He Don't Know What He Wants

had to give it up," is the way they refer in most clothing stores to a man who walks out without buying. They are wrong. He does know what he wants—that's the trouble. Men who are hard to please in a clothing store are generally good judges of clothing. They have a gift of spotting bad fabrics, poor patterns and skimpy tailoring. They know how a garment should fit.

We never complain of such men. Why should we ? They are our best and most appreciative customers.

We always fit them, no matter how large or how small, and our goods are made up so strong, and finished so well, that they are sure to please.

OUR { $5.00 / 6.75 / 8.50 / 10.00 } SUITS are some of the strong arguments we use to convince people of our leadership in value giving. They can't be matched anywhere for the money.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY CONVENTION.

The Vote Of The Primaries Carried Out.

A FULL TICKET NOMINATED AND PERFECT HARMONY OBSERVED.

Although the primaries of Saturday decisively settled the ticket there was much interest in the meeting of the county convention on Tuesday. The treasuryship was not definetely settled by vote, although the final result, it was well understood, would be as turned out.

The convention met at the Court House at 11 o'clock and besides the delegates there was a large number of spectators.

Tilghman Shafer, Esq., of the second district, was made chairman, and Mr. Wm. F. Russell, of Chestertown, and Mr. A. S. Crawford, of the third district, secretaries of the convention. Mr. Russell, in his capacity of secretary to the democratic county executive committee, in the absence of the chairman, William S. Walker, called the convention to order, and Messrs. Garrett Foxwell and Rich'd D. Hynson were named as a committee to escort Mr. Shafer to the chair. After thanking the convention for the honor conferred, the work in hand was promptly called for. On motion of Josiah Massey the following committee on credentials was appointed by the chair: first district, Dr. E.G. Clark; second, H. J. Gray; third, Samuel Mann; fourth, Josiah Massey; fifth, Lawrence Stevens; sixth, W.T. Nicholson, and seventh, W.C. Townsend. On motion of Lewin W. Wickes it was decided that the vote of each district should be cast by the chairman of each district delegation viva voce. Delegate Richard D. Hynson then moved that the nomination of a senator be taken up, that the offices be voted on as printed on the ticket.

Harrison W. Vickers was placed in nomination by Mr. Hynson, and Mr. Archibald Ramage nominated Wm. T. Hepbron for the senate. The ballot resulted as follows: The third, fourth, fifth and seventh districts cast six votes each for Vickers; the first, second and sixth cast their six votes each for Hepbron. Mr. Vickers having received twenty-four votes to Mr. Hepbron's eighteen, he was declared the nominee for the senate. On motion of Mr. Foxwell the vote was made unanimous.

R. D. Hynson nominated Geo. E. Noland and R. Heston Hicks for House of Delegates and they were unanimously chosen.

Lewin W. Wickes then put in nomination W. W. Beck for State's attorney, and J. H. O. Stokes nominated W. M. Slay. The ballot resulted in the casting of the vote of fourth and sixth districts for Beck, and the first, second, third, fifth and seventh for Slay, giving Slay thirty votes and Beck twelve. Mr. Wickes, in behalf of Mr. Beck, moved that the nomination of Mr. Slay be made unanimous, which the convention did.

Sheriff was next in order. Chas L. Gill was nominated by Mr. Wickes, Benj. H. Coburn by Mr. Wilson, John W. McClary by Dr. E.G. Clarke, and L. J. Keyser by Mr. Ramage. The second, third, fourth, and seventh districts voted for Gill; the first for McClary; the sixth for Keyser, and fifth for Coburn. Gill was chosen standard bearer.

The greatest interest was in the fight for treasurer. Mr. A. S. Crawford, in a short, aggressive speech placed in nomination Jas. T. Ireland. Mr. Crawford said Mr. Ireland was a man in thorough touch and sympathy with the people, a gentleman of highest integrity and a business man of conceded ability. He asked his nomination but pledged to the ticket, whoever might be chosen treasurer by the convention, a united, bold and aggressive democracy in the third district. Dr. E. G. Clarke nominated Frank H. Greenwood; C. L. Dodd nominated Geo. W. Hatcherson. The ballot resulted in the fourth, fifth and sixth districts casting their vote for Hatcherson; the first for Greenwood, and the second, third and seventh for Ireland. On the second ballot Dr. Clarke withdrew Mr. Greenwood's name and voted the first dist. for Ireland; the second, third and seventh also cast their vote for Ireland, and fourth, fifth and sixth for Hatcherson. The vote was then made unanimous for Ireland and he was declared the nominee.

For the Orphans' Court, Dr. Clark nominated John S. Newnam; Richard Groves nominated Victor Hendrickson, and Carroll Wilson, Samuel Burgess. On motion of Mr. Wickes the nominations were made by a rising vote. For county commissioners, Dr. Clarke nominated Thos. C. Roe, for 1st dist.; Garrett Foxwell nominated Isaac Cleaver for the 2nd, and J. R. Bowers nominated John Brice for the 4th. The nominations were made unanimous. Mr. H. H. Gresham was nominated by Mr. Hynson for county surveyor and unanimously chosen.

