Kent News

SATURDAY, - - DEC. 4, 1897.

A ROAD MENDER under the Republican administration cautions the new regime in another column that the public eye will be watchful of the incoming road menders.

Thanks. — The NEWS has been presented with a beautiful colored picture of the battle ship New York this week by the enterprising firm of Westcott & Dodd. These pictures may be obtained free by every household dealing with Westcott & Dodd.

After Sheep. — Messrs Archie and Dick Fields caught four dogs Sunday into their sheep and succeeded in killing two and crippling the others. But one sheep was hurt. If all farmers could succeed as well as these men there would be more sheep and fewer dogs.

More Arrests.—Capt. Stevens, of the police boat, arrested on Thursday Capts. Wm. Boyer and Buck Sanford on a charge of violating the cull law. They were carried before Justice Beck and fined. Others saw the officers coming ran a shore and dumped their catch out.

In Hard Luck. — Abraham Potts, of Millington, had two fingers of his right hand terribly lacerated in the cog wheels of a corn sheller while turning it on Mr. H. C. Hendrickson's farm, near town on Saturday. Dr. Jacobs attended the patient. Abe broke his leg last summer.

Fine Work. — Mr. Henry S. Dcford has finished for Mr. Moffett, proprietor of "Hopewell Dairy," a neat milk wagon, the lettering on which was done by Mr. Harry Blakeney.

Westcott & Dodd yesterday sold 100 lbs. buckwheat to go to St. Louis, Mo. This evidences high character indeed!

Betterton Briefs.

Mrs. Emma Taylor met with a very bad accident last Monday while cutting wood, the axe slipped occasioning her to cut her foot. The wound having to be sewed up by Dr. Urie.

Misses Sadie Brice, Violet Moore and Lizzie Brice spent a very enjoyable Thanksgiving in Baltimore.

Misses Kate and Susie Crew visited Baltimore last week.

Mrs. George W. Moore has been visiting friends in Philadelphia.

Mr. James T. Brice is convalescing.

Mr. and Mrs. James Crew left Betterton for Baltimore and Washington.

Mrs. Jennie Wheat is not improving very fast. GYPSY.

Morgnec Items.

Mr. John Morris, of St. Mary's, is visiting friends and relatives here.

Miss Cora Harris, of Queenstown, is visiting Mrs. Benj. Robinson.

A temperance lecture will be delivered in Zion M. E. Church Monday evening. Come and hear it.

Mr. J. Frank Harris has been spending a few days with friends in Baltimore the past week.

Mr. Frank C. Robinson visited friends in Queenstown last week.

Our Sunday school children are making great arrangements for their Christmas entertainment.

Mr. Benj. Bryan preached a very interesting sermon last Sunday afternoon.

Miss Sadie Nickerson has had a very bad looking eye for the last week, but it is somewhat better at this writing.

A great many of our young men have had the gypsies tell them their fortunes.

A. J. Link's closing out bargains are going off like hot cakes. His stock yet includes many desirable things.

WE POINT

—WITH PRIDE—

To Our Grand Array of Beautiful Things

BUT,

We are too busy just now arranging our big stock of fine

HOLIDAY GOODS

to write much of an advertisement, but to all who will come in and look at this grand Christmas Store, we promise a rare treat in variety, and styles that have never been equaled on the Eeasern Shore. Indeed, never before have we been able to quote to you such astonishing Low Prices.

We ransacked the best markets of the country for goods that were new and novel, and as we buy only for spot cash, we were enabled to gather in some bargains, and all for our customers' benefit.

—OUR STOCK OF—

Ladies' and Gent's Watches

was never so LARGE as now. Lots of Watches for the little boys and girls.

Chains, Charms, Lockets', Cuff-Buttons, Scarf Pins, Brooch Pins, Cuff Pins, etc. Lock Bracelets almost every style imaginable. Gold Pens and Pencils, Tooth Picks, etc.

AND NOW WHEN IT COMES TO

we want to say we have them by the hundreds, and can suit the old and young, married or sngle. In fact, our stock is so large that you cannot fail to be suited. You might spend hours looking through our stock of Sterling Silver Novelties and then not see all. We have almost everything made in silver.

OUR sales of SPOONS, KNIVES, FORKS and SILVERWARES have more than doubled in the past year. WHY? Because people have found out that our prices are lower than they can buy the same class of goods for in the cities. We have almost a house full of Beautiful CLOCKS, and no one can sell them Lower than we will. We have lots other nice things we would like to tell you about, but we haven't the space or time. Every article filled through and through with attraction, merit and worth. Nothing now to hinder you from having a Merry Xmas, as you can get the present you want for the person you wish at a price you can afford to pay. Look at our goods, price them, examine them—it will cost you nothing. We cordially invite you, and shall be disappointed if you don't come.

J. H. SIDES,

THE WIDE AWAKE JEWELER, . . . 221 HIGH ST., CHESTERTOWN, MD

"APOLOGETIC"

To Those

Who left our store last Saturday unwaited one, we herewith beg to apologise, and promise (by additional help) we will endeavor to accomodate all who favor us with their patronage in the future.

VERY SPECIAL

For this WEEK—we offer the balance or those BLUE and BLACK BEAVER OVERCOATS we told you of last week, at the same close prices. Come see them.

ALSO

The Black and Blue Peacedale worsted and Fine Basket Check, Black and Blue Imported Worsted Suits for Men. Sizes 34 to 40 breast measure, handsomely tailored and perfection in fit, at the same old prices, though there has been an advance of $1.00 a suit by the manufacturers.

ALL

The broken sizes in our Black Suit Department (which we make a specialty of) have been filled in again ready for special occasions, with all the late shades of Fine Kid Gloves, White Satin and Lawn Bows, &c.

ASK

the well dressed Men and Boys of our town where they buy their Clothes. When we go to market to lay in our supplies we look for manufacturers who do a large city business, because they sell close, or else they could not handle the well posted trade. Same with our business. The town people who trade in the city and make frequent trips are supposed to be better posted as to values than those who probably have occasion to buy a Suit or Overcoat once in twelve months. Then we say ask them, and we are willing to abide by their say so.

ANOTHER

Large arrival of MEN'S SUITS from $2.45 to $15. Wehave them, and a comparison will satisfy both you and us. BOY'S AND CHILDREN'S SUITS AND OVERCOATS IN ABUNDANCE, rrom 90c. a Suit to $5.00.

We are acknowledged headquarters for Black Goods, Hats and Caps, Neckwear, Gloves and Furnishings Generally.

Come see us. Respectfully,

MOODY & LUSBY,

DIRECTLY OPPOSITE COURT HOUSE. Square Dealing Clothiers.
