ROCK HALL

Williams begins the New Year resident of Baltimore where he ngaged employment.

ss Gladys Collison entertained ab t thirty friends at a New Year pa y at the home of her parents,Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Collison. A delightful evening was spent in games and refreshments were served at a late hour.

Bert Atkinson has moved to the George Wilkins place just vacated by William Clark.

Edward Apsley, a real estate dealer, of Baltimore, has bought Benj. H. Coburn's farm, and his father, Capt. J. E. Apsley will live there and specialize in poultry.

Harry Thompson has a boil on the side of his neck.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Judefind had as Christmas guests their children, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Turner, of Chestertown, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Leaverton and Mr. and Mrs.LeRoy Elliott. of Fairlee, with their children. The Judefind family spent Friday in Chestertown at Mr. Turner's.

Mrs. Frank Akers and daughter, Louise, have gone to Baltimore for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. William Clark have moved to Mrs. Alexander's place just south of Rock Hall where Elmer Hague lived last year. The latter has moved farther up the county.

Neal Willson moved to another farm in Swan Creek tenanted last year by Clarence Jones. Arthur Coleman took the farm vacated by Mr. Willson.

Howard Clark had his arm badly hurt but not broken last Saturday week when cranking a car.

Wallace Wachowiz is extremely ill at the home of his brother, Michael Wachowiz.

Walter Hollenshade, of the U. S. N. Nevada, was a guest from Saturday to Tuesday of his aunt, Mrs. George McClary, and Mrs. McClary. The Nevada is now at Portsmouth, Va., and will sail on the 5th for China by way of the Panama Canal which they expect to reach on the 12th, after making a stop at Cuba. They will stop at the Hawaiian Islands and reach China in two months. Mr. Hollenshade has served six months of a four-year enlistment.

Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, of near Fairlee, had most of their large family home for Xmas. One son, Walter, is recuperating in a Baltimore hospital where he was operated on for appendicitis before Xmas, another, Spencer, has accepted work in Baltimore.

William Davis, of Bustleton, Pa., formerly of Denbeigh, has been quite ill at his home there for a long time.

Mrs. Adolph Droll has returned from a long visit to her son in Washington and other childlren in Baltimore.

There were special New Year services at St. John's R. C. Church at 10.30 Monday morning conducted by Rev. Earner, the pastor.

Wishing a happy year to the teachers and pupils of the public schools that opened again today.

George Lambert has moved from Edesville to a farm at Ringgold's Point.

Hynson Carter and family have changed their minds about Baltimore for the winter and returned to Rock Hall.

Benj. Coburn and family moved to Baltimore this week.

Harry Kelley was driving a mule to a dearborn last Thursday when a pair of horses attached to a wagon belonging to Ringgold Jones broke away from in front of Harry Price's mill and, in the fog, knocked the mule down and broke a shaft and harness.

Wesley Chapel was ornamented with Christmas trees and mistletoe and holly Wednesday night when the Sunday school and friends gathered to celebrate Christmas. Announcements were made by Superintendent S. Elwood Burgess. Music was furished by a large orchestra with Mrs. Helen Hague at the organ. The children were well trained and were in charge of Mrs. Burgess, Mrs. Moffet and Miss Louise Coleman, Fourteen members of the school have been present more than forty Sundays during the year, seven were there fifty-two Suudays and three, the pastor, Rev. A. F. T. Raum, and his two children were there the whole fifty-three Sundays of the year, which included the snow-storm Sunday, January 28, 1922. Boxes of candy were distributed to the members of the school, and gifts between teachers and pupils, and a benediction pronounced by the pastor.

Rain and mud detained only a few of the chilldren from taking their assigned parts in the Christmas entertainments at the M. E. Church on Thursday evening. There were two ornamented and electrically lighted trees besides Christmas greens, dolls and a large star and scenery representative of the night of The Nativity. Mrs. Orin Downey, Mrs. Herman Jacob, [illegible] and Miss Maude Mid- [illegible] the children [illegible]

STILL POND

Miss Lucille Parr spent last week in Baltimore with her brother, Holten Parr.

