THE LONDON TIMES ON THE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT.—The London Times, in its latest article on American affairs, touches upon a subject about which, perhaps, it is not so competent to speak as the payment of the Alabama claims by England and Maximilian's abdication of Mexico; both of which latter it now thinks can be entertained. It urges the President to accept the pending amendment of the constitution of the United States, and use his influence to procure its adoption by the South. This is purely a domestic question, involving suffrage in the States—the granting of the right to vote and determine political issues to the recently liberated slaves, or the submission to the alternative of a reduction of the proportionate political power accruing to the South on the basis of population, that section and people being already in the minority in the government. In England, not one white man in twenty is as yet endowed with the ballot, as they should be, and the Times is not known as an earnest advocate of the extension of the franchise in that country. Its advice, however, to the South, may be regarded as coming from a disinterested source. For that reason it may command more or less of respect; but while it is found that in the Southern press, in various quarters, the constitutional amendment is now spoken of as a thing which might possibly be endured as a finality, the stubborn fact is at the same time pointed out that it is not actually proposed as much. Those States are not declared to be entitled to representation in Congress on adopting the amendment, nor is the barrier of the test-oath proposed to be removed—hence the States lately in arms against the government could furnish few, if any, true representatives that would be admitted. And in addition, there is no surety that other demands will not be made, even if the present one be complied with. It is true, as the Times says, that limited representation is better that none. It must be genuine, however, to be at all valuable.—Balt. Sun.

ONE STEP FROM THE ALTAR TO THE GRAVE—Death of a Newly Married Couple.—One week ago Mr. Tony Laukoff was married to Miss Agnes Krieft, both of Newport, Kentucky. The young and happy couple enjoyed their honeymoon on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, determining that on Monday morning they would settle down to a commencement of their new life with all its business, responsibilities, trials, &c. On Monday morning they rose at an early hour, and robing themselves in their every-day attire, went to breakfast. Each complained of feeling seriously ill, and neither could eat. The husband was compelled almost immediately to retire to bed, and in a few minutes his wife followed him. A physician was sent for, who, upon arriving in the sick chamber, and after examination of the patients, pronounced their disease the cholera. Immediate attention was given to them, but during the day they continued to grow worse, and at four and-a-half o'clock the husband died. His body was removed to an adjoining room. His wife was also in a collapsed condition, and at eight and-a-half o'clock she too followed her husband into the dark valley and shadow of death. The bridegroom and bride were robed in their wedding clothes, and on Tuesday both were buried in the same grave.—Cin. Enquirer.

THE Journal of Commerce says: "We have no right, either by law or conquest, nor on moral principles, to treat the Southern States as conquered territories and populations. 'But,' says a sincere Radical, 'have we not the right to refuse them admission to the Union unless they adopt such laws and social principles as we think correct?' No, you have no such right under the Constitution and laws of our land, nor have you the moral right unless you give them at the same time the right of accepting or rejecting your terms of union. The grand wrong, the outrage to American principles, the rotten timber which men are now engaged in forcing into the Constitution itself, is the plan of holding the State dy the throat and declaring that it shall not come into your Union, nor be protected by your Constitution, unless it will agree with you to alter that Canstitution and submit to amendments of your proposing; but when the State asks, 'Will you let me stay out of your Union if I don't like your new proposition? the answer is a fierce NO. This is a hideous burlesque on the old idea of a free American Union."

DEATH OF JOHN VAN BUREN.—John Van Buren died on Saturday last on board the steamship Scotia, which has arrived at New York from Europe. He was returning from a tour in Scotland in search of health, but was taken with inflammation of the kidneys, which became worse during the voyage home, and finally proved fatal on Saturday morning, while the vessel was off Cape Race. His daughter and niece were with him.

THE NEW PRESIDENTIAL MANSION.—A corps of United States engineers have been surveying the grounds on Fourteenth street, in Washington, on which it is proposed to erect the new presidential mansion. This location is said to be favored by President Johnson. The plan, as at present projected, includes the laying out of a park of several hundred acres.

THE Boston Herald says it is stated that a gentleman in Stoneham, Mass., has obtained evidence establishing his claim to the great Townley estate in England, valued at some fifty millions.

I WAS GLAD WHEN I HAD AN OPPORTUNITY TO EXCHANGE.—In a letter dated May 3, 1866, MRS. C. M. MORSE, of Rochester, N. Y., says: "I have used other first-class Sewing Machines, but never to my own satisfaction: and I WAS GLAD WHEN I HAD AN OPPORTUNITY TO EXCHANGE FOR ONE OF YOURS—which I have now used for several months. I find it so simple and easy to operate, that even a CHILD can use it; while the beauty, evenness and elasticity of the seam cannot be excelled."—[To the Willcox & Gibbs S. M. Co.]

CLAIMS FOR SLAVES

Enlisted in the Military or Naval Service of the United States.

BY an act of Congress, approved July 28th, 1866, the Secretary of War is directed to appoint a Commission in each of the Slave States represented in Congress, to award compensation to loyal owners of slaves enlisted in the U. S. service, upon proof of ownership and enlistment. Claims already filed can be renewed and go before this Commission upon the same ground as claims hereafter filed.

I have entered into an arrangement with a firm of Attorneys and Claim Agents in Washington by which claims entrusted to me here will be sent to them for collection, and the warrant of payment when received by them, will be made out in the name of the claimant and sent to me here, where settlement will be made with all parties. This firm has good standing as Attorneys in the Courts of the District, and their references justify the belief that they are reliable and trustworthy agents, while they have peculiar advantages for the collection of such claims, through a connection on the part of two of the members with the War Department for some time. All persons who have proof of ownership and enlistment, and can procure two respectable vouchers of their loyalty as citizens, come within the terms of the act awarding compensation. It is believed that there will be much less difficulty in passing claims to final settlement now than before the old commission, and prompt application is desirable.

The necessary blanks, and all information as to terms of collection, furnished by

TAX-PAYERS

SHOULD UNDERSTAND that Taxes are due on the FIRST OF JULY, and not, as many seem to think, on the 1st of January. I desire to collect all the taxes in my District before the first of January next, so that I may be prepared to pay promptly all levies when demanded. It cannot be expected that I should wait with tax-payers until the first of January, as at that time all levies upon me are due.

This notice is deemed sufficient to show the necessity of prompt payment, and parties need not flatter themselves with long indulgence, as I am determined to collect the taxes within a reasonable time, and will resort to the law in every case where it may be necessary.

For the convenience of tax-payers, I will be (until further notice,) at CHESTERVILLE every Saturday, from 9 o'clock, A. M., to 12 M., and in MILLINGTON on the same days, from 1 to 6, P. M.; at home and GALENA the balance of the week.
