The Kent News.

CHESTERTOWN:

SATURDAY MORNING, SEPT. 22, 1866.

For Comptroller of the Treasury:

COL. WILLIAM J. LEONARD,

OF WORCESTER COUNTY.

THE NEWS.

The demonstration on the passage of President Johnson through Baltimore on Saturday last, on his return to Washington, was even more imposing and hearty than that which marked his advent there when setting out for Chicago. The City Council refused to tender him the hospitalities of the city, but Governor Swann and other prominent gentlemen took the matter in hand, and gave the President a handsome reception. The address of welcome was delivered by Ex-Gov. Bradford from a stand erected in front of the Eutaw House, and was responded to by the President in a very happy manner. The crowd present was immense, and the streets were filled with persons unable to get within hearing distance.

President Johnson remarked in his reply to the reception address on his return to Washington, that "throughout his tour the demonstrations and manifestations of the popular heart were unmistakable. I tell you," said the President, "that the great mass of the American people are being moved, and that the popular heart is going to respond to the demand that the Constitution, the Union, and the laws of the United States are making upon it."

A mass meeting of the people of Queen Anne's county to ratify the Platform of the Philadelphia National Union Convention will be held at Centreville on Tuesday next, at 2 o'clock, P. M. Distinguished speakers will address the meeting.

The great mass meeting to ratify the Philadelphia platform, which was to have taken place in Baltimore on the 12th of September, will come off on Wednesday evening next, 26th inst. The counties are requested to send full delegations to participate in its proceedings.

General Grant has written a letter, in reply to an invitation to attend the radical Soldiers and Sailors' convention to be held at Pittsburg on the 25th inst., in which he says that "it is contrary to his habits and to his convictions of duty to attend political meetings of any character whatsoever, and that he sees with regret the action of any officer of the army taking a conspicuous part in the political dissensions of the day."

A monster Conservative mass meeting was held in New York on Tuesday night. There was speaking from a dozen stands. The Herald estimates the number present at one hundred thousand.

Hon. Alexander Cattell has been elected United States Senator from New Jersey, in place of Mr. Stockton. The conservative members entered a protest against the action of the Legislature.

Secretary Seward, who has been ill for several days with a disease contracted while traveling with the President, said to be the cholera, is now considered out of danger.

The Newburyport Herald predicts that Gen. Butler will be the radical candidate for President in 1868, and Gen. Grant the conservative candidate.

The call for the Cleveland Soldiers and Sailors' Convention, to endorse the restoration policy of President Johnson, was signed by 48 major generals and 56 brigadier generals.

CONGRESSIONAL.—It is rumored that W. J. Jones, of Elkton, who was lately ousted from the position of U. S. District Attorney for Maryland, will be the radical nominee for Congress in this district. It is conceded by the radicals that he stands no chance of an election by the people, but it is hinted that he will contest the seat on the plea of illegal registration of voters, in expectation that the House will give it to him. Indeed, some prominent radicals say that no conservative representative will be admitted from this State.

REGISTRATION IN BALTIMORE CITY.—The number of persons registered in Baltimore City this year is 14,250, which, added to 10,200 registered last year, foots up the entire voting population of the city at 24,450. The total vote of the city at the Presidential election in 1860 was 30,148, and it is now supposed to be 35,000.

MASS MEETING AT ELKTON.—A large and enthusiastic Conservative mass meeting was held at Elkton on Tuesday last. The number of persons present is estimated at three thousand. Hon. Alexander Evans presided. Resolutions were adopted endorsing the Platform of the Philadelphia National Convention, and able addresses were delivered by Hon. Alex. Evans, Hon. John M. Millar, Col. Wm. H. Purnell, Wm. P. Preston, Esq., and ex-Mayor Vaulk of Philadelphia.

THE OYSTER TRADE.—The St. Michaels' Comet says the oyster trade of that place has opened this Fall very vigorously.—Hundreds of bushels are being taken daily from Miles river.

HYPOCRITICAL.—The Baltimore American, in calling Governor Swann's attention to the "corporal's guard" of radical soldiers and sailors' published in its columns, says that they "were fighting for the Union when Mr. Swann had not yet decided what side he would take." Now, so far from this being true, it is a well-known fact that Mr. Swann was exerting himself to screen Governor Hicks from the secession mob in Baltimore at the very time that the American was insisting upon resistance to the troops who were hurrying on to Washington to prevent the capital from falling into the hands of the rebels! The American should blush even to mention anything connected with that memorable period, but this publication is decidedly the boldest piece of hypocritical impudence that has ever come under our notice, and shows how lost to everything like decency and veracity that paper has become. It has forgotten its own inconsistencies in the constant effort to misrepresent the status of others!

