THE SAD REAPER.

Carries off the Young and Old—Mrs. T. A. Hudson Passed Away—Miss Ethel Maslin Succumbs—Mrs. Peacock, Mrs. Rockwell, Mrs. Landers.

MISS ETHEL J. MASLIN, oldest daughter of Thomas C. and Myra Maslin, died at her parent's home, near Rock Hall, on Saturday evening last. She was not quite 20 years of age. In 1898 she graduated at Washington College and for one year taught in the public schools of Kent, having charge of the East Neck Island school. As she stood on the stage in Stam's Hall that bright June day in '98 and received her certificate of proficiency and scholarship no more perfect picture of health and loveliness was rarely seen, and no brighter promises of a life of usefulness and happiness could be imagined. But soon all was changed, for the anticipations of the bright, lovely girl and her loved ones were turned into forebodings that were all too soon realized. Germs of that fatal and terrible destroyer, consumption, began to manifest themselves, planted in her system by circumstances not under her control.

Bravely, nobly, patiently, did she fight disease, and only her immediate family know how acutely she suffered to overcome the destroyer. But to no avail, she gradually grew worse and was compelled to resign her school, and finally took to her bed. For sixteen weary weeks she lay on her bed suffering untold pain. But always ministered unto by her faithful family, friends and physician. Nothing that human love and skill could think of was left undone. On Saturday last about 9 o'clock her suffering ceased and in the arms of her tireless, devoted mother she passed to the other world firm in the faith that she would meet them all in the great hereafter.

The funeral service took place on Tuesday afternoon at Wesleyan Chapel before a large concourse of sympathizing friends and relatives. Such a profusion of beautiful flowers as completely covered the casket and altar rail is rarely seen on any occasion, thus attesting the deep love and esteem in which she was held by all who knew her. After the sympathetic words of the earnest man of God, Rev. F. H. Mullineaux, and the sweet voices of the choir had ceased the casket was borne out to beautiful Wesleyan Chapel Cemetery. And here just as the sun was sinking in the West, amid quietness and tears, all that remained of the earthly form of Ethel Maslin was laid to rest.

The bearers were Messrs. Marion T. Miller, Milton L. Maslin, William E. Leary, Wickes Sappington, William A. Maslin and Wm. B. Usilton, Jr. The church ushers were Messrs. Wm. Gale and Harry W. Rickey. Undertaker J. N. Dodd, of Chestertown, had charge of all the funeral arrangements.

MRS. MARTHA A. LANDERS died very suddenly last Saturday evening at the home of her son, Mr. Upton S. Landers, near Topping's Mill, Chestertown. The deceased was 72 years of age and was apparently in good health when the death messenger came. About 6 o'clock p. m. her son handed her the day's papers and left her for a few moments. When he returned to the room she was dead, with the paper still in her hand and her glasses on. Her remains were taken away on the steamer Ford Monday and were interred in the family burying ground at Middlebury, Carroll county, Undertaker Ferguson in charge.

MRS. AGUSTA FOX WYATT ROCKWELL died early Monday morning at the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. Albert Groves, Queen street, aged 67 years. The deceased was a consistent member of the M. E. Church, a kind, devoted mother, and a good neighbor. She was the wife of the owner of the Rockwell House, now occupied by L. W. Wickes, Esq., and others. She leaves one daughter, Miss Gussie Rockwell, and several grand-children. Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon conducted by Revs. J. M. Gill and E. C. Sunfield. The pall-bearers were Dr. J. T. Twilley, E. N. Roland, Geo. W. Hatcherson, R. K. Pippin, Willard Melvin and T. S. Bordley. At her request Mrs. T. S. Dodd, Mrs. W. A. Smith, Miss Marion Lusby, Messrs. R. K. Pippin and F. G. Usilton sang her favorite hymns "Haven of Rest," "Asleep in Jesus" and "Leaning on His Everlasting Arms." Mr. J. N. Dodd had charge of the arrangements.

