THE DUTY OF THE HOUR.

The Philadelphia Age, in an article entitled "The Remedy for Fanaticism," says:

The duty of the conservative party of the country at this crisis is to stand firm upon the great underlying principles of our government, and oppose all manifestations of fanaticism; come from what quarter they may. Concessions will not disarm the party in power, or induce them to abandon their designs upon the vitality of this representative form of government.—They do not mean that the present amendment to the Constitution shall be a final settlement of the vexed question now disturbing the nation.

Not one of their leading men has given an assurance that if the South accepts this change, representation will follow as a consequence. They demand this action from Southern States, and that, too, in the face of a knowledge based upon the radical fanaticism in this country, that it will not produce the result so desired by the patriotic men of this nation—a reunion of the States, and the consequent return of peace and prosperity to the people. Fanaticism is hostile to the well being of this nation. Its designs are to agitate, to inflame the public mind, and, taking advantage of power thus obtained, to undermine the government, and hold authority by force, and not by the people. It is the duty of all men who are in favor of the republican form of government to oppose these fanatics, to resist every encroachment, to concede nothing, and this duty must be performed, or there is no hope for the Democratic party or the nation.

AIR LINE RAILROAD TO NEW YORK.—On Monday the President of the United States Senate laid before that body an act to authorize the building of a military and postal railroad from Washington to New York. It provides for the incorporation of Wm. B. Astor, Henry G. Stebbins, Nathan G. King, &c., &c., under the name of "The National Railroad Company," and authorizes the construction of a railway upon nearly as possible an air-line, from Washington city to New York, through Maryland, Delaware, Pennsylvania and New Jersey. The bill expressly forbids contracts with any existing railroad company, and requires also that first-class passenger trains shall go through in seven hours; second-class passenger trains in fourteen hours, and freight trains in twenty-four hours. The road is required to cross the Susquehanna above tide-water, and is declared a national public high way and post-road, and is required to be in operation within three years from the first election of directors. The company is expressly prohibited from selling or transferring the control of the franchise to the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company or any other corporation.—Wash. Star.

THE MARYLAND AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE.—The Board of Trustees of the Maryland Agricultural College held a meeting on Monday night, in Baltimore, for the purpose of making a selection of the new Faculty of the Institution, consisting of four professors, one of them to be chosen President. The Board consists of eleven members, nine of whom were present, as follows: James T. Earle, Esq., President; Governor Swann, Lieutenant Governor Cox, Rev. Dr. Van Bokkelen, Othor Williams, Charles B. Calvert, Rev. Dr. Pinckney, Wm. H. Purnell and Edward Loyd. The absent members were Ramsey McHenry and John M. Frazier. The election resulted as follows: General Custis Lee (son of General Robert E. Lee), President and Professor of Mathematics, its Appliances and Military Science; N. B. Worthington, Editor of the American Farmer, Professor of Moral and Mental Philosophy and English Literature, Dr. James Higgins, Professor of Natural Sciences and Agriculture; Baptist Loreno, Professor of Ancient and Modern Languages.

The annual salary of the President is fixed at $2,500 and a residence. The salary of each of the other Professors is fixed at $1,500 and a residence. The duties of the College are to be resumed on the 6th of February, 1867. Messrs. Calvert, Van Bokkelen and Purnell were appointed as a Business Committee, to make arrangements for the opening of the College.

FEMALE SUFFRAGE.—Senator Wade, of Ohio, has written a letter to Miss Susan B. Anthony, in which he says:—"I am now and ever have been the advocate of equal and impartial suffrage to all citizens of the United States who have arrived at the age of twenty-one years, who are of sound mind, and who have not disqualified themselves by the commission of any offense, without any distinction on account of race, color or sex. Every argument that ever has or ever can be adduced to prove that males should have the right to vote applies with equal, if not greater, force to prove that females should possess the same right."

A PRIZE FIGHT.—It is stated that a fight between Sam Collyer, of Baltimore, and John McGlade, of New York, for $2,000 a side, is to come off on the morning of January 15, at or near the dividing lines of Delaware, Maryland and Pennsylvania. Considerable sums of money are being put up on the result, and the "fancy" seem to anticipate the brutal affair with as keen a relish as ever.

Great activity is reported at Fenian headquarters in New York, and Roberts is said to be making preparations for another movement against Canada.

The Latest News

FROM Europe, is that Maxamilian has left Mexico, but the latest news in Chestertown worth hearing is that

B. STRAUS

HAS JUST ARRIVED from the city with his

COMPLETE STOCK OF

READY-MADE CLOTHING,

and Gents' Furnishing Goods of all styles, and would respectfully announce to his friends and the public that he has now on hand a Stock of Clothing never surpassed in this market, and would invite all now in want of Clothing to give him a call before purchasing.

He has rented the store room on High Street, lately occupied by Mr. H. W. Earnest as a Magistrate's office, for the balance of the year; but can be found at the New Store Room, corner of High and Cross Sts. after Jan. 1st, 1867.

THE winter season is now fully upon us, and reminds us of the necessity of buying our clothing where we can get the best on the most reasonable terms. Our young friend, STRAUS, offers inducements which cannot fail to satisfy all purchasers. His complete stock and prices are worthy of their attention. Never misrepresenting goods, you can rely upon what he says.—The business suits he has on hand comprise all grades, cassimeres, meltons, satinets, &c., and his overcoats are manufactured from such standard grades as Moscow, Esquimaux, American beavers, Chinchillas, Whitneys, English and American meltons. He also makes garments to order from patterns of the latest designs. In connection with the above, his line of gents' furnishing goods surpass all the novelties of the season; in fact, it is such an establishment as we can advise our friends to patronize.

To all Whom it may Concern.

I DESIRE TAX-PAYERS to understand that Taxes are due on the first day of July, and not, as many seem to think, on the first of January. I also desire to collect all the taxes in my District before the first of January next, so that I may be prepared to pay promptly all levies when demanded. It cannot be expected that I should wait with tax-payers until the first of January, as at that time all levies upon me are due.

This notice is deemed sufficient to show the necessity of prompt payment, and parties need not flatter themselves with long indulgence, as I am determined to collect the taxes within a reasonable time, and will resort to the law in every case where it may be necessary.

I can be found at the Court House, Chestertown, every day.
