Shakespeare says, "the empty vessel makes the greatest sound."

There are a few babblers running around in this campaign doing a heap of talking without knowing what they are talking about. Some of the stuff they are putting out is simply incorrect in statement and nonsense.

But this can not hurt Senator Russell with intelligent and thoughtful people.

It is freely predicted that under the rearrangement of railroad and steamboat facilities likely to result from the investigations now going on the following:

Abandonment of the Queenstown Ferry.

Discontinuance of service up Chester river to Chestertown.

Improved service by ferry from Rock Hall to Baltimore via Love Point.

THAT "OPEN MIND" AGAIN

What is an open mind anyhow? We have often heard of a good mind, an active mind, a sound mind, a cultivated mind and a trained mind. We have also heard a weak mind, an uncultivated mind and a distorted mind. Perhaps, we have heard of other minds; but this "open mind" stuff, in connection with present political question, will not fool the intelligent voter.

They don't know how large this "open mind" is or how small it is. They can not tell how much it will hold. It may be a seive-like mind, and not hold anything.

They only know that it is an "open mind" and it may be open at both ends. If a candidate has an "open mind," the following question naturally arise. When will this "open mind" be closed? By whom will it be closed? By the "Wets" or by the "Drys?"

THE PRICE OF LAWLESSNESS

In another column we give one result of Rev. J. R. Bicking's courage in standing true to right. The crime at Pocomoke City was cowardly, as well as contemptible—it was a blow in the dark. The criminals probably wnew that Mr. Bicking's wife lay dying in the home that they fired.

The motive is apparent—revenge. Revenge against the man who had the courage to denounce the lawless traffic in liquor and the underworld that threatened the good name of the city.

The bootlegger is the natural ally of the destructive criminal. His trade is a lawless one, and from one crime to another is but a short step.

The Rev. Mr. Bicking is a victim of his own courage; but he has not failed. The great men of the church he represents have tasted of martyrdom. The prophets that he studied were stoned and burned. The apostles and founders of the church felt the fagot and the flame. The criminals of Pocomoke City paid him an unusual tribute.

The problem of the little Maryland city is the problem of the whole State. The law must be enforced to the hilt against the underworld of Maryland.

Pocomoke City should be proud of the Rev. Mr. Bicking. He has tasted of martrydom, but he has hit home. His arrows struck the mark.

"So long as some officials and wet press of Baltimore take the stand they do in respect to the enforcement of the Eighteenth Amendment, just so long will lawlessness and boot-leggers be encouraged." We find men running for office who declare for nullification of the amendment and actually encouraging by their utterance designed for a Federal statute, which should be regarded as a fundamental law of the commonwealth. It is any wonder, that the lawlessly inclined will conclude that they are more or less immune from all restrictions of orderly society?"

Rewards amounting to $2500 have been offered for apprehension of firebugs.

Three boys and Elwood Bearns, 25, a farmer, have been arrested charged with the crime. The boys says Bearns gave them $6 to set the house on fire.

Senator Russell does not dodge, straddle or pussy-foot on any public question.

The criticism and censure of some who are opposing Senator Russell is the highest commendation that could be given to him.

Candidates that lack candor should not be very strong with our Democratic voters. No candidate should be afraid to speak out his sentiments and let the voters know just where he is and the things for which he stands.

LETTER FROM CAPT. J. C. ASHLEY

Rock Hall, Md., Aug. 22, '23

Messrs Editors of Kent News:

Under date of July 28th in the editorial column of the Transcript there appeared a statement saying in effect, that I had retired as a candidate for the House of Delegates in favor of Mr. H. Jacobs.

This is not correct and I regret very much that the above named paper should have been so mis-informed, as the above mentioned article has caused some annoyance to me as well as to a number of my friends.

The facts in the case are these; about the first of July a number of men approached me with the request that I become a candidate for the legislature representing that I would be agreeable to all elements of the democratic party and no suggestion of a factional fight was made.

Under these circumstances I agreed to become a candidate; however in a few days it seemed to occur to one or two of the above mentioned gentlemen that I was going to do at least a part of my own thinking and they immediately decided that I would not do and in a few days I was notified by one of the gentlemen that they had taken Mr. Jacobs in my place. Now what I wish to emphasize is the fact that my getting out of the fight had absolutely nothing to do as far as I am concerned with Jacobs, getting in and I did not and have not endorsed him in any way whatever and the above mentioned gentleman did not mention his name to me.

Trusting this fully explains my position and also I desire to say that I feel I still have some friends and possibly they will find it out also.

I am very respectfully,
J. C. ASHLEY.

TO THE CITIZENS OF KENT

Knowing that many of you have not heardof me, I take this method of introducing myself,—I am a candidate for the legislature on the old time democratic organization ticket. I would like to state organization means strength while anti (against) organization means chaois and disruption to the hopes of our people. I stand for no special industry, creed or past, I am for and with the people in all things.

I am known and listed as a waterman for which fact I am proud as it has been my pleasure to sail oceans of the world as a master mariner, thereby meeting and mingling with people of all types and kinds. Now Mr. Farmer because I am a waterman do not think for a moment I am unmindful of you and your many interests because I am fully aware of the fact that you are the only real producer in the world, giving strength to the muscle and bone that makes the wheels of industry in our great nation.

I wish it were possible for me to meet and talk with every voter in the county in order to convince you that if you gave us, the organization party, your patronage on nomination day you would find you had put the right men in the right place.

Now Ladies and Gentlemen after you have looked up my record and found it clear, remember I have respectfully solicited your support. Should I go to Annapolis to represent this Grand Old County I sincerely assure you I will use my best energies to secure everything possible for the welfare of our people and if by any chance I do not meet with your expectations you can safely say it was by misfortune and not his fault.

Thanking you all in advance for the honor of representing you I am

Sincerely yours,
CAPTAIN CHAS. R. KERR.

The less some people have in them the more noise they make in pouring it out.

As the day for Primaries approaches the organization forces become more confident of success. The anties are only claiming four men at this time. They started the campaign claiming everything.

From now on our farmers should be selecting their seed corn for next season. Don't wait and select it from the corn crib but start in the field. Select ears from good vigorous stalks, with ears located not too high up, ears that bend over, etc. Much poor seed corn is planted because too many farmers wait until nearly time to plant and then go into the crib and pick out the seed.
