CHESTERTOWN, MD., JULY 13. 01.

May-Be-Not To Swim.—Mr. Robert S. Wiesenfeld, owner of the show mare, Countess May-Be-Not, goes to Betterton Tuesday, to remain until January 1. He will take the mare with him. He proposes to teach the mare to swim fast then enter her in a race to swim a distance against time. The Countess is now 7 years old. She will be taken to Baltimore October 16 to hold her annual birthday reception at the Phœnix Stables.

Governors May Meet.—When Governor Smith visits the Queenstown camp of the State militia on July 17 he will probably meet Governor Hunn of Delaware. President Bosley of the Queen Anne's Railroad Company will invite the Delaware executive and other prominent officials of his State to visit the camp on that day. The Maryland invitations will include the chief officers of the State and city and the national representatives.

"Dr." Brown Goes to Jail.—"Dr." Thos. Pearl Raymond Brown, well known in this county in connection with the Rash murder case, in Queen Anne's who said he uses the professional title because he is a corn doctor and makes a salve for corns and bunions, was convicted in the Criminal court of Baltimore Wednesday of fortune-telling and was fined $25 and costs, amounting to $38.66. He did not pay the money and was sent to jail.

Military Encampment.—About all of the arrangements for the military encampment at Queenstown which begins today, have been completed. The camp will be known as Camp Smith. The drills will be very interesting and all who can do so should avail themselves of the opportunity of visiting Queenstown during the encampment.

The order of daily routine will be as follows:

Reveile—First call, 4.55, 5.00; assembly, 5.05 A. M.

Sick call, 5,15; breakfast call, 6.00; police call, 7 A. M.

Battalion drill—Drill call, 7; assembly, 7.05; recall, 8.15 A. M.

Guard mounting—First call, 8.50; assembly of details, 7.56; adjutant's call, 9 A. M.

Evolutions of the regiment—Drill call, 10; assembly, 10.05; adjutant's call, 10.10; recall, 11.30 A. M.

Dinner call, 12 noon; first sergant's call, 1; supper call, 6 P. M.

Regimental parade—First call, 7; assembly, 7.05; adjutant's call, 7.10 P. M.

Tattoo, 10; call to quarters, 10.45; taps, 11 P. M.

Said calls will first be sounded from brigade headquarters and will be successfully repeated by the musicians of the guards throughout the camp from right to left.

On Sunday, July 14th, the order of duty will be modified as falls:

Inspection—First call, 8; assembly, 8.10; adjutant's call, 8.15 A. M.; regimental parade, 7 P. M.

Church call at such hours may be directed by each regimental commander.

Visitors will be allowed in camp from 7 to 11.30 A. M., 1 to 5 P. M., and from 7 to 10 P. M. This does not apply to officers' guests. The camp however, must be cleared of all visitors by 10 P. M.

Wednesday, July 17, will be the big day at the encampment. On that day Governor Smith and staff will review the troops. Lieu. General E. A. Miles and Adjutant General Crobin, of the United States Army have been invited to be present on that day and take part in the review. General Miles visited the Frederick encampment in the summer of 1896 and the guardsmen hope to have the pleasure of tendering him a marching salute at the camp here. The day will be officially known as "Governor's Day" in camp. His Excellency's staff will wear their full dress uniforms and they will be mounted during the review. It will be a ceremony well worth witnessing

THERE is a shirt-waist church in Delmar. The Rev. L. A. Bennett, pastor of the M. P. Church of that town, through the columns of The Delmar American "cordially invites the gentlemen to come without coats and the ladies without hats if they wish. Please do not stay home because it is warm."

IT is reported that Col. J. C. Norris, of Easton will give up the Hotel Avon at the end of this year, on account of the exhorbitant rent charged him by the owners of the building. This will be unwelcome news to the traveling men and other guests of the Colonel, who is known far and wide as one of the best hotel men to be found anywhere. Col. Norris has been engaged in the business for many years, being proprietor of the old Brick Hotel until the Avon was built several years ago.

MR. WM. B. TILGHMAN has been experimenting this week on the road bed in front of his dwelling with some crude oil with which he has thoroughly sprinkled the street. The result has been to lay the dust and it is claimed, if much of it were used about the town, we would be free from mosquitoes. The Pennsylvania Railroad has its tracks sprinkled with this oil from Camdem to Atlantic City.

NOVEL SUITS have been instituted in Baltimore against Gilbert Bros., the well known drug firm of Baltimore, aggregating $100,000. One window alleges that the head of the family died from drinking Jamaica ginger prepared and sold by the firm. Other suits are for loss of evesight after drinking small quantities of the extract. One suit is from Albemarle county, Va., for injuries claimed through drinking the ginger which the plaintiff claims he was assured by the defendants contained ethyl or grain alcohol, which he drank in water and became dull from the effects of the methyl or wood alcohol poison it contained. He remained unconscious for 48 hours and nearly lost his eyesight.

Quantities of Jamaica ginger are sold in this county and last summer a case was reported down the shore of a man who nearly lost his life from drinking it. The outcome of these cases will be watched with interest.

Banks Declare Dividends.—At the regular meeting of the directors of the Queen Anne's National Bank of Centreville held Tuesday a semi-annual dividend of 2 per cent. was declared clear of all taxes and a neat sum added to the undivided profits.

At a meeting of the directors of the Centreville National Bank held Wednesday a semi-annual dividend of five per cent was declared and $13,00 carried to undivided profits.

BANK DIVIDENDS.—The Harford National Bank has declared a semi-annual dividend of 5 per cent. and the Second National Bank 2½ per cent. Both dividends are clear of taxes and payable July 1st.

The War is Over.—On a steamboat coming from Sistersville Saturday Richard Paul and James Reed met for the first time since they faced each other in battle, 37 years ago. Reed was a Confederate and Paul was Federal soldier. Paul had always declared Reed tried to kill him in the last battle and that he would not deem the war over till he licked him. He tried it and Reed gave him a terrific drubbing, breaking his nose and blackening both eyes. Paul now says the war is over and has made friends with his old adversary.

Pennsylvania Railroad Reduced Rates to Pan-American Exposition, Account Maryland Day.
