GALENA ITEMS.

The Indian show kept things lively in our town during the past week. We are now looking forward to the big show that will exhibit here on this Saturday for more amusement.

The farmers are commencing to cut corn and many think there will not be three-fourths of a crop about here.

The tomato also is partly a failure.

Capt. Woodall's cannery is running on half time at present.

Those having peaches about here are disappointed at the prices obtained.

Our school opened on Monday last with a full corps of teachers and a good attendance of scholars.

Mr. Robt. Shallcross has been laid up with a very bad carbuncle on his neck. Dr. Pyfer, of Locust Grove, lanced it the latter part of last week; while it is improving some he has been suffering excrutiating pain. Under the skillful treatment of Dr. Pyfer he thinks he will soon pull through.

Mrs. John F. Cochran, Jr., died last Wednesday night of pneumonia, after an illness of two weeks.

Mr. John Ireland, of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. M. E. Gilpin, of Balto., are guests of Mrs. A. E. Ireland.

The steamer Sassafras, of the Tolchester line is making daily trips to Georgetown. This line seems to be gaining in favor with the traveling public.

Mr. Robert Wilson is embelishing his shops with a coat of paint. Mr. Lehman, our artistic painter, is putting on some fancy work on the front.

All the houses in town are occupied and more are needed.

LOCAL ITEMS. * * *

Newsy Pick-Ups Gathered from Here and There by Reporters of the "News."

Clear of Debt.—The M. E. Church, of Millington, is now clear of debt. Last Sunday the congregation raised over $500 for the purpose of paying off the old indebtedness and placing a furnace in the church.

Big Sale.—The sale of I. R. Leaverton's personalty advertised in the NEWS was largely attended. Yearling colts brought from $46 to $50; horses from $60 to $140; cows from $34 to $47.50; sheep $3.50 to $5.60 and implements sold well.

Sunk. — The large schooner-rigged scow "Harvey Moore" loaded with 10,000 bricks and 39 tons of coal for Senator Kirwan, of Kent Island, sprung a leak and went down on Ferry Bar last Friday. Another vessel was secured, the cargo saved and the scow floated. Capt. Neal is in charge of the Moore.

Bought Out.—Mr. H. Meeteer Wallis has purchased of Mr. J. B. Sappington the stock of store goods kept by him on corner of High and Mill streets and will hereafter conduct same He will put in a new and fresh stock of goods and will no doubt receive the encouragement of many. Mr. S. will retire for the present.

Bankrupt.—Mr. John Bell, near Chestertown, has applied for the benefit of the Bankruptcy Law and a meeting of his creditors has been called at the court house Wednesday, Sept. 12.

"Take It Out!"—Mr. Jesse R. Copper advertised seed wheat in the NEWS and on Tuesday came in and ordered the adv. withdrawn as he had no more to sell. Said he, "I had letters even from Ohio where they wrote that they had seen the ad. in the NEWS."

Pension Day.—Wednesday was pension day in Chestertown and the 90 or more entitled to pay were eager to get their vouchers off in the early mail. The magistrates slept with one eye open Tuesday and at 3 A. M. one of them was in his office and filling out an applicant's paper. Fifty of them appeared before 6 o'clock and mailed their papers to go on the train.

No Houses to Rent.—As stated in the NEWS last week, Col. William P. Howard removed to Chestertown last Thursday, but being unable to secure a suitable house hauled his goods to the train and returned to Pocomoke City. A friend here had rented him a house, but when the furniture was brought on it was found impossible to get all of it in the house.

Matrimonial.—Mr. Frank V. Simpers will be the best man at the wedding of Mr. Morris A. Hoffman and Miss Marietta Manning, in Washington, D. C., next Wednesday.

Mr. Robert E. Porter, of Millington, and Miss Eva W. Clough, of Queen Anne's county, were married last Saturday evening at the parsonage of the Chestertown M. E. Church, by Rev. E. C. Sunfield.