Miss Katie Howard, of Cape Charles, Va., has been visiting her friend, Miss Louise Pennington.

Altho there were a number of moves made in and around our town this year, most of them were fortunate enough to get moved before New Year's Day.

Master Robert Thompson has returned home after spending Christmas holidays with his parents at Rock Hall.

Miss Florence Harper spent the holidays here with her mother, Mrs. L. B. Harper.

The devotional service of the Epworth League will be led tomorrow evening by Mrs. Wm. Medders.

Wm. L. Ford has been quite sick this week.

W. K. Hackett and daughter Edna, have returned home after spending a couple of weeks with his daughters, Mrs. Lester Coleman and Mrs. Kennard Jones, in Baltimore.

Quite a number are housed with LaGrippe this week. Among them are Rev. and Mrs. T. Smith and son, Henry, Mrs. Ella Pennington, Miss Louise Pennington, John Robinson and Hyland Jones.

Mrs. Carl Norris and little son are visiting her parents in Philadelphia.

GALENA

Miss Annie Hays is visiting her sister, Mrs. William Petticord, of Locust Grove.

Those in Galena spending the holidays with their parents were Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Jones, Misses Whitaker, Eva McCauley, Wilmington, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Berney, Misses Eva and Agnes Jarman, Mary Smith, Alice and Margaret Burns, Helen Vansant, of Baltimore, Misses Mary McCauley and Elizabeth Jarman, of Philadelphia.

Prof, Harry H. Ranson, of Cambridge, a former teacher in Galena, visisted his many friends in town this week.

Miss Estelle Prettyman, of Wilmington, spent Christmas with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. A. P. Prettyman.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Reed, of Wilmington, spent the holidays with Mrs. Reed's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson.

Miss Mary Scott, of Baltimore, is spending the holidays with her father Dr. E. A. Scott.

Mrs. F. H. Ruth who has been quite sick is much better.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Boyd are visiting at the home of Mrs. Boyd's sister, Mrs. James Cochran, of Baltimore.

Mrs. Linda Walls and son, John, visited relatives in Cecil county.

Miss Nellie Moffett was given a variety shower on December 28th at her home near Galena. The house was beautifully decorated. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. John Moffett and brothers John, William and Albert; Mary and Margaret Mullen, of Massey; Katie Carol, Anna Moffett, of Warwick;; Selma and Mary Scotten, of Galena; Eva McCauley, of Goldey College; Theresa Burns and Ada Mulford, of Galena; Theresa Scott, Gladys Moore, of Galena; Mr. and Mrs. Raland Penn and daughter, Mattie Clarke, Helen Galt, Hilda Boyd, William Moffett, of Beacom's College; Thomas Moffett and son, Eugene, of Millington; Ralph and Henry Clarke, Raymond, Clifton and Errol Mulford, of Galena; Jim, Jack, Daniel, John and Thomas Quinn, of Galena; James Donohoe, of Massey; Samuel Caldwell, of Galena. Games were played and everybody had a fine time and about 11 o'clock refreshments were served, and the guests went home wishing Miss Nellie many more happy returns of the day.

Misses Agnes and Eva Jarman, of Baltimore, Godfrey Pyle, of Wilmington, and Miss Elizabeth Jarman, of Philadelphia, spent the Xmas holidays with Mr. and Mrs. E. S.Jarman.

Miss Elizabeth Jarman spent a few days last week at the home of Edw. Gray, in Middletown, and attended the New Year dance.

Mrs. Boyd went to the Elkton hospital last week for treatment.

Miss Nellie Moffett was given a linen shower last Wednesday night. Quite a large crowd attended.

UNION ITEMS

Let us start the New Year right by coming out to Sunday school every Sunday morning. Rev. Rowlenson is delivering some great sermons.

Miss Helen Ross, of Bartley, spent a few days with Miss Pauline Carter.

