A MODEL YOUNG MAN'S CHARACTERISTICS are honesty of speech, respectability of carriage, industry of mind and consideration for others. With these a young man is as "model" as it is given for an earthly being to be.

SLEEP IS NATURE'S REPLENISHER, and, as often said, I think a young man should not give himself less than eight hours sleep each night: from eleven to seven, or from ten to six, as circumstances require. "Late hours are shadows of the grave," a writer has very truly said. Sound sleep is unquestionably one of the greatest safeguards against illness. The more brain work one does, the more sleep he should have. Daniel Webster gave himself never less than eight hours. Usually he went to bed at nine and rose at five. General Grant required nine hours' sleep to feel well. I know it is said of Napoleon that he never needed nor took more than four or five hours' sleep. But, for the average young man, it is far better to stick to General Grant's idea in this respect than it is to that of Napoleon.

A MAN who has been accustomed to spending twenty cents aday foolishly found that by saving the same he could buy from the grocer the following bill in one year: Three barrels of flour, 100 pounds of granulated sugar, 25 pounds of corn starch, 125 pounds of maccaroni, 50 pounds of white beans, 6 pounds of ground pepper, 1 dozen scrub brushes, 50 pounds of soda, 20 pounds of roasted coffee, 25 cans of tomatoes, 24 cans of mackerel, 50 pounds of best raisins, 1 dozen packages of herbs, 40 pounds of oatmeal, 20 pounds of rice, 1 barrel of crackers, 100 pounds of hominy, 18 pounds of mince meat, 1 dozen brooms, 12 bottles of machine oil, 20 pounds of Oolong tea, 24 cans of green peas, 20 pounds of dried apples, 25 pounds of prunes, 40 pounds laundry starch; 25 pound of lard, 12 bottles of maple syrup, 100 bars of soap, 2 gallons of chow-chow, 1 ream of note paper, 500 envelopes and 2 newspapers for one year.

EXPECT A PEACH CROP!

Queen Anne's Railroad Getting Ready to Carry the Fruit and Tomatoes.

The Steamer Gratitude, of the Chester River Steamboat Company, will, about April 1, take the place of the steamer Endeavor in making the connection for the Queen Anne's Railroad between Baltimore and Queenstown. Before June 1, it is expected that the B. S. Ford, which is to undergo extensive repairs, will displace the Gratitude. Work is being hastened by the Queen Anne's Railroad Company on the fine new steamer being built for the line at the shipyards of Charles Reeder & Sons. This firm is under contract to deliver the boat by June 20, and the new steamer will be put on between Baltimore and Queenstown, running in addition to the B. S. Ford.

Owing to the heavy tonage movement in sight the railroad company has decided to run two steamers, and may put on a third. Reports indicate an unusually heavy tomato crop, and the indications from the peach crop, it is said, are not so discouraging as has been reported. It is estimated that the railroad will be called upon to move from 500,000 to 750,000 packages of tomatoes. Last year 170,000 packages were handled and the year before about 60,000.

Owing to the demand from Baltimore packers and the rapid development of this industry the acreage this season has been increased by most of the growers, with the result that a record-breaking crop is said to be in sight.

A SAMPLE CANDIDATE.

The following from the Centreville Observer "hits the nail on the head" in other counties as well as Queen Anne's:

MESSRS. EDITORS.—I hereby announce myself a candidate for Clerk of the Circuit Court of Queen Anne's county. Having voted the Republican ticket when I felt like it, (and I felt like it very often) and having voted for some Democrats and Prohibitionists when it suited me, and as a general thing do not vote at the Primaries of either party unless I have an ax to grind, and having lost a great deal of money by security and otherwise, and as many have lost money by me I am sure I will make a very acceptable candidate.

I think I am well adapted for the place, having made it a practice of attending to other people's business, thereby neglecting my own and never having had much to do with politics it does seem a fitting tribute to my worth by electing me to that Public Asylum, the Clerk's Office. Although not much of a success at attending to my own affairs, I have had lots of experience in attending to the affairs of others. I am a straight Republican, Democrat or Prohibitionist as will best suit my interest and ought to be the choice of all parties.

TAXPAYER AND PATRIOT.

P. S. If I can't get the Clerk's office will take anything I can get, as I do not want to work for a living.
