Electric Road Wanted In Maryland.

To the Editor of "The Morning News."

Sir: Having read your article in yesterday's paper on "Rich in Suburban Lines" it occurred to me that it would be a good thing for the people of the country, for the railway company and for Wilmington, if a trolley line should not only be extended to Elkton, but further extended down through Chesapeake City, Cecilton, Warwick, Sassafras, Galena, and down through Kent county, Maryland, to Chestertown.

All of these towns are without a railroad, excepting Chestertown. True they are mostly small towns, but the country all the way is fine and the people prosperous. They travel and shop somewhere, generally in Baltimore, because they can reach there by boat.

For the most part the boats do not return the same day, and when they do the stay in Baltimore is so short that it gives little time for shopping. Thus shoppers are oblidged to remain over night, thus losing two days. If they had a trolley line they could run up to Wilmington and return the same day and have plenty of time. My experience is that Wilmington is decidedly preferable to Baltimore for shopping.

Let the trolley lines push out and come down to us and we will show our appreciation by a patronage that will justify the outlay. A. P. Prettyman.

SOME MATTERS FOR THANKSGIVING.

For the spirit of reform manifested in the opening year of the new century. For the recognition of faithful service as evidenced by the Carnegie Co., presenting bonds bearing 5 per cent. interest amounting to nearly a million dollars to twenty one deserving employees. For the steps taken at the Pan-American Congress toward the establishment of an International Condition of Claims to settle all differences between the American Republics in case diplomacy proves insufficient. That the Franco-Turkish war is ended. That Chicago, is to have an American school for patriotism to train for the establishment of non-partizan municipal government. That no Sunday opening was permitted at the Buffalo Exposition and that no Midway will figure at the one to be held at Louisiana. For the effective stand taken by Gen. Miles in interposing an order preventing the expected detail of soldiers to proceed to Bufialo, because of the notorious immoralities that would confront them along the Midway. That the General of our army is a total abstainer and condemns the "canteen" upon the result of his military experience for nearly half a century. That a petition to all civilized nations is being inaugurated for the prohibiting of the sale of opium and intoxicants to civilized races by treaty and law. Eor the advanced ground, taken by the Church of Christ and religious societies in the temperance problem. That in the hour of a nation's calamity it acknowledged its dependence upon the God of its fallen leader and with him shared in the blessedness of drawing "Nearer, My God To Thee."

PRESS SUPT. W. C. T. U.

Delegate James T. Bright Quietly Weds.

The culmination of a happy courtship was the marriage of Mr. James T. Bright and Miss Mamie Snyder, Wednesday afternoon at 1.30 o'clock. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. E. K. Creed, at the M. E. Parsonage in the presence of Mr. H. B. W. Mitchel an intimate friend of the groom.

To say that the marriage was an utter surprise to his many friends is speaking mildly. Not even the parents of the bride knew the plans of the youthful couple until after the ceremony had been performed. The minister had also been enjoined secrecy and when interviewed by a newspaper man would neither confirm or deny the report which had been widely circulated. In conversation with the bride's father, Mr. Chas. Q. Snyder, it was stated that the bride and groom have been invited to make their future home with the bride's parents. The young people had secretly planned all ahead and when offered conveyance for themselves and baggage to the train would not receive the proffered assistance. They left for a northern tour on the 2.45 train of the Pennsylvania railroad.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Q. Snyder, well-known residents of Centreville, and the groom is the youngest son of Mr. James B. Bright, of Kent Island, is a young lawyer of much prominence, as well as a delegate-elect to the House of Delegates. The NEWS extends best wishes to the couple.

A SINNER LOST IN THE WILDERNESS.

A Kansas editor who has contracted the habit of occasionally attending church, has this to say: "Ladies should take off their hats in church. No preacher can inspire a man who is looking into a lop sided aggregation of dead birds, stuffed weasels, chameleon skins, ribbons, beads, jets, sticks, straw flowers, corn tassel and thistle down. It makes a sinner feel lost in the wilderness." There is a heap of gospel in the above piece of brilliancy, too.

Mr. A. W. Dennett Fails.—An Associated Press dispatch from San Francisco says: "The temperance restaurant proprietor, A. W. Dennett, who once conducted a chain of restaurants across the continent from New York to San Francisco, has failed for $92,000, with no available assets. He has nominal secured assets of $39,000. Most of his creditors are women and missionary societies."

There are two of the Dennett restaurants in Baltimore—one at 306 East Baltimore street and the other at 308 West Baltimore street—but they are now conducted by the Dennett Surpassing Coffee Company, of which Mr. C. E. Smith, of Philadelphia, is president, and Mr. S. S. Swaim, of New York is general manager.

When Mr. Dennett started the restaurant business in Baltimore he followed the custom begun in New York of requiring all his employes to attend prayers in the morning before they begun their day's work, and this custom is continued. The restaurants are not open Sunday. They have been remarkable for their scriptural texts displayed upon their walls. No intoxicants nor tobacco are sold in them.

To Prevent Potatoes Rotting.—With reference to the potato rotting, Joel Tressler, of near Hublersburg, Pa., says that when there is trouble of potatoes rotting they should be lime cured. His method of doing this is when the potatoes are put in the cellar to take slaked lime and scatter it over the potatoes until they are white with a thin coating of the lime. The action of the lime has the effect of absorbing the moisture of the tuber and stops the heating or fermenting that so often causes the rot. In many cases where potatoes had small spots on the lime stopped the process of the decay. This is a remedy easily applied and one that will cost very little. It will not injure the potato, in fact he claims that it improves the taste.

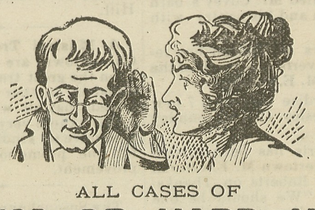
ARE YOU DEAF? ANY HEAD NOISES?



ALL CASES OF

DEAFNESS OR HARD HEARING ARE NOW CURABLE

by our new invention. Only those born deaf are incurable.

HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.

F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS:

BALTIMORE, Md., March 30, 1901.

Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion.

About five years ago my right ear began to sing, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely.

I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever.

I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain Very truly yours, F. A. WERMAN, 730 S. Broadway, Baltimore, Md.

Our treatment does not interfere with your usual occupation.

Examination and advice free. YOU CAN CURE YOURSELF AT HOME at a nominal cost.

Middletown Shooting Match. — A good-sized crowd attended the shooting match at Middletown Friday. It was announced that the shoot was only open to gunners of the state, but this rule was extended to allow any marksmen on the Peninsula to enter. The result of this was that Seward of Sudlersville won the first prize for the Merchandise shoot, a dress suit case. Bauker, also of Sudlersville, Md., won second prize, and John Graham, of Wilmington, won third prize. The match between John Graham and Dr. Barnard of Middletown for the championship of the state did not take place, as Dr. Barnard was ill and unable to leave his home.
