE.—An inquiry into the antecedents of the delegates to the Disunion Southern Convention, at Philadelphia, would probably result in showing that very few of them have any legitimate right to speak for the South, and especially for the loyal South. Thos. J. Durant, of La., temporary chairman of the convention, was, we learn, a rampant secessionist at the outbreak of the rebellion, though a Northern man. J. M. Field, of Miss., was a rebel lieutenant in the rebellion, and is also of Northern birth.—The "Colonel Daniel, of La.," who figures in the convention, is a Massachusetts Yankee, who went down to Louisiana for a while in command of some negro troops, but who, at the close of the war, left Louisiana and came to Washington, and while here, it will be remembered, distinguished himself by marrying Mrs. Cora V. Hatch, the somewhat noted 'Spiritual medium."

WHO CAN BEAT IT?—We have been shown an apple, known as the Summer Pippin variety, grown by Benj. F. Beck, Esq., which weighed 19 ounces and measured 14 inches round. Can any of our readers beat it?

THE PRESIDENTS EXCURSION.

A Dispatch dated Louisville, sept. 11, says: The Presidential party have arrived in this city and have met a cordial welcome. Thousands upon thousands of people arrived here early to-day to greet the President. Over 150,000 spectators were gathered on the streets to welcome President Johnson, which they did with demonstrations of great joy, and with prolonged cheering. The party were escorted through some of the principal streets by the military and civil associations.

While at Indianapolis, Ind., the radicals succeeded in getting up a riot, and several persons were more or less injured. Before leaving there, however, the President made a speech to a large and respectable crowd of several thousand persons, in the course of which he said:

"We have succeeded in putting down one rebellion, but now the rebellion has passed round to the other end of the line, and we find a revolutionary spirit manifesting itself.

"He had hoped the time had arrived when all people would stand up for their country regardless of party shackle and party considerations. Let the Constitution be our guide and platform. Our league is not of the leagues extending over the country for revolutionary purposes.—It is unnecessary to have any other or higher league than the Constitution of the United States. [Immense cheering.] I want no higher constitutional league than that. The Constitution is my league. I belong to the constitutional league of my country. I had hoped the time had come when we all could rally around the Constitution, and lift ourselves above party to preserve our country."

The President further said:

"Slanders and misrepresentations have gone in advance of us, especially over the country, that usurpation has been exercised by the Executive Department of the Government. But, let me say, whatever power has been exercised has been in your behalf. The veto power has been exercised for the purpose of preventing or checking improvident, hasty and unconstitutional legislation."

Mr. Seward also addressed the crowd at Indianapolis, saying that Indiana had become a border State, and that the condition of things during the war had become reversed; and what were then loyal States bid fair to become hostile to the Government through the excitement of party politics.

THE RADICAL PROSPECT IN MARYLAND.—The American thus sums up the probable result in Maryland:

"In the Third District there is reason to believe that our nominee will be elected by a large majority. In the Second District John L. Thomas, Jr., will be triumphantly elected, let who may be arrayed against him, and the Fourth District will send back to Congress that patriotic patriarch, Frank Thomas. This will give us a gain in the next Congress of one member in place of Colonel Phelps. So much for the House of Representatives. We also contend that, with energy and perseverance, we can triumphantly return Senator Creswell to the seat he fills so creditably to himself and the State. It can be demonstrated beyond a doubt that, if we carry Talbot county, we will have a clear constitutional majority in the Senate of Maryland, which is thirteen votes. If we lost Talbot our opponents will have one majority in that body.

The House of Delegates consists of eighty members. There is no doubt of our carrying Baltimore city and county, Washington, Fredrick, Allegany, Carroll and Cecil. If so we will have forty nine votes in the House, being a clear majority of eighteen, and sixteen majority on joint ballot for the election of a United States Senator.

TREASURY GOLD.—The Washington correspondent of the Balt. Sun. says:

Since the preparation of the statement of the public debt of Sept. 1st, the disbursements of gold by the Treasury have reached about five millions of dollars, of which four and a half millions were for interest on the ten-forty bonds. The current gold receipts have been in excess of this amount, however, and there are now in the treasury nearly eighty millions in gold, of which about sixty-three millions belong absolutely to the government, the balance being represented by gold certificates. The treasury is in a very plethoric condition, notwithstanding the unprecedentedly rapid reduction of the public debt, and the current receipts from custom duties, internal revenue, etc., are larger than at any former period.

LARGE JOHNSON MEETING AT FREDERICK CITY, MD.—The mass meeting of the friends of the President held in this city on Saturday to ratify the proceedings of the National Union Convention of Philadelphia, of the 14th of August, was the largest political demonstration seen here since 1840. Several delegations were over a mile in length, and they came with bands of music and flags, and banners with appropriate devices and inscriptions.

The venerable Dr. William Tyler was president of the ratification meeting, and Governor Parsons, of Alabama, Gen. Brown, of the regular army, Dr. Ferguson, of Tennessee, and J. V. L. Findlay, Esq., of the city of Baltimore, were the speakers, who held the vast crowd spellbound by their eloquence and logic.

PAYMENT OF STATE BOUNTIES.—The payment of Maryland State bounty has been resumed. The delay since the treasury was in funds for the purpose has been caused chiefly by the investigation of numerous attempts at fraud.

"Though our tears fall fast and faster,
Yet we would not call him back;
We are glad his feet no longer
Tread life's rough and thorney track.
We are glad our Heavenly Father
Took him while his heart was pure;
We are glad He did not leave him

That our fireside would be lonely,
We shall miss our darling one." M. E. B.
