Worth $20 a Bottle Says M. & P. R. R. Man

Cost is nothing when a medicine does the work, and if I should need it again I would buy Tanlac if the price was twenty dollars a bottle rather than me without it," is the high tribute paid the treatment recently by T. C. Farley, brakeman with the M. & P. Railroad, who lives at 417 West 24th St., Baltimore, Md.

"For several months I was badly run down. At the end of the day my legs would ache, and I got up mornings feeling all tired out. After meals there was a burning sensation in my stomach, and at times I was dizzy and nauseated. Pains in my back and shoulders bothered me also.

"Well, three bottles of Tanlac did away with all my pains and stomach trouble, made me sleep sound and wake up mornings feeling tip-top. You can say for me, Tanlac is all right."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 37 million bottles sold.

Tanlac Vegetable Pills are Nature's own remedy for constipation. For sale everywhere.

TWO DIAMOND RINGS IN DOG'S STOMACH

That a Boston bull dog would eat anything from an old penny to a couple of diamond rings valued at $1,400, is a story that a lot of people will find it hard to believe. Yet Moses W. Messing, of Grasonville, will answer to the truth of the following story of two rings which were lost last week by Mrs. Messing.

On Tuesday, September 18th, the Messings were entertaining guests at dinner, and Mrs. Messing was wearing two diamond rings valued at $1,400. While fixing some tomatoes for dinner, one of the guests remarked that it would be a good idea to take the rings off as the tomatoes contain a quantity of acid. Acting upon this advice Mrs. Messing placed the rings in her apron pocket, and later unthinkingly threw the apron across a small tub.

Several hours later, she thought of the rings and returned to the apron to get them, but found them gone. The household was called and a frantic search ensued, but with no success.

The next day, Harry Reynolds, of Queenstown, happened to be at Grasonville and when told about the rings, suggested that they take a couple of cheap rings and drop them on the floor and see in which direction they balanced, thinking that this would be a clew to where the diamonds could be found. This proved unsuccessful and a little later they noticed "Lucky" a big Boston bull dog, chewing something which he later swallowed.

Mr. Messing noticed this and hurrying to a store purchased medicine, which he gave to the dog upon returning. In a little while the dog gave up a penny and the cheap ring which he had swallowed.

Firmly convinced that Lucky had swallowed the diamond rings, he was taken to the Emergency Hospital at Easton and an X-ray was taken. The finished pictures of the X-ray clearly showed the two rings lodged in the dog's stomach.

Bringing the dog home, he was tied thoroughly and arrangements immediately made with a Baltimore veterinarian for an operation. Accordingly, Mr. and Mrs. Messing are going to take the dog to the city on Monday, so that the rings may be recovered.

ENTRY RECORD IS BROKEN AT NATIONAL DAIRY SHOW

Visitors from this county to the National Dairy Exposition at Syracuse, October 5 to 13, will have an opportunity to see the very greatest number of blue ribbon dairy cattle ever assembled in one place at one time. All records of the dairy show have been broken by 1,329 entries of Holstein, Guernsey, Ayrshire, Jersey and Brown Swiss cattle. The largest number at former shows was less than 1,000.

The animals are the prize winners in every state, the aristocrats of the dairy world, worth coming miles to see. There will be 392 Holsteins, the biggest show of this breed and the finest ever assembled. The Aryshire show, 280 animals, is also the greatest in number and excellence ever shown. There will be 233 Jerseys, 230 Guernseys, 77 Brown Swiss and more than 100 calves and grade cows of the different breeds.

Combined with the interesting exhibits showing practical and inexpensive methods for the farm, gigantic displays of dairy machinery and equipment, the night entertainment and horse show, the human welfare display and other features, the exposition more than promises to be one every dairy farmer and everyone else interested in the dairy industry should see.

Merchants and Farmers build and own Railroads

The Symbol of Service

Samuel Harden Church, President of the Carnegie Institute, in a recent statement, says:

"The railroads were not built by railroad men, and they are not oweed by railroad men. They were built by the merchants and farmers of the United States, and they are now owned indirectly by all the people of the United States.

"The whole splendid system of railroads as it exists today was built with capital, energy and brains furnished by American business men and American farmers with the high purpose of developing the commercial and agricultural interests of the country.

"Every one knows that as soon as the iron horse drew his shadow across the land the farms which the Government could scarcely give away suddenly jumped in value to fifty or a hundred dollars an acre, because the railroads had supplied them with the means of development, production and distribution.

"When the railroads are making plenty of money every shop is humming a song of happiness and every farm is growing rich."

THE RAILROADS OWNED BY ALL THE PEOPLE merit the support, friendship and cooperative interest of the people—Hostility to your own property, either by legislation or individual act, does not accord with self-interest or the good judgment and common sense, so characteristic of American citizenship.
