CHESTERTOWN, MD. . JULY 6, 1901.

WHEAT was quoted at 70 cents in Baltimore yesterday.

IT has been too hot for politics this week.

THE Republican legislative primaries in Baltimore next Tuesday promise to be lively.

NOTWITHSTANDING the heat, coal took a jump of 25 cents per ton Monday. "While the cats are away the mice are at play."

THE strike of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers against the American Sheet Steel Company and the American Steel Hoop Company, both of which concerns are in the United States Steel Corporation, began Monday.

No stamps are now required on checks, notes, etc. This will be a great relief to the business world. May the occasion never occur when the stamp act shall be in force again.

THE Democracy throughout the State are hailing the candidacy of HON. ARTHUR P. GORMAN for U. S. Senator with great enthusiasm. Who will the Republicans put against him? Mudd demands the honor, but sooner than accept him as an issue his party will likely take to the woods!

THE Republican State Central Committee for Kent County have called primaries for Saturday, July 20th. The convention is to be held the following Monday. It is proposed to select delegates to the State Convention which meets in Baltimore August 6th, then adjourn until a later date when the local ticket will be named.

THE citizens demand a thorough investigation of the census from our State department. Mr. Ogden reports 1,000 names on the Federal Census that are not on the State papers. The Federal authorities say they are ready to aid in the work. Now let the State authorities send an offical here with the Federal officer and in ten days this whole matter could be adjusted and Kent county given justice! Don't stop, yet, Col. Schley, find the snake in the wood pile and kill it!

IN another column we call attention to the Kent Census. The State enumeration result is as follows:

Population of Maryland	1,178,900
Population of Baltimore City	514,378
Loss in counties from Federal census	16,726
Increase in Baltimore City	5,421
Total loss in State	11,305

The loss of more than 16,000 in the counties is greater than was anticipated and means a rearrangement of the representation in the Legislature of several counties. Dorchester county, it is said, will be the only one entitled to an additional representative, the increase over the Federal figures being about 300.

The heaviest losses occur in St. Mary's, Anne Arundel, Charles and Baltimore counties. The discrepancy in Anne Arundel is more than 5,000, in St. Mary's about 1,200, in Baltimore about 1,500 and in Charles about 1,700.

The results in Kent county are very interesting, and when the figures are finally announced, it is said, there may be facts brought to light that will compel a change in the system and method of taking Federal censuses. Both Kent and Prince George's counties are 1,000 short, Queen Anne's, St. Mary's, Wicomico, Dorchester and Harford each made slight gains.

WANT RECOUNT FOR KENT.

County Proposes To Pay State And Federal Enumerators To Do It.

There have been a number of Kent countians at the Census Bureau recently. The NEWS representative called and was promised a thorongh investigation by the authorities.

Mr. John D. Urie and ex-State Senator Chas. T. Westcott, of Kent county, called at the State Census Bureau Wednesday to ascertain if some plan could be abopted by which a new census enumeration for Kent county could be had,

Mr. Urie stated to Assistant Superintendent Ogden that the people of Kent county are very much dissatisfied and disappointed at the result of the late enumeration; that the prevailing opinion by the people of Kent county is that the total population of the county is at least 19,000 instead of being only about 18,000.

"The people," said Mr. Urie, "do not relish loosing a member of the House of Delegates to which the county is entitled under the Federal census. We believe that the census taken by the Federal authorities is practically correct, more so than the returns made by the State enumerators."

Mr. Urie proposed to have one enumerator from the State bureau and one from the Federal bureau make a recount of the population for Kent and that the expenses would be paid by the county.

Mr. Ogden replied: "I cannot make any promises as to what we can do to help you. If the Government will make a recount I am willing to accept it, but do not think we could send a man from this office.

Mr. Urie insisted that a recount made by either of State or Government would be a one-sided affair. "That is not what we want" said he. "We want to show that the population has not been recorded correctly, and this could be best done by having one from each of the bureaus do the work."

The matter was not adjusted and some further action may be taken when Colonel Schley comes to the city.

. .Little Locals. .

THE Voshell House is to be lighted by 50 electric lights at once.

THE Worton Presbyterian Church has been improved by a new cupalo, repainting, etc.

MR. W. T. MASLIN brought a six foot snake to town this week and presented it to Mr. W. E. Moody, the curio hunter.

THE trustees of the Kent County almshouse on Wednesday awarded the contract to furnish coal to the almshouse to J. T. Twilley at $5.30 a ton.

THE Chestertown basket factory of Crane, Hynson & Vallant was closed three days this week and the employes given a holiday.

LOUD'S ice cream factory was busy Thursday, more than a hundred orders having been filled about Chestertown alone and before night every gallon of cream had been sold.

