Kent News

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 6, 1923

Next Tuesday, October 9th, will afford you your last chance to get registered. If you will come of age before November 6th, if you have changed your residence from one district or precinct to another, or if you have never been registered, attend to this important matter next Tuesday.

The Republican Convention was held Monday in the Court House in Chestertown and the following ticket presented to the voters:

For State Senator—Henry Brown, of Quaker Neck. Mr. Brown formerly served as Senator from this county.

For House of Delegates—James Nickerson, of Kennedyville, and Lemuel Marks, of Galena.

For County Commissioners—James D. Davis, Jr., of Galena, and Harry C. Willis, of Betterton.

For Treasurer—Mrs. Minnie Falls, of Chestertown. Mrs. Falls is well known as formerly a deputy clerk under her brother, A. Parks Rasin. Mr. Falls is teller in the People's Bank.

For Sheriff—Wm. A. Burk, of Chestertown.

Col. Wm. J. Vannort presided and H. Theodore Jewell acted as secretary. Vacancies on the ticket were left to be filled by the State Central Committee.

This ticket is made up of representative Republicans but there is no excuse for any Democrat voting for any of them.

RITCHIE AND ARMSTRONG

Hon. Albert C. Ritchie is the Democratic nominee for Governor, and Hon. Alexander Armstrong is the Republican nominee. They are both Protestants and are both of one accord on the Volstead law. So, it matters not which of the candidates is elected neither will be "dry," but either will listen to the voice of the people, which may be expressed forcibly in the election of Members of the Legislature. If the "drys" elect a majority of the General Assembly and pass an Enforcement Law either Governor Ritchie or Governor Armstrong will sign it, because both of them believe in submitting to the will of the people.

Both Governor Ritchie and Mr. Armstrong are attendants of the Protestant Episcopal Church. Governor Ritchie was baptized in that faith and attends St. Ann's Episcopal Church, Annapolis.

So much for the two qualifications on which Gubernatorial candidates are questioned in Maryland.

Governor Ritchie deserves re-election, because he has done so much for the advancement of Maryland, and he has worked at his job as faithfully as any man who ever occupied the Executive Mansion at Annapolis. He represents the people of Maryland as no Republican can, and while Mr. Armstrong may be a very estimable gentleman, he is not of the right faith, and the people of Maryland will elect Mr. Ritchie by an overwhelming majority.

"Whtn a trained prize fighter for knocking down a man seven times in four minutes gets ten times as much as the President's yearly salary, and a movie star gets fifty times as much as a United States Senator, it is an indication of the folly and stupidity of our modern life."

This statement was made by Bishop Phillip Cook during a sermon in St. Thomas' Episcopal Church in Wilmington. His subject was, "The Motive's That Guide in Their Work." He said there are three leading motives namely, pay, the love of work and working for God. It was while discussing the matter of pay as a motive for work that Bishop Cook made the statement as quoted above. He held that it was proper and right that men, including clergymen, should desire to get a legitimate and reasonable return for their work. The fee that a man gets for his work he held is necessary but secondary.

William Bergens is the name of the boy charged with stealing the team.

Manhattan

What, then, is your verdict of a store like Mullin's that offers merchandise of the quality expressed in Manhattan Shirts?

The new Fall patterns offer more beautiful colorings than ever before. Shirts of Madras, Oxfords, Silk, Stripped Broadcloths and Silk Mixtures.

The Democratic State Central Committee met in Chestertown Friday and organized as follows: Chairman, Robert Moffett; secretary, Mrs. Edw. J. Watson; treasurer, Wm. B. Usilton. Chairman of ladies' committee, Mrs. C. W. Whaland. It was decided to make an earnest campaign for the whole Democratic ticket and to try and roll up the largest majority ever given here. A campaign committee consisting of H. W. Vickers, C. L. Dodd and T. D. Bowers was named to have charge of the Registration and Election in conjunction with the State Centrat Committee.

President Coolidge has ordered a survey of the food products of the nation in the hope of making the country self-sustaining for any emergency while solving the serious problem of the suffering farmers of the Great West. The Presidential inquiry marks the first time the condition has been tackled on such an all-inclusive scale. It has already revealed astounding conditions which may cause the Government to unleash all its power to place agriculture on a firm foundation, to save the farmers from financial ruin and to put the country in a position to stand off the world if necessary. It is hoped this survey will not result in worse conditions than now exist as has been the case heretofore.
