LOCAL NEWS.

The Farmers' Institute for Kent county will be held February 3rd and 4th.

Cigarettes Prove Fatal.—Wm. Smith, aged 16 years, son of John Smith, of Elkton, died Monday from insanity caused by excessive cigarette smoking.

Price of Milk Advances.—On account of the high price of grain and hay, at a recent meeting, the milk dealers of Dover and vicinity have concluded to advance the price of milk to 6 cents per quart commencing Dec. 1.

Death of a Venerable Teacher.—Mr. James Roe, principal of Sudlersville Academy, died of Bright's disease last Sunday morning at 3 o'clock, aged fifty years. He had been a sufferer for years, but never gave up work until last September. Since that time he has been alternately improving then again becoming ill. He has taught successfully in Queen Anne's for eighteen years, and had previously taught a number of years in Delaware.

Will Reside in Kent.—Mr. George H. Snitcher, a well-known and influential farmer of the 7th district, has purchased the Rickey house in Chestertown and will remove there about the first of February. Queen Anne's will lose a valuable citizen and Kent will gain one. Mr. Snitcher stated to The Record that he would like Chestertown much more were it in Queen Anne's instead of Kent county.—Record.

After he has been with us a short time he will change this opinion for next to Heaven there's no place like Chestertown with its many attractions. Just wait until you've been with us a while, Bro. Snitcher, then let the Record hear from you.

A Washington College Boy in Luck.—Homer Smoot, son of a well-known family of the Eastern Shore, living at Galestown, Dorchester county, has recently risen to a conspicuous position in the field of sport. Three years ago he began playing baseball while a student at Washington College and was soon snapped up by some of the minor leagues. In 1900 he joined the Atlantic League, playing centre field for Allentown, and soon after the season opened was sold by that club to the Eastern League club at Worcester, Mass. He proved a great batsman, leading his league in hitting, with an average of 260. He now has received an offer of $325 per month to play next season with the Cleveland American League team, and has several other offers. Smoot is nearly 6 feet tall and weighs 180 pounds. He recently married Miss Geneva Gordy of Galestown. It is said that he has signed with the St. Louis team for 1902.

Real Estate Transfers in Kent Del.—The following transfers of real estate have been recorded at the office of Recorder of Deeds James Lord: To William J. Potts of Philadelphia, 1,640 acres of marsh land in Kent county, from George B. Money of Delaware City, for $50,000, the revenue stamps of the deed amounting to $23.75; to James W. Brown of Mempbis, Tenn., a mortgage transferred from W. J. Potts, amounting to $30,000; to George A Millington and wife the Capitol Hotel property in Dover, from Francis D. H. Janvier and others, for $14,000; to Bertha M. Scarborough, from Carrie M. Cole, et al., the 90-acre farm near Cheswold, for $3,400; to Thomas A. McIlvaine and John B. McIlvaine, is conveyed a dower interest in two farms for $1,000, from Mary J. McIlvaine, widow of McIlroy McIlvaine; to John W. Hall, from Thomas Paradee, lot of land n Lebanon, for $657; to William A. Truitt, lot on North street, Milford, for $350, for S. John Abbott.

In loving remembrance of my dear husband Enoch A. Moffett, and daughter Bessie, who both went to dwell with God one year ago December 6, 1900.

My dear husband and daughter has gone but not forgotten,
Though their face I will see no more,
But I hope when life is over
To meet them on that happy shore.
This time last year they were with us,
Their place is vacant to-day,
No word can tell how I missed them
Since the day they passed away.
They have gone where God has called them,
I will strive to meet them there,
In that bright celestial heaven,
Where parting will be no more. WIFE.

Has a Cinch.—The KENT NEWS says the Queenstown Newsboy has quit serving the Emma A. Ford with papers as he sells out to the Queen Anne's Railroad." The newsboy informs us that the only reason he fails to serve patrons of the Emma A. Ford is, because some mornings the steamer leaves before he can reach her pier. He says he has a cinch when he reaches the Emma, as the people from Chestertown buy freely as it is quite a treat for them to get a Baltimore morning paper about twelve hours before they would home! Queenstown News.

The Baltimore papers reach Chestertown at 11.52, therefore the newsboy is mistaken. He means two hours before.

ACROSS THE BORDER.

Local Notes From Cecilton, Earleville and Warwick.

Miss Eliza Biggs has been staying with Mrs. Mary A. Price.

Miss Mamie Jones attended the Thanksgiving dance given at Still Pond.

Miss Lizzie Logan, of Baltimore, is the guest of Mrs. Rebecca Smith, in town.

Miss Beulah Fillingame, spent Saturday with her cousin, Mrs. Ella Pearce, near town.

Miss Etta Price has returned to her home after a visit of a few weeks with friends nerr Millington.

Mrs. Z. T. Watts was called to the bedside of her father, Mr. Henry Pearce, of Elkton, who is very ill at this writing.

Misses Frances Griffith and Myrtle Templeman, of near town, and Susie Schofield, of Fredericktown, are on a week's visit to relatives in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Deshane are on a short visit to Washington.

Miss Julia Deshane is visiting her cousin, Miss May Deshane.

Misses Julia Deshane and Winifred Price attended the Thanksgiving dance at Still Pond.

Mr. Al Tobias, of Philadelphia, spent Sunday at W. J. Lofland's.

Miss Bessie Merritt spent part of last week with relatives in Cecilton.

We regret very much to report Mr. Staats feeling much worse in health.

The Misses Emma and Ethel Vineyard were entertained at Mrs. U. P. Ginn's, on Thanksgiving.

Miss Lona Finley was called suddenly to Appleton this week to attend the funeral of her uncle.

Mr. Ruley Smith has purchased a piece of ground on Main street from R. B. Merritt and will erect a new house.

Rev. A. A. Bichell will assist the Rev. J. McLain Brown with his extra meetings. All are cordially invited to be present at these meetings. They are both interesting and benefiting.

MEXICO AND CALIFORNIA.

Personally-Conducted Tours via the Pennsylvania Railroad.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company's Personally-Conducted Tour to Mexico and California will leave New York on February 11, visiting St. Louis, San Antonio, Monterey, Tampico, San Luis Potosi, Guanajuato, Iraputo, Guadalajara, Queretaro, City of Mexico, Agnas Calientes, and El Paso.

At El Paso tourists for California only, who will leave New York February 25, will join the party, and the Mexican tourists who do not care to go to the Pacific Coast will return to New York. The California party will visit Los Angeles and the Southern California coast resorts, San Francisco, and, on the return trip, the Grand Canon of the Colorado in Arizona. Tourists will have thirteen days in Mexico and nineteen days on the Pacific Coast, the California tour returning to New York on March 27, the whole tour covering forty-five days. The rate, covering all necessary expenses during the entire trip, will be $575 from points on the Pennsylvania Railroad east of Pittsburg. For Mexico only the rate will be $350, and for California only $375. The party will trave over the entire route in a special train of Pullman drawing room sleeping cars, compartment, dining, smoking, and observation cars. California only tourists will use special cars to El Paso, and Mexico-only passengers will use special cars returning from El Paso. For detailed itineraries and full information address Geo. W. Boyd, Assistant General Passenger Agent, Philadelphia, Pa.
