We are now opening up every day our

MANY FALL BARGAINS.

But we would not have you believe that we are trading DOLLARS for QUARTERS, as some statements are as ridiculous. And we believe in no deception. When we advertise American Fine Grain Granulated Sugar you know that it is not German Beet Sugar. False Branding will not work. And another thing, we try at all times to have in stock what we advertise. Not out before the printer's ink is dry on the paper. Honest Competition is what no House fears.

Homeopathic Remedies

Knowing most all sickness can be prevented and most all, not preventable, can be saved from the dangerous form and course shortened by taking the remedy at the proper time, which is in the beginning of all disease, or —ANY OTHER TROUBLE. Without the remedy at hand, this is rarely, if ever, done.

These remedies are specially prepared to give this advantage to all who desire it. The price, 25 cents each, make them in easy reach of every family.

A cold cured in the beginning by two or three doses that would have run into the pneumonia is pneumonia prevented—nursing saved. Sick Headache, usually lasting two or three days, cured in 5 or 10 minutes, to say the least, is time saved—passions prevented.

Cut sickness short in first stage, which these remedies do, saves time and suffering, and is economy.

For Headache take.....No. 1
" Colds and Lagrippe take..... " 2
" Rheumatism take..... " 4
" Malaria and Chills take..... " 9
" Fevers take..... " 10
" Laxatives take..... " 12

And so on.

For sale at 25 cents each in nearly every village and town in Kent and Queen Anne's counties. s11-y.

Thoughts for the Thoughtful.

It is a terrible thing to have all your fourtune in one coin.

The law of heredity is almost as unreliable as the law of variation.

God wipes out injustice with suffering; wrong with blood; sin with death.

There is nothing that will insure permanent peace, but universal justice.

Within certain limits, accumulation in one place, represents denudation elsewhere.

Women do not object to a little self inflicted martyrdom when they wish to avenge a slight.

The man whose scope of thought takes in the created world, and apprehends man's place in nature, cannot be cruel to his fellows.

Women appear to be little aware, as a rule, of the powerful influence they may wield over men by their sweet negative qualities, as well as by their sweet positive ones.

Being in love is a trite thing, and may be going out of fashion, but it is worth experiencing once, at least, in every life time, as a test of the imagination, if for nothing else.

It is one of the most natural of mental operations, this swift, reaching forward to grasp an evil before it is more than vaguely threatened. We call it foreboding; it may be the last refinement of logic.

It is not enough that our intentions are pure and good; it should also be our effort so to clothe them as to express that purity and goodness to others, in the language that they will most readily understand.

Out door realities are so strong, and dreams are so wide and fair, where the sun shines, and the air is full of balm, and the water flows with such a liberal far going murmur. Tragedy has a broader and deepar significance, enacted without any stage limitations, and comedy catches a sparkle from the brooks, and the daylight and the starlight, never reflected from gasj ets, and painted backgrounds.

Love is always the gateway of a new life. When it comes to a victim, his whole nature feels as if the ultimate sources of impulse had been cleansed, sweetened, purified. New deeds, new aspirations. fresh hopes, and dewy vigor of morning leap into the heart. Ah, then, how bitter is the memory of misdeeds! Just then, if Satan would get behind, and forever disappear, what a relief! What a joy if all the past could be whiped out, as with a sponge, and existence be left to date from the advent of love!

Timely Warning.

"Don't you believe all you see in the funny papers about summer girls and their engagements just for fun," said the sad-eyed man.

"Why not?"

"I thought I had met that kind of girl last summer, but she married me good and tight before the year was out." —Philadelphia North American.

How We Walked.

"I know how we walk," said Willie. "We put one foot down and let it stay till it gets 'way behind and then do the same thing with the other, and keep doing it."—Judge.

The Heart Must Not Be Trifled With.—Where there are symptons of heart weakness there should be Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart, it's a magical remedy, gives relief in thirty minutes, and there are thousands who testify that it cures permanently. Mrs. W. T. Rundle, of Dundalk, Ont., says: "I was unable for years to attend to my household duties. I used Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart, the result was wonderful, the pain left me immediately after the first dose, and a few bottles cured."—13. For sale by Colin F. Stam and M. A. Toulson.

Gives a delightful finish to the day. Nothing is more agreeable than music when it eminates from the which are the finest home instruments in this country. Everyone who has purchased a Piano from us is highly pleased with the result. It's quite impossible for an inferior piano to masquerade as something better. It has neither quality, tone nor durability. The Stieff Piano sells on its own merits.
