EXCLUDE the Chinamen, says, President Roosevelt, and yet he is opening the doors of America to a far worse evil when the Poles, Italians and Russians are allowed to enter at liberty. The farmer would find in the Chinaman the solution of the labor question.

THE slander case on trial this week in the Kent County Court is one of the most revolting ever held here. The actions proven there were disgraceful not only to the parties concerned but reflect upon the good name of Millington and upon our fair county. To the credit of the public be it said that but few outside the witnesses and officials attended the trial.

OUR esteemed cotemporary, the Enterprise, is horrified at the idea of the Democrats contesting the seats of the Republicans! He says "for adamantine cheek, brazen effrontory and bold political robbery this action of the Democratic machine certainly takes the cake."

Indeed! And what about the Republicans contesting the seats of Democrats? We suppose this is perfectly proper. What a difference it makes as to whose ox is gored.

This whole matter originated with our friends on the other side and is not only being done here, but at the behest of Boss McComas, is being attempted in many other counties. There is not the slightest ground for contest by the Republicans and it is a pity that their disappointment is so keen as to drive them to it.

Both Sides Contest.

As announced in the NEWS steps were taken this week initiative of contesting the election in Kent county. Notices were served by both parties and the courts will be called upon to decide whether or not there are sufficient grounds to justify a recount. Messrs. Johnson and Nicholson will contest the seats of Messrs. Trew and Kendall in the Legislature; Mr. Brice will contest Mr. Rasin's seat in the commissioner's board; Mr. Davis will contest Sheriff Fletcher's office; Mr. Hill, Treasurer Copper's place; Mr. Stevens will contest Commissioner Ayres' seat.

Mr. John C. Rose, of Baltimore, will undertake to prosecute the case for the Republicans and Messrs. Smith, Hynson, Beck and Wickes for the Democrats.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT sent his first message to Congress Tuesday. It was a conservative paper in many respects touching in a general way the various subjects. He follows closely the policy laid down by McKinley and does not seem to have any desire to branch out in new tracks. In reference to the trusts, one of the menacing evils of the country, he believes that wherever they carry on an inter-State business, they should be subjected to the Federal power of supervision and regulation and that the first essential in determining how to deal with the great industrial combinations in publicity, so that people may have full and accurate information as to their operations and methods. If Congress does not possess the full constitutional power to create such supervision, he suggests the submission of such an amendment to the organic law as will accomplish that end. Incidentally he favors the creation of the proposed new Cabinet Department to be conducted by a Secretary of Commerce.

Wholesale Election Contests.

Over fifty election contests are "on the boards." This means political excitement for months to come. The Republicans will contest Hering's election and the Democrats will do the same for Parring—the former has a plurality in the State of 121, while the latter has 1,339. These two contests will require the whole vote of the State to be recounted by the Legislature.

In the counties notices were served by both Democrats and Republicans in Cecil, Carroll, Caroline, Prince Georges, Kent, Talbot and Somerset. The Republicans in addition will contest Anne Arundel and St. Mary's.

The time in which notices of contest could be filed expired last Wednesday.

THE charge made by the Enterprise against the new deputy treasurer, Mr. Whittier C. Copper, is unjust and without foundation. It is true that he served as deputy under Sheriff Cacy, not because of his politics but on account of his fitness and efficiency. Sheriff Cacy could not get suited in a deputy among the Republicans and had to take a Democrat. He has never wavered in his Democracy and in the support of the Democratic ticket, nor would Treasurer Copper have appointed him if such had not been the case.

OLD KRIS letters will be published next week.

THE oldest inhabitant does not recall a term of court that had to be held in October, November, and December and yet this is the situation in Kent this year. The January term will follow thus making four months in which court has been held here.

ADMIRAL Sampson receives $25,417 prize money for fighting the battle of Santiago when he was dozen miles away while Schley gets about a thousand. Admiral Dewey, who won such a splendid victory on the other side of the world, gets $9,570. The American people are not overjoyed at this contrast.

THE Peninsula Horticultural Society will meet on January 8th, 9th and 10th, 1902 at Berlin, Worcester, County, Md. Full programe for the three days meeting; a large attendance is expected. All fruit growers and agriculturists should be present

SHERIFF WARFIELD was sworn in Tuesday. Among the deputies removed were Messrs. Edw. C. Cooper and Robert M. Groves, of Kent, who served under Sheriff Schwatka.

COL. RICHARD WOOTTON, for many years a prominent figure in Democratic politics of Southern Maryland, died at his home, 1900 West Fayette street, on Tuesday, aged 66.
