The Duty of the People to Harmonize with each Other.

It is a sad condition of things when people living under the same Government, says the Baltimore Commercial, cannot find that interest in common which should keep them from incessantly quarreling with each other; and it is ominous, when ceasing to look for something good in each other, they or their organs are busied at little else but magnifying mutual faults, and seeking to array States in endless hostility, which, after what has occurred of late, should be satisfied with the power demonstrated of inflicting mutual injury.—Under the old condition of things, it was easy to see and believe that the differences existing were of that character to make a conflict of opinions indeed "irrepressible," but when "old things have passed away," and there really remains nothing but a few relics of the late strife to furnish even meagre materials for further quarreling, why should sensible people permit themselves to be made tools of faction, thus continuing our troubles to the remote future?

Let it be noted that whilst all can see where there are grounds for political differences, such as maintained with moderation might in no wise compromise the peace of the community and might indeed be healthful in their results, there can be no justification for those angry disputes, such as pursued to personalities, first sunder friends, and ultimately implicate communities. And although it may be deemed in the nature of a necessity, that the community should be stirred up sufficiently to compel the participation of all in an election, thus bringing forward every voter, still this might be done without inciting men to fierce anger, to end possibly in riot and bloodshed.

We have been struck with the sensible view taken of these matters in a late article in the New York Evening Post under the caption "Cultivating Hatred." We quote:

"The war proved conclusively to all men that the Union is to be maintained. That issue is no longer in question. Now that organized resistance has been crushed out, and it is decided that we are to live in one house together, it is the duty of all honorable and well meaning men in the Northern and Southern States, to do what they can to promote good feeling, and to avoid conduct or language whose effect would be to keep alive hatred and suspicion between the people of the two regions which are irrevocably married together, and to whom quarreling, suspicion and dislike can only work continual evil.

We wish this were generally remembered by the conductors of the press in the Northern as well as the Southern States, among whom there are too many who seem to think it their most important duty to their readers, to write intemperately themselves, and to circulate foolish and intemperate paragraphs written by their opponents. Thus the people of each section are arrayed against the other, mischievous suspicions are kept alive, hatreds which would otherwise die out are fanned into new life, and the best interests of the whole country are injured.

NEW DISEASE AMONG HORSES.—The Chicago Tribune mentions a strange mortality among the horses in Lyons township, Illinois, several valuable animals having died within the past few days. It is reported to have been caused by the grasshoppers, which, being taken into the mouth, bite the tongues of the animals and make them so sore that they will not eat thereafter and starve to death. The cases have occurred only among horses turned out to grass.

PROSPECTS OF CHARLESTON.—The Charleston Courier gives a flattering account of the trade of that city. Cotton is freely pouring in. Twelve or fifteen steamers are keeping up communication with the North, and come and go well freighted, while the doctors find the city remarkably healthy.

THE FAULTS OF OTHERS.—Mrs. G. N. Denning, Rochester, N. Y., writes: "I have used one of your machines fifteen months, and it has given perfect satisfaction. I find it very easy to operate, not liable to get out of order, and capable of doing every variety of work; while it is entirely free from many faults of other machines, such as dropping stitches and drawing the seam.—[Letter to Willcox and Gibbs S. M. Co., April 2, 1866.]

John Bordley and Ann Bordley, his wife, Henry Gilbert and Susan Jane Gilbert, his wife; John W. Johnson and Rachel F. Johnson, his wife; Richard Wilson, Wm. Wilson, and Ann Wilson, his wife; and Ann Elizabeth Chambers.

On the Equity Side of the Circuit Court for Kent County, October 12, 1866.

THE object of this suit is to procure a Decree for the sale of certain Real Estate situate in Quaker Neck, in Kent County, Maryland, and which is held by the parties Complainant and Defendant to this cause as tenants in common, so as to distribute the proceeds of said sale amongst the parties entitled according to their several just proportions.

The Bill states that the said parties are seized as tenants in common, in fee, of a parcel or tract of land, under a certain deed from one Robert Wilson, colored, to them, bearing date about the 22nd day of September, 1866, duly recorded among the land records of Kent county, containing fifteen and three quarter acres of land, more or less. That a certain Robert Wilson, was also lately seized as tenant in common with the aforesaid parties, in the said tract or parcel of land, but by deed of the twenty-second day of September last aforesaid, which has been duly recorded among the aforesaid land records, conveyed all his undivided interest in and to the said tracts or parcel of land, and also in and to the ten acres hereinafter mentioned, to the complainant in this cause, so that now two undivided seven parts of the said lands belong to the complainant, and the five undivided seven parts belong to the said Annie Bordley, Susan Jane Gilbert, Rachel Frances Johnson, Richard Wilson, and Ann Wilson.

The Bill further states that the said parties complainant and defendants, were also seized as tenants in common in fee of a certain other tract or parcel of land in said County, containing ten acres, which descended from one Robert Wilson, colored; to the complainants, Ann Bordley, Susan Jane Gilbert, Rachel F. Johnson, Richard Wilson, Ann Wilson, and Robert Wilson, the children of the said Robert Wilson and Ann Elizabeth Chambers, the only child of Eliza Chambers, his daughter; that the said Robert Wilson, by the deed aforesaid, conveyed all his interest in the same to the complainant, so that he is now entitled to and seized of two undivided eight parts thereof, and the remaining six undivided parts belong to the said defendants in this cause.

That it would be for the interest of all the parties to have the same sold, and the proceeds thereof divided among them according to their several just proportions, and that the said William Wilson and Ann Wilson reside out of the State of Maryland.

It is thereupon adjudged and ordered that the complainant by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Kent county, once in each of three successive weeks, give notice to the said absent defendants, of the substance of this Bill, and warn them to appear in this Court in person or by solicitor, on or before the 20th day of February next, to answer the premises, and show cause if any they have, why a Decree ought not to pass as prayed.

TAX-PAYERS

SHOULD UNDERSTAND that Taxes are due on the FIRST OF JULY, and not, as many seem to think, on the 1st of January. I desire to collect all the taxes in my District before the first of January next, so that I may be prepared to pay promptly all levies when demanded. It cannot be expected that I should wait with tax-payers until the first of January, as at that time all levies upon me are due.

This notice is deemed sufficient to show the necessity of prompt payment, and parties need not flatter themselves with long indulgence, as I am determined to collect the taxes within a reasonable time, and will resort to the law in every case where it may be necessary.

For the convenience of tax-payers, I will be (until further notice,) at CHESTERVILLE every Saturday, from 9 o'clock, A. M., to 12 M., and in MILLINGTON on the same days, from 1 to 6, P. M.; at home and GALENA the balance of the week.

NITROUS OXIDE.

I DESIRE to call the attention of those suffering from bad teeth, (as there is nothing more calculated to undermine the constitution than decayed teeth,) that the time has come, and now is, when they can have their teeth taken out without pain, and that in Chestertown. When I first introduced this powerful esthetic, I was called upon to vouch for its innocency, and the happy effect it was said to produce.—That I could not then do except upon the authority of other responsible parties. But, as I now have practical knowledge in its operation, it gives me great pleasure to say, I feel no hesitancy in vouching for it, surpassing as it does my expectation in its happy effect.
