WM. B. USILTON & SON,

EDITORS AND PROPRIETORS.

CHESTERTOWN, MD., - June 3, 1899.

DEMOCRATS ONLY can vote to-day.

EVERY Democrat should attend the primaries to-day.

VOTERS must go to districts in which their names are registered.

THE outlook is for a fair ballot and an honest count to-day, as the judges are men af high character and integrity.

TEN THOUSAND official ballots have been printed for the primary to-day, so that there will be four tickets to every voter—an abundance certainly.

THE Democratic State Central Committee has been called to meet in Baltimore June 14. It is thought the State convention will be held late in July.

THE Republicans in Maryland seem now to be a "happy family," all united in favor of Governor Lowndes' renomination. Truly, adversity is a great leveler.

THE finances of Queen Anne's county are in a splendid condition and the fiscal officers of the county deserve the highest praise for their wise and conservative course in the management of the people's affairs.—Cent. Observer.

IT is reported that the Republicans in Kent have determined to make up their county ticket without a candidate from the fifth district. They say that is the only way to avoid factional wrangles in the Rock Hall district. But possibly some of the aspirants in that locality may enter a protest to that scheme.

THE Easton Ledger states that there is a movement on foot in Talbot to buy "Londonderry," the residence of the late Admiral Febiger, and offer it to Admiral Dewey for a home when he retires from sea service. We hope the effort may succeed. It would be a great honor to the Eastern Shore and the State to count the matchless Dewey as "one of us."

LAST WEDNESDAY was the political "round up" in Chestertown of the candidates for the Democratic nomination, and they were all present with numerous friends to back them. We are glad to note the general good feeling that prevailed on all sides. A singular feature was the apparent confidence of all the candidates! The hottest contest is for Senator, State's Attorney and County Treasurer, and every district in the county is closely canvassed for one or the other of these positions.

To-Day's Primaries.

This (Saturday) afternoon closes a heated primary contest in the ranks of the Democracy of Kent. All will be glad when it is over—especially if the outcome is such a ticket as will command general support, and we trust this will be the case.

It is simply superfluous for us to repeat what we have before said in this campaign, that absolute fairness and strict integrity should characterize all the work of the primary, and all the candidates should give their influence to this end.

We again call the attention of ticket holders to the importance of marking the same correctly. Be careful to vote only for the requisite number of names. The official ballot contains the names of all the candidates.

For the Legislature.

Democrats generally throughout the county will be gratified at the announcement of Mr. R Heston Hicks' candidacy for the Legislature. He is one of Kent's best citizens—intelligent, honest and of the very highest character. Besides, he is in a district that makes his candidacy all the more desirable. Very great difficulty has been experienced in getting competent men to consent to the use of their names for legislative honors, and Mr. Hicks, we learn, accepted only after the most earnest entreaty of numerous friends. Mr. Hicks was in town on Wednesday, and the representative Democrats here from that district were all of one mind concerning his candidacy, that it would be one of the strongest nominations that could be made. There was no purpose apparent on the part of any of the other candidates to use Mr. Hicks' candidacy for their own advantage, but rather to make sure of an acceptable nominee for so important a position and thus strengthen the ticket for the November struggle. With Mr. Noland in the lower section and Mr. Hicks in the upper the territorial advantages are recognized, and both candidates being so admirably qualified the party is sure of these first-class standard bearers.

The Muslin Underwear Was Never Better

In making a million and a half pieces one might suppose that makers would grow hasty and careless, but system brings each detail to its own particular worker and the garments are as carefully made by thousands as individual garments are made at home. Very particular women tell us that their own home-done work would not be executed with the extreme care for details that appears in all of the better sorts gathered here at this time. Even the very cheapest pieces are substantially and neatly put together and made in liberal sizes. These hints of prices—

Night Gowns—

At 45c—Night Gowns of cambric; front trimmed with lace and fine plaits; neck and sleeves trimmed with lawn ruffle.

At 50c—Night Gowns of muslin; square yoke of clusters of plaits and rows of insertion; neck and sleeves embroidery trimmed.

At 60c—Night Gowns of muslin; pointed yoke of insertion and fine plaits; neck and sleeves trimmed with neat embroidery.

At $1—Night Gowns of cambric; round yoke of lace, trimmed with lawn ruffle, edged with lace; neck and sleeves lace trimmed.

At $1.25—Night Gowns of muslin in empire style, trimmed with pretty embroidery and insertion.

Petticoats—

At 75c—Petticoats of cambric, with deep lawn ruffle trimmed with lace.

At 85c—Petticoats of muslin; lawn ruffle, with three plaits edged with embroidery.

At $1—Petticoats of good muslin; umbrella ruffle of cambric with row of embroidery insertion and three plaits; cambric dust ruffle.

At $1.50—Petticoats of muslin; deep umbrella ruffle of lawn, trimmed with three clusters of three plaits each, and rows of insertion on the bias; edged with embroidery; gathered lawn dust ruffle.

Drawers—

At 35c—Drawers of muslin, trimmed with cambric ruffle, with one row of hemstitching and cluster of fine plaits above.

At 50c—Drawers of cambric, trimmed with dainty embroidery with cluster of plaits above.

At 65c—Drawers of muslin, trimmed with wide embroidery with fine plaits above.

Corsets—

At 50c—Princess Summer Corsets; long or short waist; two side steels; double clasp in front.

At 50c—Flora Corsets, long waist; boned bust; double clasp in front; well boned.

At $1.25—L R Abdominal Summer Corsets; of durable net; Spoon clasp corded bust; heavily boned; adapted to stout figures.