Charles Emory Brown and Miss Clara McClure Coburn, both of Rock Hall, obtained a marriage license in Baltimore last Saturday.

A Fine Recital.—The recital given Monday evening at the Hotel Rigbie, Betterton, was a recherche affair. About one hundred persons attended and thoroughly enjoyed the entertainment. Miss Jeannette T. Broomell, the child impersonator, was at her best and completely captured her audience. She could not have been excelled. Mr. Louis A. Stremple, baritone and Miss Anna Mae Mealey, pianist, were grand, unassuming yet graceful, and possessing ability in their particular roles. The affair was a credit to Mr. Howard Turner, the manager, and to Betterton.

Accidents.—Mr. John McKee's horse chewed his haltar into while hitched at a rack in town on Tuesday and ran off. He took up in a barbed wire fence, cutting his breast and upsetting the carriage.

One of Mr. T. W. Eliason's fine carriage horses snagged himself one night this week, and it is feared he is seriously injured.

While Mr. Stewart Matthews was driving the plucky mare belonging to the American Strawboard Company, on Tuesday, one of the reins broke and the team was guided into the iron bridge rail at the mill. Mr. M. jumped out before the collision, but was caught in the reins and dragged for some distance, injuring his head.

Lost.—Little James Robinson, aged six years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Robinson, of Cecilton, became quite a hero on last Thursday. With his parents, he was going to the Tolchester Fair on the steamer Sassafras. When the boat stopped at Betterton Master Jim walked ashore, his mother knowing nothing whatever of it until the boat had started and was some distance down the river. She did not see her boy again until late that night when the boat stopped at Betterton on its return. The child had fallen into good hands; a gentleman took him to the hotel, gave him his dinner and supper, and parted from him after presenting him with a little purse containing money.

Farms Sold.—Hope H. Barroll, Esq., as trustee, sold at private sale Wendesday the two farms belonging to the late Henry Burris, in the first district, to Mr. Wm. Darrell. These tracts contain 124 acres and 81 acres and adjoins the lands of Wm. Myers, R. D. Hynson and others. The price was $1,000.

John A. Crane has purchased of Annie E. Crane, of Millington, for $2500, all that farm in the first district containing 312 acres, between Cypress and Dead branches and known as Canada; also certain other tracts in the same neighborhood.

Alday Clements has purchased of Frank C. West and wife for $10,000 the "Vienna" farm on road leading from Chestertown to Chesterville adjoining the lands of Alday Clements and others, and containing 171 acres.

Two properties were sold at Middletown on Saturday by Harry Davis, executor of Henry Davis, deceased. The farm of 205 acres in Appoquinimink hundred, was sold to Mrs. Laura West, of Middletown, for $12,935, 21 acres of woodland in the same hundred were sold to George V. Peverly for $801.

Dedication. — The new church at Worton station is now completed and will be dedicated tomorrow (Sunday) with interesting exercises. Rev. E. C. Sunfield is pastor of this church and has been constant in working for its completion. The building cost $2100, is furnished with opera chairs, pretty carpet and is a credit to Methodism and to the devoted members. Rev. L. E. Barrett, D. D., of Milford, Del., will preach the morning sermon at 10.30. There will be a platform meeting in the afternoon at 2.30. The evening sermon will be preached by Rev. S. Chipman, of Kent Island, at 6 30, after which Dr. W. F. Cockran will dedicate the church. The orchestra of the Chestertown M. E. Church will render some of their excellent music throughout the day. A cordial invitation is extended to the public.

SCHOOLS TO ADD ANOTHER FEATURE.

The Public School Teaschers Association met in Chestertown yesterday, Prof. Joseph Peterson in the chair. Fifty out of 67 answered to the roll call. The question of the day was whether or not the schools should establish the Savings Bank feature as introduced by Examiner Chaplain in Talbot. After discussion it was adopted by vote of 29 to 28 and the following committee was appointed to get endorsement of school board and formulate rules to govern same: Milton Melvin, J. L. Smyth, S. W. Sparks, Misses Helen Link and Mollie Noland.