MRS. ADALINE L. HUDSON, wife of Thos. A. Hudson, judge of the Orphans' Court, died at 2 o'clock last Thursday morning at the residence of Mrs. M. H. Blackiston, her daughter, in Rock Hall. She was 67 years of age last Monday.

The fatal disease was first discovered only a few months ago, and everything that medical skill could do was availed of to break the cancerous hold, but in vain. Her treatment at the Johns Hopkins availed nothing, and she returned home some weeks ago to die. She stopped her daughter's for convenience to physicians.

The funeral of the deceased will take place at 10 o'clock to-morrow (Sunday) morning, at Wesley Chapel Church, to which her friends are invited without further notice.

The deceased was the daughter of the late Robert and Mary Ann Usilton. The former died in Worton in 1851 and the latter in 1864, leaving a family of eight—seven sons and one daughter. One of the sons (Wash) died some years ago in Illinois; another (Robert) died at Smithville two years ago, and now the only sister is gone, leaving Samuel, Edwin, William, Gustavus and Albert.

The deceased was a devoted wife, a loving mother, a kind neighbor and generous friend—a bright example indeed of pure Christian womanhood. She has long been a member of Wesley Chapel, and was highly esteemed by its congregation and indeed by the whole section of country in which she has been so long and favorably known.

The sadly stricken husband, three sons—William, Harry and Allie—and the devoted daughter, Mollie, with their families, all have the sincere sympathy of a wide circle of relatives and friends.

The beloved one has only crossed the river a little ahead of us. We will soon be with her on the other side!

Mrs. Mattie G. Peacock, wife of Jeremiah Peacock, and sister of Wm. A. Whitaker, died at her home in Galena Tuesday morning after a long illness.

CHURCH DOINGS.

Rev. E. C. Sunfield Resigns as Pastor of Chestertown M. E. Church — Rev. Mr. Arters Called to Union.

Rev. E. C. Sunfield, who succeeded Dr. C. A. Grise as pastor of Chestertown M. E. Church, has resigned, and will preach his last sermon to this congregation next Sunday. He will remove his estimable wife and bright, popular young daughter to Smyrna at an early date. Rev. Mr. Sunfield will devote his time and talents to evangelistic work, for which he is specially well qualified, being an indefatigable worker, a good singer and a man honestly seeking the salvation of souls. He came to Kent from the New Jersey conference, and for a year has been President of the Epworth League of the Easton District. As president he left nothing undone, and the League to-day is in better shape than ever before. At Worton Station he has left a monument to his industry, sacrifice and godliness in the elegant new Union Church. Presiding Elder Corkran will supply the Chestertown charge until the vacancy can be filled. Dr. L. E. Barrett, of Georgetown, is already mentioned as one of the possibilities for Chestertown.

The congregation at Worton have succeeded in making a union with Fairlee, where Rev. J. A. Arters will supply their pulpit. He will preach every Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock and every other evening. Mr. Arters needs no introduction. He is all right and Worton has chosen wisely.

MR. HANNA TRANSFERRED.

Rev. J. D. C. Hanna, of Wilmington, secretary of the Twentieth Century Endowment Fund, has been transferred from the Wilmington Conference to the West Chester M. E. Church, in the Philadelphia Conference. The transfer was announced this week. Mr. Hanna is one of the best known Methodist ministers in that conference. He was formerly pastor of Asbury and Union M. E. Church. At each charge he remained for five years. When his term as minister of Union Church expired he was appointed secretary of the endowment fund.

The church at West Chester is one of the most important in the Philadelphia Conference, outside of Philadelphia. He will assume charge there immediately as assistant to Dr. Gordon, the present pastor. Dr. Gordon is ill and Mr. Hanna will practically be the pastor. A successor to Mr. Hanna will be appointed by the bishop.

Bishop Goodsell has been assigned to preside over the next session of the Wilmington M. E. Conference, to be held at Seaford, Del., March 20th; and over the Delaware Conference (colored,) to be held at Atlantic City, April 17th.

Wedded. — The wedding of Miss Myra Crew and Mr. S. G. Roseberry took place in the Still Pond M. E. Church Wednesday morning. A full account of the wedding will appear in the NEWS next week.

