AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENTS

Harry Catts, a Well-Known Citizen of Millington, Killed at Railroad Crossing, Several Others Injured—Man and Daughter Hurt in Crash at Cayot's Corner—Reckless Driving Causes Many Accidents.

Harry Catts, a retired farmer, but licensed to run a hiring auto, was killed at Millington Saturday about 3 p. m., and two passengers injured He had carried Jane Green and daughter to the funeral of her husband and was returning to Millington when they ran pell-mell into the railroad locomotive at the Millington Station. The steps of the locomotive was broken off by the blow. Harry Catts was killed instantly, Jane Green had her collar bone broken and the daughter carried to the hospital to have her injuries treated. The Ford car was badly damaged. No inquest was deemed necessary.

Mr. Catts was laid to rest Tuesday afternoon in the Odd Fellows' cemetery, Smyrna, Del. Mr. J. A. Tobin' of Millington, was the undertaker and Messrs. Norman Higman, Paul Catts, Paul Comegys, James Vansant, J. B. Anderson and Lambert D. Bowers were the pallbearers.

The funeral services were in charge of Rev. G. F. Newton, pastor of Asbury, M. E. Church, and Rev. J. S. Saunders, rector of Holy Cross Chapel. Mr. Catts was in his sixtieth year and had the respect of the entire community. He leaves a widow and two sons, Hazel, of Wimington, Del., and Lee Catts, of Clayton, Del.

William Truitt, 229 Van Buren St., Wilmington, his wife, Dora, and their eight-year-old daughter, Mary, are in Union Hospital, Elkton, in a critical condition, as the result of an automoble accident at Cayot's Corner, a mile from Chesapeake City, Sunday morning.

Truitt's two sons, William, 17, and Charles, 10; Bessie, 15, another daughter, and a niece, Miss Minnie Whitely, 25, of Chestertown, all of whom were thrown from the car, were slightly injured.

Mr. Truitt and family were bound for the Eastern Shore to spend the day. The accident happened at about 10 o'clock. Truitt, who was driving turned his head to offer assistance to a man named McCoy, of Chesapeake City, who had run into a ditch. As he took his eyes from the road the car swerved, struck the abutment and turned over, throwing the occupants out.

The Truitt family were on their way to Chestertown to spend the day.

Mr. Truitt is the son of Mrs. Laura Pleasanton and brother of Mrs. Earl Barnes, of Chestertown.

Mr. McCoy hailed a passing machine and rushed the injured to the hospital. Miss Whitely and William Truitt returned to the city after having their injuries dressed. The father and daughter, with skulls fractured are believed to be fatally injured. Mrs. Truitt, while badly injured, will probably recover.

The son was badly burned and in entering a place of refuge cut his head.

LATER—Mary Truitt died at the Union Hospital Tuesday morning. Death was due to a fractured skull.

Mr. and Mrs. Truitt, the parents of the dead girl, are unconscious and the condition of both is critical.

Her remains were brought to Chestertown, and funeral held Thursday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, from the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Laura Pleasanton, Rev. N. O. Gibson in charge of services, interment in Chester cemetery. C. L. Dodd undertaker.

A YOUNG CHESTERTOWN LADY WINS STATE WIDE PRIZE

Miss Virginia Nicholson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Nicholson, of Chestertown, wins the $100 state prize offered in the recent National Knitting Contest held by the Fleisher Yarn Company, of Philadelphia, for the most beautiful hand knit garments. $11,000 in prizes were offered, three national prizes ranging from $2000 to $200; and 149 state prizes, three for each state, first prize $100; second $50; and third $25.

Of the thousands of garments entered by Maryland women Miss Nicholson's sweater was adjudged the most beautiful from Maryland. The second prize of $50 was awarded to Elsie L. Pfaff, 2303 E. Madison St., Baltimore, who sent in a sweater coat; and the third prize of $25 was won by Lucy Talucci, 2908 Philadelphia Avenue, Baltimore, Md. Her prize winning entry was a sport suit.

The judges were five of the best known knitting and fashion experts in the United States, editors of five leading women's magazines.

Mrs. Calvin Coolidge was one of the prominent women who entered the contest. The wife of Governor Smith of New York was another.

The National winners of this Knitting Contest were Mrs. E. C. Wyman of Lincoln St., Jamestown, Rhode Island, first prize of $2000; Mrs. Elizabeth Potts, 91 Davis St., Santa Cruz, California, second prize of $500; Mrs. G. F. Greenwood, 2629 Cadwallader St., Philadelphia, Pa., third prize winner of $200.

Congratulations to our young Chestertown friend.

SCHOOL NOTES

It has been rumored that two of the schools in Kent County maintained as high schools last year would not be continued on the same basis the coming term beginning September 10th, 1923. Those who are interested in sending their children to high school can feel assured that full credit can be obtained by their children for wor kdone at any of the schools that were on the approved list last year. The same groupings will be maintained this year and they are as follows:

Galena, first, four years of work offered; Chestertown, first, four years of work offered; Rock Hall, first, four years of work offered; Millington, second, three years of work offered; Betterton, second, three years of work offered.

An attempt is being made by the people of Kennedyville to meet the requirement as to enrollment and average attendance for an approved Third Group High School in which two years of high school work can be offered. The committee in charge of the work is making an honest and a consistent effort to interest parents in the school and they deserve the co-operation of all those who can conveniently send their children to the Kennedyville school. Kennedyville is one of the most logical centers in the county for a high school and when such a school has once been established there it should not be difficult to preserve its standing. The prospects for a Third Group School in that town are good and the interests of those boys and girls who enroll in the eighth and ninth grades of that school will be carefully looked after.

Transportation.

The transportation of High School pupils has been a matter of much concern to the Board of Education. They have desired for some time to provide for the transportation of all High School pupils living within the county beyond the limit of two-miles from the nearest high school. They have given all due consideration to the question as to whether it would county on an equitable basis and have found that an attempt to do this with the present limited funds which have been provided for the continuance of those routes already established would result in the loss to the county of two high schools and the loss of a high school education to a number of farm boys and girls. All that can be done by the Board at present, therefore, in connection with this matter, is to continue those routes that were in operation last year.

An advertisement relative to bids for the transportation of school children appears elsewhere in this paper.

CHAUTAUQUA STARTS THURSDAY

Chautauqua will be here Next Thursday, August 30th, and not more than half the number of tickets that we have obligated to sell have been sold, and the Association is requested to pay Eighteen Hundred Dollars on the opening day. How are we to do it unless the patrons of Chautauqua purchase their tickets at once.

The idea has gotten out that the Chautauqua is a money making scheme, but the Government Revenue Officials say it is not, as they do not put any tax on the admission tickets.

It is not fair to the Officers of the Association to compel them to beg the people to purchase. At the meeting last year the vote taken for the return of Chautauqua was unanimous, but the purchase of tickets is not so spontaneous. Please purchase tickets at once to help the officers out of a dilemma.

W. W. Pardee, of near Fairlee, in a car with his wife and child, made a narrow escape from serious injury Saturday night. His car struck a rut in the road near St. James Church, broke the stearing gear and upon reaching a small bridge turned over into the stream. Outside of a few bruises no one was seriously hurt. The car was somewhat damaged.

James R. Turner, brother of Howard Turner, of Betterton, and secretary-treasurer of the Turner Construction Co., died at his home in Jenkintown, Pa., Sunday, aged 48. He leaves a widow and one daughter. The interment took place Tuesday at Jenkintown, Pa., in Friend's burial ground.