SOLDIER or SAILOR?—At a meeting of radical soldiers and sailors, held in Baltimore on Wednesday night, John Frazier, Jr., was one of the delegates appointed to represent this county in the Pittsburg Convention. What claim Frazier has to the title of a soldier we are at a loss to know, unless he acquired it by marching a squad of soldiers into our office in '63, preliminary to our arrest for the crime of refusing to support him for clerk of our Circuit Court. This is the only time we ever saw or heard of him being in command of military. Perhaps he proposes to represent the sailors!

WE received by mail, for publication, a few days ago, three marriage notices, which have since been ascertained to be forgeries. The parties sending them could be ferreted out and exposed, and we would serve them right to do so, but will refrain in this instance. We would remind them, however, that they have been guilty of a very mean and disreputable act, and one which, in some States, is punished as a criminal offence.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—Mr. H. M. Stewart, of this town, met with a serious accident on Monday. He was engaged with others in removing some heavy logs from the hill side to the river, for the repair of the bridge at this place, when one of them slid from the rollers, knocking him down, and breaking his right leg a few inches above the ankle.

CONCERT.—A Concert will be given by Prof. Quimby's class from Still Pond in the M. E. Church, at Galena, on Thursday evening next, the 27th inst., for the benefit of the Order of Good Templars at that place. Persons who patronize this concert will not only be entertained with good singing, but will aid a worthy cause.

U. S. TAXES.—The collector of internal revenue gives notice through our advertising columns that he will be in Chestertown from Tuesday to Friday next for the purpose of receiving the Government taxes due from the people of Kent county.

SALES.—Mr. J. W. Crew, agent, will offer for sale at the Voshell House, on Tuesday next, six acres of land, situated at the head of Still Pond creek, improved by a dwelling and out-buildings.

The personal property of Geo. W. Medders, deceased, will be sold at public sale at his late residence, near Chesterville, on Wednesday next.

ADJOURNED RAILROAD MEETING.—An adjourned meeting of the stockholders in the Kent County Railroad Company, for the election of four additional Directors, will be held at the Court House in Chestertown on Tuesday next.

THE CHILDREN'S SOUTHERN RELIEF FAIR.—The Fair held in Baltimore last week by the ladies of the Southern Orphans' Relief Association was very liberally patronized and a handsome sum realized, though the exact amount has not yet been stated. The spirit manifested evinced the fact that the ladies of Maryland are still earnest, willing and active to further the cause which was so auspiciously commenced by the great Fair held at the Maryland Institute last spring. The citizens of Baltimore were very generous in their offers of aid and the donation of articles to the charitable undertaking. Mr. Golibart, lumber dealer, gave all the lumber needed for the erection of the tables, stands, &c., and others contributed handsomely in aid of the Southern orphans. Among the latter the Messrs. Stieff, piano manufacturers, No. 7 North Liberty street, have again shown their liberality and desire to assist the ladies by presenting the managers with one of their latest improved seven octave pianos. It will be recollected that these gentlemen were among the first to present to the managers of the late Fair a most elegant and valuable gift, and now not relaxing a mite in their great charities, they give an instrument in all respects equal in cost and value to the one last mentioned. This piano is finished in the best style, the body, legs and pedal being elaborately carved and polished.—It has all the latest improvements, embodying the Agraffee attachment. The cost price is $700, and it is expected that its sale will realize to the funds of the Fair fully $1,000. This is a most liberal donation, worthy to be recorded and imitated.

UNION WITH THE NIGGER.—The Radicals have latterly been making a great ado about the "Union." The Jack Hamilton Convention, which met two weeks ago in Philadelphia, demonstrated that their "Union" means nothing more or less than Union with the negro, Fred. Douglas and other negroes being present, and participating in the proceedings. The prayers offered were prayers for the negro; the speeches made were only so many appeals for the negro; the proceedings looked to the enfranchisement of the negroes.—Union with the negro is the feast to which these worthies invite the laboring white men of the country. In supposing they can carry the country on such a negro platfrom, they reckon without their host.

IT is said that Capt. James Tilghman has been appointed Assistant Assessor of Internal Revenue for Queen Anne's co.