The wedding of Miss Milison Estella Porter, the attractive daughter of Mr. Joseph Porter, of Worton, and Mr. Carrol B. Hazazer took place this week.

THE stove in Miss Mary Burchinal's room at the public school upset yesterday, and but for her presence of mind, a fire would have resulted.

Election Notes.

Election day passed off very serenely. The day could not have been more beautiful, bright and balmy, and a large vote was polled. At Chestertown most of the vote was in before noon and the young appointees proved efficient and quick.

The only "crooked" work is reported at Rock Hall. The Republican Judge was charged with giving receipts or orders showing that the person holding the same had voted straight. The polls were closed there for over an hour until matters could be adjusted. This act was in direct violation of law and should not go unnoticed by the proper authorities.

Jackson's "barrell" was very much in evidence at Rock Hall and about 100 votes bought for him at low prices. The Democrats did not spend a cent and the Republicans had matters their own way. To the credit of the Republican treasurer it may be said that he returned over $200 Wednesday to the Chestertown leaders!

Galena is the banner precinct in the county and we take off our hats to her. Millington comes next. The first district can well afford to throw her banner to the breeze. However the other districts worked hard against awful odds and did well under the circumstances.

The excellent conduct of the colored element Tuesday night is creditable and it can be said that there never was better behavior nor a more peaceable election night than that of 1900. Mr. S. Frank Smith made more noise crying "McKinley bread" Wednesday morning than any person in town!

Mr. Josiah Massey, the ardent Democrat, was in no humor to be joked by Republicans Wednesday morning so that when Mr. Jas. W. Chapman asked him "how do you feel, Joe?" he quickly retorted: "Like Lazarus, when he was licked by dogs!"

Ex-Justice J. W. Wright cast his vote at Worton and after doing so said "Well, I voted for Bryan and the Democratic ticket for the first time in 45 years and feel that I have done a service for the best welfare of my country!"

States Attorney J. D. Urie has again proven his skill and power as a leader and practical politician. The campaign has been waged under his direction and he has made every effort count. Mr. Urie is the recognized head in Kent county, of the Republican party, though Mr. W. Eliason, the State committee chairman, was zealous and efficient.

Some kind friend will accept the NEWS' thanks for a pass on the unlimited excursion over the Phila. & Salt River R. R. to Salt River Junction where Uncle Mark must punch it for return trip. The ticket also calls for a bath for the "Gold Cure." We have made the trip before, and so has the sender.

The 1894 negro voters appeared early on the scene and voted nearly to a man There were not over three who did not vote at Rock Hall and 1 at Worton and in other districts about the same.

Wm. K. Everett, of Worton, is possibly the oldest voter in the county who cast his ballot Tuesday. He is 93 years old.

CHESTERTOWN has had all sorts of shows but the man with the "politics rat show" on Monday was a new one and drew a crowd. He had about a dozen rats of all sizes and these were taught to do all sorts of tricks. We're afraid he rat-tled our voters from the returns!

THE following pupils in the principal's department of Betterton public school have attained an average of 80 per cent. and above for October:

TUESDAY, Nov. 20th, is the date for the sale of the Smith property, advertised by Messrs. R. D. Hynson and L. W. Wickes, trustees. Any in want of small farms will find several desirably located tracts in this sale.

The marriage of Miss Annie Naudain Cochrane, daughter of Mr. Robert A. Cochrane, to Mr. Wm. Rankin Crow will take place at the bride's home, Mount Airy, Del., Thursday, Nov. 22nd.

THE enterprising firm of Crane and Trenchard Bros. are giving their factory and store rooms a coat of paint, which adds very materially to appearances in that portion of the town.

THE festival at Worton by the Union M. E. Church last week cleared $25.

CHRYSANTHEMUMS!

Beautiful Exhibits—Prize Winners—Brilliant Entertainment By Home Talent.

