Experience

has proven conclusively that better grapes and peaches, and more of them, are produced when Potash is liberally applied. To insure a full crop of choicest quality use a fertilizer containing not less than 10%

Actual Potash.

Orchards and vineyards treated with Potash are comparatively free from insects and plant disease.

All about Potash—the results of its use by actual experiment on the best farms in the United States—is told in a little book which we publish and will gladly mail free to any farmer in America who will write for it.

A MARYLAND ROMANCE.

Mr. Apple Gets a Wife by Advertisement, But She Wearies of the Farm and Leaves Him Suddenly.

About a year ago John H. Apple, a Union veteran and well-to-do farmer, residing at Orleans Cross Roads, Allegany county, Maryland, inserted the following advertisement in several matrimonial papers:

"Wanted.—A middle-aged, well-to-do farmer of Allegany county, Md., desires the acquaintance of a handsome young lady of good family. Object, matrimony. No agents need apply. J. H. Apple, Orleans Cross Road, Maryland."

Apple received many answers to his advertisement, as well as photographs and references. After visiting a number of would-be Mrs. Apples he went to Union Hill, Hoboken, N. J., where he met a Miss Meyers, preposessing and twenty years of age, and after a ten minutes' courtship the two proceeded to the office of Justice Rusch and were married.

They immediately left for Orleans Cross Roads and spent their honeymoon on Apple's farm. One day, two months later, the husband, who is over sixty, came to Cumberland to attend court. While he was away Mrs. Apple supplied herself with what money there was in the house and, holding possession of the old man's pension papers, went to New York. Farmer Apple returned the next day and was chagrined at finding a note on the table stating that his wife had tired of farm life and returned to Hoboken. The following day Apple went to Hoboken, but his bride was not there. After a search of more than two months he returned to his home. One day last week he wrote a letter to Constable Thomas Wright, who witnessed the Hoboken marriage, begging him to find the wife, if possible, as life was miserable without her. It is understood that Constable Wright has found Mrs. Apple and is arranging for a meeting between her and her husband, with the hope that they will be reconciled to each other.

THE Easton Gazette passed its 82nd mile-stone last week. It is one of the best printed, best edited and most enterprising papers on the shore. Bro. Tyler and his corps of helpers are practical newspaper men thus accounting for the success of the Gazette. The business men of Easton do not appreciate the worth of their county papers as those of Kent. Most of the prominent business men here use the columns of the NEWS freely and profit thereby, and so will any merchant or business house who advertise wisely.

APPREHENSION of the future depicts everything but the thing that happens.

Couldn't Estimate Its Value?—Dr. Agnew's Cure for the heart never fails. It relieves in 30 minutes, it cures. It is a beacon light to lead you back to health. W. H. Musselman, of G. A. R., Weissport, Pa., says: "Two bottles of Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart entirely cured me of palpatation and smothering spells. Its value cannot be estimated. I feel like a new man."—33. For sale by C. F. Stam and M. A. Toulson.

THE failures in life come from resting in good intentions, which are in vain unless carried out in wise action.

Deafness of 13 Years Standing.—Protracted Catarrh produces deafness in many cases. Capt. Ben Connor of Toronto, Canada, was deaf for 12 years from Catarrh, all treatments failed to relieve. Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder gave him relief in one day, and in a very short while the deafness left him entirely. It will do as much for you.—34. For sale by M. A. Toulson and C. F. Stam.

LOVE is a disease that closely resembles alcoholism, and the gold cure is frequently efficacious in both diseases.

Bleeding Itching Piles. — Dr. Agnew's Ointment cures Piles in all its forms—Itching, Bleeding and Blind. One application gives quick relief; three nights will cure most cases; six nights will cure most stubborn cases. The best and surest cure for any and all skin eruptions.—25. For sale by C. F. Stam and M. A. Toulson.

To lose our last friend is sad indeed, but nothing like so sad as never to have gained our first.

Not a Quarter. — But just 10 cents, and 40 doses in a vial of Dr. Agnew's Liver Pills. No pain, pleasure in every dose—little, but awfully good. Cure Sick Headache, Constipation, Biliousness, Nausea, Sallowness.-36. For sale by M. A. Toulson and C. F. Stam.