Miss Lelia M. Reese gave a select reading.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

John W. Loud Passes Away—Arthur Gale, Mrs. Cochran, Mrs. Truitt.

John W. Loud, one of Kent's best citizens and foremost fruit growers, died at his home on Chester river, near Chestertown, Wednesday afternoon after a long illness. The deceased came to Kent county in 1847 from Caroline and has been living in the neighborhood where he died for 53 years. Mr. Loud was 73 years of age, and leaves a widow and four children, viz., J. Cordray, Edw., Allie and Miss Mettie.

The funeral services took place at 10 o'clock yesterday conducted by Rev. J. R. Cannan, interment in Chester cemetry. The pall-bearers were Capt. R. S. Emory, Prof. A. N. Ebaugh, Wm. H. Ayres, Wm. Ford, Victor Hendrickson, Hiram M. Brown, Samuel Merritt, Dr. W. F. Hines. Undertaker J. N. Dodd had charge of the arrangements.

Arthur Gale, aged about 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gale, died at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Hatcherson Wednesday morning after a long illness of typhoid fever. The deceased clerked for a number of years in Mr. W. R. Aldridge's store where he became quite popular, and his tidy appearance was the cause of general commendation. We miss him in our business life.

The funeral took place yesterday afternoon conducted by Revs. J. M. Gill and E. C. Makoskey, interment in Chester cemetery. The bearers were Merritt Rasin, Rudolph Stam, Henry and Leon Brown, Howard and Charley Dodd.

Mrs. W. E. Truitt, daughter of Mr. Wm. Lewis, of Queen Anne's, died at her home on High street Thursday night aged 29. She leaves an infant. Undertaker, J. E. Ferguson in charge.

The death of Mrs. Cochran is noted in our Galena letter.

"SANTIAGO" INVADED.

Chestertown Officers Capture Several Prisoners Near Lynchburg on Charge of Selling Intoxicants.

Sheriff Davis, Officer Cooper and Constable Gill went to "Santiago" Saturday night and arrested William Walters and son on a charge of selling intoxicants. Santiago is a noted part of Lynchburg, near College avenue. The officers have been thoroughly convinced that illegal business in intoxicants was being conducted there but have been unable to get sufficient evidence until recently.

Dick Robinson, late returned from House of Correction, was the first one arrested at "Santiago." He was given a hearing before Justice Melvin Saturday and held for court. Mr. Lewis, the witness, testified that he bought liquor of him and paid for it. He was positive that the man who sold it was Dick Robinson.

Will Walters is a sleek fellow. It is charged that he has been running a veritable beer garden with seats for black and white and using his son or sons to serve the cool beverage. He planked down $300 in cash as bail last Monday and on Friday night paid a bill of $192. It is said that Santiago dealers have been selling $1200 worth of drinks per month during the summer!

Walters, through his attorney, R. D. Hynson, Esq., waived a hearing yesterday before Justice Melvin and was held for action of grand jury.

Frank Schaœner was on last Friday given a hearing and committed to jail by Justice J. C. Rasin, upon the charge of violating the local option law. Schaœner, as noted in the NEWS, conducted a floating bar room, using a small steam launch, in which he sold beer and liquor. His principal stopping place was near Betterton. The accused admitted the selling, but claims that the waters of the Chesapeake bay are not within the jurisdiction of the county authorities. He had a government license.

The case against Justice J. C. Rasin, charged with issuing a warrant without authority from the party upon whose oath the same was purported to have been issued, was heard before Justice France last Saturday. The verdict was guilty, and a fine of one cent imposed.

MILLINGTON ITEMS.

Mr. Linden Loper returned to Balto., Monday after spending his two weeks vacation with his mother, Mrs. S. Loper, on Cypress street.