The third annual exhibition of Chrysanthemums was held in Christ M. P. Church Thursday and Friday evenings of this week and, as usual, proved a grand success. The greatest improvement was noted in the home grown beauties, rivaling the products of the city hot houses. Mrs. Wm. H. Lambert, of Morgnec, had an exhibition of home grown cut flowers that were magnificent in size and charming in color. Mrs. Dr. H. H. Simmons, of Chestertown, had over twenty different varieties and won the prize for largest bloom. She has a tent that she spreads over her plants at night and has by this method kept the frost away. Mrs. Samuel Mann, of Lynch's, had a very beautiful display of cut flowers as did Mrs. Chas. Jolls, of Dover. Chestertown's veteran florist was very much in evidence in the exhibit of potted plants and beautiful cut flowers. Mrs. George B. McWhorter had an elegant display of potted plants and design of flower stand.

The judges, Mrs. Allen Harris, Col. W. J. Vannort and Mr. W. B. Copper, awarded the prizes as follows:

Best design—Mrs. R. Irving Walker, of near Chester bridge. Her design was Fleur-de-lis of exquisite beauty and a marvel of her handiwork. The background was white while the tracings were dark red and pink.

Mrs. Wm. Robertson won second prize on harp design. It was a beauty.

Best collection of cut flowers—Mrs. Wm. H. Lambert; second, Mrs. H. B. Simmons.

Best collection of cut flowers outside of county—Charles Jolls, of Dover, Del.

Largest bloom—Mrs. H. B. Simmons.

Best collection of potted plants—W. H. Kirby; second, Mrs. G. B. McWhorter.

Others who had exhibits were Mrs. Hallie Kelley, star and crescent; Mrs. Wm. Burke, basket; Mrs. C. J. Reiche, C. E. design on fan; Mrs. Kate Pennington, cross and arch; Mrs. J. W. Duyer, tricycle; Mrs. Will Duyer, miniature house; Miss Nettie Russell, heart and cross; Mrs. Wm. Sutton, Misses Sue Reiche and Katie Smith, large butterfly; Mrs. T. Shafer had some pretty cut flowers as did others.

The entertainment was a pleasing feature of the occasion and the program presented was of a high character. Every feature was in keeping with the unique exhibition and pleased the large audience. The program follows:

Selection ..... by Orchestra composed of Messrs. A. M. Culp, R. Irving Walker, L. B. Russell, John W. Cannan, D. P. Jones, J. N. Dodd, A. L. Sparks.

FAIRLEE NOTES.

The gunning season is fully on and the people are shooting away. Rabbits are plentiful, but birds scarce.

The Sandy Bottom church is being fitted up with the pews and it will soon be dedicated. It is one of the best church buildings the colored people have in the county.

Wild geese are on the wing southward and gunners are ready for their visits in the wheat fields around the bay shore.

More houses are needed in Fairlee. Every dwelling is rented for next year, and a number more could be.

The children who were given a nickel last April by Rev. John M. Arters made most excellent reports on last Sunday, "Talent Day." Some reported as high as two dollars made from a five cent invest and running but eight months. Some reported more than a dollar and others from ten cents up to the above named figures.

Revival services will begin in our village church to-morrow, Sunday evening, at 7 o'clock, and continued each evening during the week except Saturday, beginning at 7.30 p. m.

On last Tuesday Mr. Wm. Lee's horse got away from him at his gate, throwing him from the carriage and running down to this village.

The Jr. Epworth League sociable on last Saturday evening, held at Mr. and Mrs. Wards, was a most enjoyable event. The little folks had a very creditable program arranged and it was elegantly rendered.

The Mite Society held a sociable at Mr. and Mrs. John Hudson's on yesterday, Friday evening, and a very pleasant and profitable evening was spent in the interest of the church.

Some nicely ripened Keifer pears are being shipped to market by the farmers around our neighborhood.

Mrs. Biggs and little grandson, of Baltimore, are visiting Mrs. John Hudson.

We have no sick horses in this immediate neighborhood, but all sorts of preventatives are being used — Asafetida, &c.

Miss Eugie Dill, of Rock Hall, is visiting Miss Hattie Lewis.