Children's Wash Dresses

A beautiful assortment of the dainty Dresses needed by the children for the summer days, is gathered here; and prices are most reasonable. These hints of them—

At $1.25—Neatly striped Dresses, with lapels over shoulder, edged with embroidery.

At $1.50—Gingham Dresses, with ruffle over shoulder; prettily trimmed.

At $2.75—Pretty two-piece Dresses of percale, with large sailor collar of pique, prettily trimmed.

At $4.25—Dainty Dresses of blue and pink chambray, with large circular collar, trimmed with white beading; short sleeves edged with embroidery; skirt also trimmed.

At $3—Combination Blouse Suits of navy blue flannel, with large sailor collar and shield front, trimmed with braid.

Women's Separate Washable Skirts

More and more women are coming to fully appreciate the dress possibilities of the separate skirt. To be sure, it means an economy in dress that we, as sellers, shouldn't advocate—if this was an ordinary sort of a store. But it isn't. We find out the best from all standpoints—and advocate it, be it a boom or a boomerang to immediate sales. To supply best what is really best will bring us plenty of business in the aggregate—and serve you most faithfully.

A half dozen or dozen separate skirts, with a few pretty waists—both items inexpensive, if you please, give pleasant variety to summer dress and an air of freshness in the most wilting weather.

Well-shaped, well-made White Duck Skirts at 75c.

Well-made and liberal White Pique Skirts at $1.25.

White Pique Skirts, with touch of braiding or insertions of embroidery or some mark of embellishment—$2.50 to $20—mostly toward the lower prices.

Plain Pique Skirts, $1.50 to $2.75.

Linen Skirts, $1.50 to $10.75.

Novelty Skirts—white with color, or color with white, or some other weave than the usual. $11 and various prices under.

Porch and Lawn Chairs

There's a splendid gathering of this cool, comfortable and substantial summer Furniture on the fourth floor. The best furniture of the sort, that is made, is here; and there are also prices that are quite unusual. These hints—

High back, wood frame Rockers, with back and seat woven with continuous reeds, at $1.20.

Reed Stools at 50c, worth double.

Chinese Hour-glass Reed Chairs; roomy and comfortable; two sizes, $4.50 and $5

These hints of the very best and strongest outdoor Furniture of its kind: frames are of highly polished maple and oak; seats and backs are woven of double cane.

Chairs, $1 to $3.20.

Rockers, $2.50 to $5.

Settees, $5 and $5.50; with rockers a dollar more.

Couches, $6 and $7.

John Wanamaker.

A Word About Paints.

JOHN W. MASURY & SON'S PAINTS are too well known to need description. They have been and are used in every section of this country; Chicago and New York being the central points for distribution.

MASURY'S READY-MIXED PAINTS are high class goods and cannot be sold so cheap as many brands of Ready Mixed Paints on the market. They are sold however at a price that is exceedingly reasonable for high class goods and are the equal of any paint made—only absolutely pure Linseed Oil being used in them. Pure Linseed Oil, as any painter will tell you, is the back bone of all paints that have lasting qualities and preserve wood. A little more costly than inferior goods, but vastly less expensive in a number of years.

MASURY'S RAILROAD COLORS or Paste Paint (in 72 colors) is the equal of any white lead, and saves the buying of coloring materials, the tints being ground in the lead at the factory. Nothing nore durable when used with pure Linseed Oil. Never use cheap oils, it is money thrown away. Color cards mailed on application. Over Three tons of these goods sold by us last year.

MASURY'S FLOOR PAINTS IN SIX COLORS. Gives a hard finish and stands rough usuage. In stock in gallon, ½-gallon, quart and pint cans.

MASURY'S HOUSEHOLD PAINTS in 26 Colors, put up in pint and half-pint cans to fill small needs. We keep nearly the full line.

WE CARRY MASURY'S Burnt Sienna Raw Sienna, Burnt Umber, Raw Umber, Vandyke Brown, Venetian Shutter Green, Indian Red, American Vermillion, Venetian Red, Yellow Ochre Chrome Yellow, Orange Chrome, Lemon Chrome, Ultramine Blue, ect., etc. ground in oil.—Masury's Stains and Graining Colors. Also, Orange Shellac, Wood Filler, Coach Varnishes, Carriage Paints, &c. Pure Raw Linseed Turpentine Japan Dryer. Turpentine. In Dry Paints, Metallic Brown Slate Color, Yellow Ochre, Venetian Red.—Putty, Sand Paper and a full line Paint Brushes. Lewis' White Lead and Copper Paint.

REMEMBER we keep a full line of Paint on hand and can fill your orders on the minute—except in the case of Paste Paint and large orders of Masury's Ready-Mixed Household colors, which we order direct from the factory at jobbing prices — there being too many colors to permit carrying full stock. If you can't wait, then we sell you White Lead, (Masury's or Lewis') Coloring Materials, Linseed Oil, &c. Write to us for prices and color cards.

To The Democratic Voters of Kent Co.

IT HAS BEEN RUMORED about that I am in the contest for Treasurer in the interest of some one else. Now I honestly contradict this rumor. I am in the contest for myself alone, and in the interest of no one but myself, and expect to stay in until it is over; and I would like for you all to give me what support you can. You all know that I am qualified and competent to fill the position, and would fill it myself satisfactory to the tax-payers of Kent county. I have been voting and working for the best interests of the party for thirty-five years and have never held an office from the people of Kent, and this is the first time I have ever asked for one, and I now appeal to you for your support in this contest.

Respectfully,

FRANK H. GREENWOOD.

A CARD TO THE PUBLIC.

After mature deliberation and at the earnest solicitation of numerous friends I have concluded to announce myself a candidate for sheriff subject to the action of the Democratic convention. I ask the support of every Democrat in the primaries.