The "Dewberry Specials" met at the home of Miss Hilda Smith last Friday night in which all enjoyed the masquerade party. A very nice time was spent. Miss Maragret Smith won the prize for the best costume [illegible]

CHURCH NOTES

The Christian Endeavor social and business meeting was held Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Dora Pyle.

The Triangle Club of the M. P. Church met at the home of Miss Elizabeth Dukes, Thursday evening.

Watch night service was held in the Chestertown M. E. Church on Sunday night last from 11 to 12 o'clock.

The business meeting and social of the Epworth League was helld at the home of Miss Helen Baxter on Friday evening.

The Ladies' Aid of St. James will meet at the home of Mrs. C. L. Dodd next Tuesday, January 9th.

"Soldiers of the Cross" will meet at the home of Mrs. Edward Selleck Monday, January 8th, to be entertained by she and Mrs. McCall Rasin.

Revival meeting will begin in Christ M. P. Church January 28th. A week of community prayer meetings will precede. It is expected that Rev. E. D. Stone, of Waverley Church, Baltimore, will assist the first week.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society of the M. E. Church met at the home of Miss Maud Kemp last Tuesday evening.

New Year's Eve Sunday wa notable day in Christ M. P. Ch Rev. N. O. Gibson preached tw cellent sermons at the mornin evening services while the ch peated their Christmas music greater effectiveness. It was day in the Sunday school wi superintendent in charge havi picture lessons each held up t school by 13 little folks. Mrs. Sheats led an interesting Chr Endeavor meeting at 6.45.

The Christmas treat of Chri P. Sunday school was held last day night with the following gram: The Lord's prayer; "Jolly Old Santa Claus" by primary department; recitation, Betty Barnes; recitation, Harry Bates Nicholson; lullaby, little gilrs of primary department; recitation, Charles Wheatley; recitation, Frank Jarrell, Jr. After which Old Kris arrived and distributed candy and oranges. Mr. Pinder was Santa.

Last Sunday night a watch night service was held at Emmanuel P. E. Church, commencing at 11 p. m., Rev. C. L. Atwater preached a very strong sermon on watchman tell us of the night, and all stayed to welcome the New Year as well as the departure of 1922.

Ho [illegible] union tion of members); S p. m., Intermediate vor 5.45 p. m., Chr 6.45 p. m., consecrati installation of officer p. m., subject "God Efforts;" Junior Chr Wednesday afternoon praise service Wedne 7.30 o'clock.

Kennedyville Meth.
Rev. J. F. Wood

Services for Sunda Sunday school at 10 a. service at 11 a. m., the evening at 7.15 p. Christian Endeavor, le dred Newton.

Emmanuel P. E. Chur
Rev. C. L. Atwat

Service next Sund follows: Holy Commun o'clock, Communion a n o'clock, Sunday scho ing prayer service at urday being the Feas any or the Manifestat Gentiles; Holy Comm celebrated at 10 a. m. it is hoped we will h tendance.

Asbury M. E. Chur
O. H. Connelly

The pastor will dis question in both th evening services tom ject of the morning o'clock will be "The In the evenin ject will Place?" been disc due to in sion was will be f standpoin denomina services discussio meet at League A. Tobi vices o in natu will co week w evening 7 o'cloc will m Teache Friday at preach at M afternoon at

Ford

LOWEST PRICES

In the History of the Ford Motor Company

Chassis . .	$235
Runabout .	269
Touring . .	298
Truck Chassis	380
Coupe . .	530
Sedan . .	595

All Prices F. O. B. Detroit

At these lowest of low prices and with the many new refinements, Ford cars are a bigger value today than ever before. Now is the time to place your order for reasonably prompt delivery. Terms if desired.

FORD - FORDSON

AUTHORIZED SALES AND SERVICE

C. A. GOODWIN, Chestertown, Md. — DAVIS CO., Galena, Md.

We make the grade of our Banking Service our pride.

In fact, our Service is subordinate to only one thing —your Safety in dealing with us.

By Service, we mean the correct, willing, obliging handling of your every banking transaction.

By Safety, we mean that degree of care which [illegible]

©Maryland State Archives, msa_sc6000_43_1-0483