CHESTERTOWN, MD., NOVEMBER 24, 1900

SULLIVAN, the famous composer, died in London on Thursday, aged 58 years.

A GREAT lumber trust has been formed and Gov. Smith, who is interested in it, predicts lower prices for the output as a consequence.

THE Chinese situation is declared to be in a worse condition than ever before. A great war may yet result.

MARYLAND'S official vote is announced as follows :

Republican	136.185
Democratic	122.238	13.947
Prohibition	4,574

ANOTHER wedding in "high life" comes to us over the wires from London. The young Duke of Manchester weds the pretty Miss Helene Zimmerman, of Cincinnati. There are three facts in connection with this marriage of public interest : First, the groom is a bankrupt and the bride an heiress to her father's many millions ; second, it was a runaway match ; third, the bride choose for a wedding present a bull pup ! The daily papers give fine pictures of the pup.

SALISBURY will have free mail delivery after Dec. 1. Three carriers have been appointed. Why should not Chestertown have the same advantages? The P. O. officials will do a good thing in bringing this about, however much it might interfere with the "occupation of certain postoffice goers"

MR. JOSEPH L. KERR will serve in Congress from December till March 4th. He will draw pay from the time Governor Smith resigned, so that his salary will amount to about $7,000 for the three month's service.

A SINGULAR case is presented in Anne Arundel county. The Court of Appeals has just decided that R. Tilghman Brice, republican, is entitled to the office of County Treasurer held by Dr. B. R. Davidson, democrat, the latter claiming to have been elected in 1898. Mr. Brice no sooner took charge of the office than he sent in his resignation ! The county commissioners thereupon appointed B. A. Welch, democrat to succeed him.

ONE of the features of the Great Christian Endeavor convention in Philadelphia this week was a choir of fifteen hundred voices of the best male and female singers of that city. We had the pleasure of hearing that choir last Saturday evening at the Academy of Music in one of the grandest recitals ever given in this country. It was led by Prof. Lincoln, and among the pieces rendered the most effective was "The Holy City."

The Oyster Outlook Better.

There is a better outlook for oysters. The catch on Swan Point bar has doubled since September. Two men caught 25 bushels in one day there this week. The price is 50 to 55c. on the bars and at Rock Hall. This pays handsomely. The young growth of oysters promise great abundance in the near future. Chesapeake bay and Chester river beds are full of the young oysters which will be large enough to market next spring.

Oyster tongers and runners are very much pleased with the new oyster inspectors. The new law gives great satisfaction in this respect. The measure now always holds out. Heretofore there was always a shortage, sometimes as much as 10 bushels in a hundred !

COLORED VOTERS COMING.

A telegram dated Snow Hill, Md., Nov. 19, to the Baltimore Sun, says : "A former citizen of Snow Hill who is now a resident of North Carolina says that the negroes in various parts of that State are making arrangements to come to Maryland, where they will be able to take an active part in governmental policies. Many have already left, and others will do so as soon as they can get together money enough to land them within the Maryland line. The general hope is to settle in the "black belt" of Southern Maryland, but failing to that, anywhere in Maryland will do. The power to influence political results is dear to their hearts, and it is well known in North Carolina that in Maryland a cross opposite Lincoln's nose votes the ticket straight. The man who gives the information is firmly convinced that this move on the part of the negroes is but the beginning of a steady stream that will flow from North Carolina to the nearest doubtful or Republican State where no such thing as an educational qualification can stand between the negro and his franchise.

THE Baltimore grain quotations in yesterdays papers were for wheat 72¼c, corn 43¾c.

THE repeal of the annoying "stamp" taxes by the coming session of Congress is hoped for, and business people throughout the country will rejoice.

KENNEDYVILLE NOTES.

Rev. L. A. Bennett, who has been assisting in the revival services at the M. P. Church here, returned home via Baltimore on Tuesday morning. The Rev. gentleman has made many friends during his short stay in this community.

Miss Gooden, who has been visiting at the home of Mr. W. E. Sanders, returned to her home in Dover, Del., the past week.

Mr. Orrie Gooden, of Baltimore, passed through our village on last Sabbath enroute for Dover, returning Monday night.

Mr. Jos. Price and daughter, Elsie, of Barkley, Queen Anne's, made a flying visit to the home of Mr. Wm. Whiteley this past week.

Mr. Benj. Gooden, of Dover, is spending a few days with Mr. W. E. Sanders.

Revival services are in progress at the M. P. Church at this place and will continue throughout next week. Rev. C.E. Forlines, of North Carolina, will assist the pastor a few nights next week, arriving here on Wednesday evening. Special Thanksgiving services will be held in the M. P. church next Thursday morning at 10.30. Rev. M. Forlines will preach the sermon. A special offering for the benefit of the Aged People's Home at Westminster will be made at this service.

Notice—The postoffice at this place will on next Thursday, Thanksgiving Day, be closed after 1 o'clock. All who desire to get their mail should come before that hour as the office will be closed to all callers. This notice is given at request of postmaster.

Mrs. Thos. Redmile, who has been visiting in Balto. for a few days, returned home Thursday evening.

New stoves have been placed in the M. P. Church here, which adds very much to the appearance of the church and comfort of the worshippers.

On last Thursday afternoon a few of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Scotten met at their home to witness the baptism of their interesting little daughter, Dorothy Blanche, also the baptism of Mr. and Mrs. Redmile's bright little son, Harry Walton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Louis Randall, pastor of the M. P. Church, who in an impressive manner endeavored to charge the parents of these children with the importance of training their children, by precept and example, in the fear and the nurture of the Lord. A sumptuous dinner was then served to the friends gathered to witness this interesting ceremony, all the delicacies of the season were in evidence on the bountifully supplied board.

We are glad to report that Mrs. John Medders, who has been quite sick, is convalescent.

A Maryland Kitchen at Buffalo.—Mr. W. S. McKean, secretary of the Eastern Shore board of development, returned to Baltimore Monday from Buffalo, N. Y., where he inspected the grounds and buildings of the Pan-American Exposition. Mr. McKean is favorably impressed with the prospects and will urge that Maryland be adequately represented. He proposes that a Maryland kitchen be established, at which the products of the Commonwealth may be booked in true Maryland style. The management has set aside a nice space for a Maryland exhibit in a location which Mr. McKean says is very satisfactory. Kent's exhibit of fruit at the Exposition will be one of the features of the Maryland space.

ROBBED IN BROAD DAYLIGHT!

Mr. Alexander J. Hubbard, manufacturing jeweler, gem-cutter and diamond expert, while sitting in his jewelry store, in the basement of 13 North street, Baltimore, between 10 and 10.30 o'clock Tuesday morning, was assaulted by two men, who struck him over the head with the but of a revolver, bound him hands and feet, dargged him into a coal closet in the rear of the store and robbed it systematically and leisurely.

The loss was between $3000 and $4000, including $150 in cash and a watch taken from his pockets.

The assault occurred a few minutes after 10 o'clock, when the street in front of Mr. Hubbard's place was crowded with traffic. He was not discovered until a few minutes before 11 o'clock, when his faint cries for help were heard.

Game is reported to be scarce in Kent this year, though in some sections where birds have been placed by the sportsmen a number of coveys are said to have thrived very nicely. Good dogs are also scarce in this vicinity, the owners of such being lucky in their possession.