After a vote of thanks to Chairman Shafer for his promptness and fairness as presiding officer, and expressions of appreciation by Mr. Shafer for the consideration of the convention, adjournment was made subject to call of the chairman.

All the proceedings were perfectly harmonious, not a single jar being observable at any time.

ROCK HALL NEWS.

Soft Crab Industry—Improvements—Leary's Factory in Full Blast — Personals— Making His Own Coffin, Etc.

The Democratic primary campaign had its final round-up on Tuesday. What of it? Time will answer. The ticket selected is composed of gentlemen of integrity and capability. But what an aching void there is left in the hopes and aspirations of some! The ticket fails to satisfy not a few of our voters. There are rumors in the air. Republicans are chuckling. A hot time in the old 5th is promised. "Let us have peace." Take the old hatchet and bury it beyond a resurrection, then let us grasp the same end of the rope and with a "long pull, strong pull and pull altogether" land the ticket safe on terafirma, with not a man missing on November 7th.

Our crabbers are meeting with poor success. It requires two and three days fishing to secure a barrel of crabs, for which the men receive about $1, the freight and commission to be deducted therefrom, which is from 30 to 45 cents. Soft crabs are also scarce and inferior. It is thought that about 100 boats will be engaged in the hard crab business here this season.

Our boatmen who are not engaged in purse-net fishing are now busy overhauling, repairing and painting their vessels, some here while others are at St. Michaels. Nearly all the tongsmen have hauled out their crafts preparatory to painting and fixing up generally. The fishermen still find it difficult to scoop in the piscatorial roamers of the deep.

During the terrific down-pour of rain on Wednesday night of last week Mrs. J. W. Boyer was extremely unfortunate in the loss of a large number of her young poultry by death.

Mr. Benj. Larrimore visited his home and family some days ago from Newport News, Va., where he has been employed for the past month. After spending a few days in recreation he has returned to the Virginia city, taking his family with him for the present. He reports activity in the ship yards and good pay at Newport News.

Mrs. Janie McKivett has made a number of improvements to her property in Green Lane by placing shutters to the windows of the dwelling and by the erection of out buildings for general utility.

Mr. William R. Larrimore, of Allen's Lane, has also improved the appearance and comfort of his dwelling by the addition of shutters to the windows.

Mr. John Boyer, Sr., having had prepared by Messrs. Leary & Son the material for a casket, to be used at his death, finds it difficult to secure the service of a carpenter to make the coffin. Mr. B. is quite aged and feeble, but he is in no wise deficient in sanity. He simply disapproves of the light material and insecurity of the caskets made of late years, and desires to be interred in a more substantial manner. The material is of heavy oak, and he wants it prepared under his own supervision. The aged gentleman was in a critical condition on Sunday evening and but for the prompt attention of Dr. Selby, and other aid, he would have "handed in his check" through strangulated hernia. He has been afflicted with hernia for many years and owing to neglect on Sunday it became obstinate. His children soon observed his condition and summoned the doctor.

Capt. S. D. Sewell, late a resident of this place, and for the past year a member of the crew of one of Whiteley & Baker's tugs, steamed into the harbor here on Sunday with an outing party and paid a visit to his parents, Capt. and Mrs. G. T. Sewell.

A number of our citizens were startled on Monday night by the cry of "murder." The cause of the cry or from whence it came is still a mystery.

Whew! Isn't it awful hot? Is the question propounded to you by sweltering humanity you have met during the last week. Below we give the highest temperature reached each day for the first seven days in June, 1898 and 1899:

	1899:	1898:
1	84	84
2	85	73
3	84	81
4	84	76
5	87	77
6	93	80
7	96	84

We will continue these reports and comparisons each week during the summer.

Miss Anna Leary returned home from the State Normal School on Friday to spend vacation.

Wesley Chapel M. P. Sunday School held its annual Children's Day service on Sunday, a full programme of both morning and evening service will be found elsewhere.

Mr. George R. Scoone has commenced the erection of his dwelling on the Haven. Jos. Downey is furnishing the material.

Durding Bros. are painting Mr. John Hogan's house, tenanted by Capt. J. Frank Stevens.

Messrs. Thos. Casey and Thos. Rich are dressing Mr. Jos. Downey's beautiful cottage with a coat of pure white paint and suitable trimmings.

Snow ball and ice-cream have been looked for by the weary travelers and also the stay-at-homes as well. Rock Hall has two snow ball stands, but they were at their limit on Wednesday night. People crowded everywhere and could not get waited on.

The schooner Thos. B. Schall has been here this week unloading a cargo of lumber she brought for Jos. Downey's lumber yard.

Geo. E. Leary & Son expect to commence making baskets about 15th. They employ about twenty men in this department.

Miss Beatrice Maslin received a wheel from Pittsburg this week and she is the latest aspirant for cycling honors.

Rock Hall and Piney Neck M. E. Churches hold their Childre's Day exercises tomorrow, Sunday, 11th. A good grogramme has been arranged at both churches.

WHEAT was quoted in yesterday's Baltimore papers at 75½c.; corn 37½c., and oats 27@30c.