JERE MARSHALL, a noted colored pugiligistic champion, was buried at Melitota Saturday. He was born near Chestown and gained a national reputation as a pugilist.

ON account of the increased freight traffic the morning train will leave Chestertown at 6.30 A. M. and Clayton 9.42 A. M., arriving in Chestertown at 11.52 A M. The evening train will leave as formerly.

THE flagship, Corsica, Capt. Wm. Vandyke in command, arrived yesterday for the fruit and grain season

THE concert by the Chestertown Cornet Band was poorly attended last Friday night because of the extreme heat. Prof. George B. Twilley was the "Star" and met with a hearty reception. The band played well.

THE business of the Chestertown Telephone Exchange is increasing. The efficient operator, Mrs. Hurlock, is kept constantly busy and between twenty and thirty daily calls outside of Chestertown is now the average.

SCOTT, a valuable horse belonging to liveryman George B. McWhorter, was overcome by heat Tuesday afternoon, but recovered under ice-water baths and treatment by Dr. Jarman. Mr. Maxwell Jewell's fine driving horse was saved by the same treatment Monday night.

THE Kent Building and Loan Company issued over a hundred shares of stock in the new series Monday night.

MR. WM. R. PIPPIN expects to open his beautiful hotel, the Traveling and Commercial Man's home and headquaters about July 15th. Everything there is up-to-date, new from top to bottom—baths, lighted by electricity, heated by hot water and located on Park Row opposite the beautiful Kent Square. Mr. Pippin will run the new home for the balance of the year in connection with his Armstrong House, but next year he will give his whole attention to the new house.

Chesterville Items.

Local Notes.—Wheat threshing will be in full bloom by Monday.

The hay crop is short but far better than last year.

Messrs. E. B. Pennington and Manney Clendaniel have fine fields of timothy while Mr. Wm. T. Lusby has clover. Messrs. Wm. T. Baxter and Garrett Foxwell have lawns of fine mixed hay. All farmers have a heavy weed crop.

Several electrical gusts passed over this section Tuesday and Wednesday. Several outbuildings and trees were struck by lightning.

Struck by Lightning. — Mr. Irvin Hurlock, one of Kent's prominent young farmers near Chesterville, was stunned by lightning last Wednesday afternoon while on his way home from Millington. He was found unconscious in his team when he reached home and still is in a critical condition.

Mr. Harry Kedmile, near Locust Grove, had a pair of fine horses killed Tuesday evening by lightning.

Personals.—Miss Ethel Solloway, our popular teacher, has been seriously ill since Sunday but is now better.

Our village was deserted the 4th, the majority going to Tolchester, Millington and Betterton.

Mr. W. T. Lusby has a curiosity in a three-eared pig.

Miss Bertha Mitchel, of Church Hill, has been visiting the Misses Solloway.

Mrs. Mary E. Lusby, widow of the late Thos. Lusby, is visiting her granddaughter, Mrs. Watts, Townsend, Del.

Mr. E. B. Pennington, Jr., of Talbot county, is visiting the parental home.

Miss Ida Wallen, of Queen Anne's, is visiting her friend Miss Elfeda Toulson.

Miss Hetty Jefferson, of Rich Neck, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Wm. Baxter.

Mrs Sarah Mahaney, who has been the guest of Mrs. Thos. Hurlock, has returned to her home near Elkton.

Rumor has it that Mr. Peter Stevens, our blacksmith, is going to leave the village to engage in farming near Black Bird. This is a good opening for some good smith.

A YACHT BURNED.

A Party In Danger On Miles River—Mr. Henderson's Loss.

Monday afternoon Mr. Charles E. Henderson's naphtha engine yacht Iris was burned on Miles river and then sunk, a total wreck.

The yacht went down the river with a party of 13 ladies and gentlemen aboard, among them being Miss Pauline Adams, Miss Louise Adams, daughters of Bishop Adams; the Misses Lowndes, daughters of Dr. Charles Lowndes; Miss Hilary W. W. Lynn, of Philadelphia, and Allan Martin, of Easton. The Iris was in charge of Mr. Lynn, and when about five miles down the river the naphtha exploded, setting fire to the inflammable materials of deck and saloon. The flames spread quickly and the yacht's people were for a time in imminent peril, as the boat had no tender to take them off. They huddled together forward, the part farthest from the flames, which were fast reaching them, when a sail skiff suddenly appeared from around the point and took off the distressed yachting party and left them unhurt at their point of departure The Iris burned to the water's edge and then sunk. Mr. Charles E. Henderson, owner of the Iris, is one of the vice-presidents of the Reading Railroad. He kept the boat at The Rest, his summer home in Talbot. It cost $2,500 and was large and finely appointed.
