ORGANIZATION TICKET

The News with great pride presents to its readers today a ticket made up of tried and true Democrats which hts the endorsement of the organization and some antis in Kent. Its a pity a primary became necessary to nominate this ticket.

For The Senate

SENATOR WILLIAM F. RUSSELL heads the ticket. He believes in upholding law and during his term as Senator at Annapolis proved true to every interest of the people of Kent county. He deserves another term and we believe the voters will accord it to him. His word is unquestioned, with a sound judgment, well tempered with human wisdom that comes with a man who lives a life of pure thought and an aggressive vision. He is a solid, staunch man, without hypocrisy, one that you implicitly trust in the finer, bigger and important things that are bound to come to him who represents us at Annapolis.

For The Legislature

HARRY L. WOODBURN, of near Galena, is presented. He has been a resident in Kent for 15 years, a man of high character, intelligent and specially fitted to present the claims of the farmers.

CAPT. CHAS. R. KERR, of Rock gentleman who has been brought up gentleman who has been borught up among the watermen. He knows their needs and is able to eloquently present them. He is dignified in his bearing and holds the esteem of his neighbors and friends. Its a pity such men should have to go thru a primary.

For County Commissioners

The Democrats have presented two sterling men — STONEWALL J. JOHNSON, of Massey, farmer, and RINGGOLD JONES, of Rock Hall, farmer. Both own real estate and appreciate the importance of economy and carefulness in all public expenditures. They will make ideal men for handling the business affairs of Kent county.

For State's Attorney

S. SCOTT BECK, ESQ., will likely have no opposition for State's Attorney because of no candidate being found willing to oppose him.

For Orphans' Court

The organization endorse the present Court—DR. E. A. SCOTT, of Galena, W. K. HUDSON, Fairlee, and J. HENRY THOMPSON, of Rock Hall.

For Treasurer

GEORGE W. SUTTON'S claim appeal most forcibly for support. He was one of the candidates who went down to defeat in the slaughter of 1915. It was hoped all the antis would accept his candidacy. Some have encouraged his campaign and it is believed he will get a big vote. He is a middle aged farmer of near Kennedyville, a man of splendid character, big hearted, and a worker in the Democratic party all the time.

The Democratic party in Kent County wants to go to the polls this fall with a strong local ticket and behind it a party united in general for good feeling, one to the other, and all for the ticket. The fight in the State may be a closer one than the Democrats now expect and the party may need a big vote from this county to pull it through. This was the case four years ago and may well happen again this year, when the Republicans have named as their candidate for Governor a much stronger man than then.

If our coming primaries are quiet and orderly, free from corruption or personal malice or unfair tactics, a big step will have been taken towards registering the full strength of the party on election day.

Pancho Villa, the former Mexican bandit, who for years terrorized the inhabitants of North Mexico and southern United States, was shot from ambush and killed last week. In August 1920 Villa declared his intention of forever abandoning outlawry, and up to the time of his assassination, led a peaceful life.

POLITICAL NOTES

No announcements for office heretofore advertised in News have been withdrawn.

S. Scott Beck, Esq., Charles L. Dodd, Robert R. Ayres, Robert Moffett, W. B. Copper, Ellsworth Bowers and others attended the meeting of the State Central Committee in Baltimore Wednesday. Chairman Wade resigned and Enos Ray, Esq., was elected to fill the vacancy.

Monday, September 10th, was the day fixed for primary. All candidates must file their papers twenty days before this date.

News from the old Fifth reports Ringgold Jones, Capt. Kerr and the organization candidates gaining headway daily. The situation is being understood, and in nearly every case where the issue is explained the voter sees the light and decides to support the organization.

It is reported that the antis have decided to support Charles L. Gill for sheriff. This would make their ticket: W. B. Copper, for Senate; Ellsworth C. Bowers and Herman Jacobs, for House; Clarence Newsome, for Treasurer; N. V. Walters and Ernest Wilson, for Commissioners, and Charles L. Gill for Sheriff.

The anti representatives at the Baltimore Convention failed to accomplish their purpose in having the "Powers That Be" interfere with the activity of certain office-holders. They were evry properly told that these officials were woters of Kent and had a right to express their opinion and back it up with work among their friends. Thus the antis are being thwarted at every turn.
