PERSONAL TIDINGS.

J. F. M. Woodall, Esq., the hustling business man of Georgetown, was in Chestertown last Thursday — his first visit since last fall. He reports conditions with the farming community about the same as down this way—everybody behind with farm work and very little of anything on hand to sell. There is some uncertainty about cannery operations there, but this will be definitely decided upon in a few days.

Miss Maggie Plummer and niece, Miss Mary Fleming, are spending the Easter holidays in Washington, D. C., with Mrs. D. L. Greenfield.

Mrs. J. W. Lambert is visiting friends and relatives in Baltimore.

Among those who are home spending Easter are Messrs. Thomas D. Bowers, Harrison W. Vickers, Jr., Frank Hines, Arthur Bradley, H. Rickey, Jr., Edw. Wilkins, Prof. W. N. Sherwood, the Messrs. Eliason and others.

Mrs. J. S. Bowers, of Baltimore, spent several days in Kent this week.

M. P. Hubbard, Esq., and family, of Baltimore, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Hubbard on High street.

Prof. W. C. Copper, of Still Pond, is visiting friends at Sassafras.

Mrs. Link, of Annapolis, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Sutton, at Betterton.

Miss Lizzie Brice and Mr. Wm. Turner are home for Easter.

Capt. McDade, of Chester, Pa., is visiting his brother at Betterton.

Miss Hallie Westcott is the guest of Miss Nellie Valliant at Church Hill.

Ex-Sheriff John W. Parsons, who has been making his home in Baltimore with his daughters, and has been quite sick, came over last Tuesday and is now at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. Henry Thompson, in Broad Neck. He was no better yesterday.

Edward H. Tarbutton, of St. John's College, is spending the Easter holidays at the home of his parents, near Sudlersville.

Mr. Glenn Pennington, of Georgetown, Md., has obtained a position on the new coast survey ship, the Pathfinder, and will sail from New York for Manila about the first of June. Mr. Pennington is now stationed on the Bache at Mobile but will be transferred soon.

Miss Irma Eliason is spending the Easter holidays with Baltimore friends.

Mrs. Albert I. Dugan and son, Hiram, and Master Frank Bowers, of Baltimore, have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Guest the past week.

Miss Sallie Davis is spending the Spring months in Baltimore.

Mr. Harry Horsey, of Baltimore, spent several days in town this week on business and visiting his uncle, Mr. E. T. Willis.

Miss Rose Elliott, of Baltimore, and Miss Hessey, of Boston, niece of Capt. N. Mayo Dyer, of battleship Baltimore, are visiting H. W. Vickers, Esq., and wife at Lauretum Place.

Mr. Marion deK. Smith, Jr. of Cornell University, is at home for Easter holidays.

Messrs. Walter W. Perkins and M. Earle Usilton, of Philadelphia, spent several days in town the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Edmund Draper, of Pocomoke City, returned Monday after a week's visit to Chestertown friends.

Mr. William Hines, of Baltimore, visited "The Maples" Sunday. He was presented with a bouncing baby girl by Mrs. H. last week. Mother and child are doing nicely.

The Sacramento Bee speaks in the highest terms of the work of Mr. Jas. A. Barwick, the Government Weather Bureau Observer, who has been at Sacramento for eighteen years. Mr. B. has a number of warm friends in Kent who will be pleased to learn of his success.

Mrs. Wm. Carter, of Elkton, is with her grand-mother, Mrs Robert Kimble, who is recovering from a severe illness.

Mr. Wm. M. Clendaniel and wife, of near Middletown, Del., spent last Sunday with Mrs. C.'s mother, Mrs. M. E. Watts, in Chestertown.

Garrett Foxwell, Esq., of Black's, was in town Tuesday for the first time this year and looking in excellent health.

Miss Mae Usilton, of Worton, returned this week after a months trip away, visiting her cousin, ex-Lieut. E. L. Usilton and wife, of Philadelphia, and friends and relatives in New Jersey, Wilmington, New Castle and elsewhere.

PLANTING TREES.

The Execution of Wright.

EDITORS KENT NEWS:—Kind Sirs: Please allow me a small space in a column of your excellent and widely circulated paper, to express my thanks to Sheriff Roe, and all the jail officials for the kindness and courtesy shown me during my visits to the jail, as Spiritual Adviser of Joe Wright, who was legally executed last Friday. Allow me also to say in refutation to the hanging that it was a success, for his neck was broken.

Here are some of the stories: "He walked on the ground after he had fallen," "He hallowed O, Lord," "And he was not dead when placed in the coffin." These stories would be really amusing, were they not related to such a serious affair.

I have been asked often by not only my own people but by some of our white friends, if these things were true. I read very carefully the columns in detail of the account in the KENT NEWS, and I unhesitatingly pronounce it absolutely correct. The only thing to which I take exception is where your reporter used the word darkey. Speaking of Wright's mother, he said: "His mother is rather a young darkey, etc." To my knowledge, Mr. Editor, their is no race of darkies on the Globe. I am sure it was not the intention of the Reporter to use the word, it was simply a "Lapsus Pennae." Thanking you for your space occupied.

I am yours respectfully.

D. A. RIDOUT, Pastor of Janes M. E. Church, Chestertown.

THIS WEEK

We opened up for inspection the largest and most varied line of Boys' Long Pants Suits, Children's Knee Pants Suits, and Little Fellows Vestee Suits that Chestertown and vicinity ever had the pleasure of looking at. We have even eclipsed our own record as leaders on these lines. We herewith extend a cordial invitation to our friends and patrons to examine the array of

Boys' Long Pants Suits,

Age 14 to 19, at $2.50 to $10.00.

Children's SUITS,

Age 7 to 16—Knee Pants Suits, at $1.25 to $5.00.

Little Fellows Vestee suits,

Age 3 to 8, at 50c to $5.00.

LADIES come and examine the make of these goods, they are made under the personal supervision of an experienced lady who has had charge of the factory for years. Consequently they must be cut right, made right and trimmed right.
