Dismantling Factory Machinery

We are sorry to announce that workmen are now dismantling and removing machines, etc., from the shirt factory on Corner of Calvert and Kent streets. This concern employed about thirty women besides several men, white and colored. The machines are being sent to Columbia, Pa., ten miles from York. The owners state that they are compelled to leave because of the scarcity of help.

KENT WINS FIRST PRIZE BEST DISPLAY OF FRUIT

At the Peninsula Horticultural Meeting held in Salisbury this week Walter B. Harris, of Worton, was awarded first prize for the best display of fruit. The judges in awarding this prize took cognizance of the fact that educational value of an exhibit counts forty per cent of the total. As Mr. Harris had a very attractive display and one which contained exhibits in baskets, barrels, boxes and plates, thus teaching the various ways of preparing fruits for market, the prize was given to him, $150. F. H. Bancroft, the apple king of Delaware, came second. Mrs. W. B. Harris, of Worton, won the blue ribbon in the vegetable display.

Metcalfe Bros.

We wish to announce to our trade that our elevator and warehouse at Chestertown, Md., are about complete and in the very near future we will move our office and scales to our new location.

Our building is open daily for inspection. Whenever you are in town stop by and give it the once over. We think that it will meet with your approval and you are sure to find the warehouse well supplied with all kinds and sorts of dairy, mill, hog and poultry feeds. Not to mention the excellent grade of both spring and winter wheat flour.

We built this plant to do business, and the only way for us to accomplish our purpose is to have a part of your patronage.

We have a similar plant at Kennedyville, Md., a feed warehouse at Worton, Md. If it is more convenient for you to patronize either of the above, do so, but give us a chance not only on your feed and flour wants, but on your corn and wheat.

Thanking you for your kind and most valuable patronage, we are

Yours very truly,

Metcalfe Bros.

Barrett C. Smith Loses Life in Wreck of Auto

Crushed against the steering wheel of his automobile when it crushed into a guard railing on the Patapsco river bridge near Ellicott City early Sunday morning, Barrett C. Smith, forty-nine, a farmer of Catonsville, was injured so severely that he died a few hours later at St. Agnes' Hospital.

William Darden, thirty, a neighbor, who was sitting beside the victim, escaped with bruises. After futile efforts to extricate his companion, who was pinned in the wreckage, Darden hailed the machine of John Ryan, 25 Augusta avenue, who took the unconscious man to the hospital.

Dardin told police that they were returning from Ellicott City when Smith lost control of his machine. The body of Smith was taken to the morgue, pending investigation by Coroner George C. Blades, of the Southwestern district. The automobile was completely demolished.

He leaves a widow formerly Viola Taylor, of this county, one son, Norman Smith, of Edgewood, Md., and two daughters, Mrs. Ernest Trenth, and Mrs. Edward Fowler. The funeral was held at 8 p. m. Monday at his late home at Catonsville, Md., conducted by Dr. Bowers, of Catonsville, the remains were brought to Chestertown on the morning ferry on Tuesday, interment in Chester Cemetery. The Improved Order of Red Men Mangamita Tribe No. 136 of Chase, Md., and Dr. Bowers conducted services at the grave. The bearers were from the tribe.

HAND OF DEATH

Jacob F. Thompson received information Wednesday morning of the death of his sister, Mrs. J. A. Ryan, at Tuscaloosa, Ala. The deceased in her youth resided in Chestertown with her mother, and will be remembered kindly by many friends here. She leaves besides her husband, one brother, Jacob F. Thompson, and two sisters, Mrs. Ella Merritt, of Baltimore county, and Miss Julia Thompson, of Baltimore.

Mrs. Sallie B. Norris, widow of the late Thomas L. Norris, of Still Pond, passed away after a lingering illness on Monday, November 19th, leaving three children, Carl Norris and Miss Mabel Norris, of Still Pond, Mrs. Harry Wheeler, of Baltimore, and four grandchildren. The funeral was held in Still Pond at 2.30 p. m., Thursday. Service in charge of Rev. E. Shockley, interment in Still Pond Cemetery. The pall bearers were James Caldwell, Thomas Caldwell, Samuel Caldwell, Arthur Allston, Lewis Price and Harry Wheeler; B. R. Fellows, undertaker.

As a young girl she became a member of the Methodist Church and has been an active member all her life. She was a member of the Rebecca Lodge of Still Pond for many years. Her niece sang her favorite hymns. The Rebecca Lodge had charge of the services at the grave; interment in Still Pond Cemetery.

Mrs. Martha McWhorter, after a lingering illness died on Sunday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. E. Temple, at Atlantic City. Her remains were brought to Millington on Tuesday for interment.

S. Scott Beck, Esq., and wife attended the Army-Navy football game in New York today.

BIG MEETING OF FARMERS

A meeting of Eastern Shore farmers was held in Centreville Wednesday under the auspices of the Farm Bureau. A meeting was held in Chestertown Wednesday night to discuss matters which came up at the Centreville meeting.

A tomato pool is recommended of the acreage in Kent, Queen Anne's, Talbot and Caroline counties by which all tomatoes grown in 1924 can be sold by contract to the packer at a uniform price. The contract for all tomatoes grown in these four counties will be sold by the Farm Bureau under this plan.

A meeting for the Inter-State Milk Association will be held in Philadelphia December 3rd and 4th.
