CHILDREN'S DAY.

Interesting Programs Presented at Various Churches in Kent.

Last Sunday was observed as Children's Day at the Chestertown M. E. Church. The exercises at night were especially interesting and beautiful, and the efforts of the little folks delighted the large audience that filled the church to its utmost capacity. Across the pulpit, the full width of the building, was erected a platform upon which was arranged in graceful symmetry and design sweet scented flowers in all the varieties of June tide and in greatest profusion. Here too, was seated the primary department of the school. The little folks with happy smiling faces and the innocence of youth beaming upon every countenance, amid the bowers of richest roses and simple daisies presented a scene of rare beauty. The program which was perfectly rendered was as follows:

Marching song, "Marching on to Crowns of Glory."
Invocation, Rev. O. H. Baynard with Lord's prayer in unison.
Chorus, "The Summer Song".....School
Address of Welcome..... Earle Duyer

The Sunday school orchestra on this occasion was ably assisted by Mr. W. I. Walker, of Queen Anne's and was composed as follows: Miss Anna G. Lambert, organist; Mr. Walker and L. B. Russell, violins; J. F. Thompson and R. H. Gill, cornets; W. E. Ringgold, flute; A. L. Sparks, tenor trombone, and D. P. Jones, bass.

Children's Day was observed at Wesley Chapel M. P. Church on Sunday June 10th, both morning and evening, and at both services the church was filled to overflowing. Both programs were well rendered and the music was of first-class order. The people contributed well and the collections for the day were $30.38. Following is the full program:

750 to 800 was the estimate of those seeking admission in Millington M. E. Church last Sabbath evening to witness the rendering of Children's Day program. Some 150 or 200 had to be turned away for want of accommodation. The music was of a high order. Mr. and Mrs. Wallen rendered a pretty duet. Profs. Ahern and Godwin, the musicians, seemed at their best. Mrs. Jos. Mallalieu sang a fine solo. The flag drill was one of the chief attractions. "Not a mistake" said a cultured Wilmington lady. Mr. and Mrs. George W. Todd, Mr. and Mrs. Melville Gambrill, of Grace M. E. Church, (the Methodist Cathedral,)of Wilmington, were visitors, Mr. Todd making a fine speech, bristling with telling facts. The collection was magnificent so that our pastor, Rev. H. S. Dulany was quite happy.

"Looks like a Camp meeting," sai one at Masseys M. E. Church last Sunday. The church gallery and yard was necessary to accommodate the great audience present to see the Children's Day program rendered last Sabbath afternoon. "Golden Sunbeams" was the name of same, and speeches, music, readings and decorations were excellent. The duett by Mrs. Gus Malsberger and —— was ably and beautifully rendered. The second duett by Misses Crossley and Malsberger showed fine voices and good training. It was a "red letter" day in Masseys. Great credit is due the citizens of the pretty Hamlet, both old and young, for the elaborate preparation for Children's Day. The school numbers 80. Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Numbers devoted much time in training, ably aided by both ladies and gentlemen. Mr. Dulany, the pastor, was delighted with the proceedings, including the $15 collection.

Holden's church will observe Children's Day next Sunday afternoon at 2.30 p. m.
