LOCAL NOTES.

Sale of Property.—Richard D. Hynson, Esq., mortgagee, sold on Tuesday the Gray house and lot in Still Pond to Mr. Jacob B. Crowding for $1200. It is said that Mr. Gray paid $2400 for the same.

Broke His Leg.—Mr. Harry Cooper, of Worton, while carrying a bucket of milk from the creamery to his store on Wednesday fell and broke his leg between the knee and ankle. Dr. Hessey set the broken bones.

Announcement. — The wedding of Miss Anna May Downey, of Rock Hall, to Mr. Ovid Cannon Prettyman, of Philadelphia, is announced to take place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Downey, Rock Hall, Wednesday morning, Oct. 31, at 8.30 o'clock.

Awarded Damages.—H. W. Vickers, Esq., won his Jamar case in Baltimore, which was mentioned in the NEWS last week. The plantiff, James J. Jamar, of this county, was on Monday in the Superior Court of Baltimore city, awarded $4,000 damages against the Baltimore Boot & Shoe Company. At a former trial Mr. Jamar was awarded a verdict for $6,000.

Anniversary.—The 5th anniversary of Rock Hall Council Jr. O. U. A. M., was celebrated in fine style Wednesday night in Downey's Hall. The banquet was the main feature and thoroughly enjoyed. Speaking followed, Past Councelor Chas. N. Satterfield toast master, by Rev. W. B. Guthrie, Miss Laura Jackson, Chas. S. Rimby, of Baltimore. Music was furnished by Wilson and Ayres orchestra. Dancing was enjoyed by the young people.

A Serious Offense. — Some young men in the vicinity of Chesterville have been guilty of conduct that should not go unpunished. Two young men from below Chestertown called to see several ladies at the home of Mrs. Mary C. Solloway at Chesterville Sunday evening, and while there, the house was bombarded with eggs, etc. The young men's carriage was also fired at with empty bottles, etc., and so boisterous did the crowd behave that Justice Townsend was called upon and investigated the charge. The case is now before the grand jury.
