WEDDING BELLS

Ring Merrily at this Festive Season---Well-Known Couples Plight their Troth.

A brilliant wedding took place December 18th in the Marydel Church, the parties being Miss Sara Virginia Heather, niece of Mr. Wm. H. Whiteley, of Kennedyville, and Mr. Charles Wm. Jacobs, of Philadelphia. The bride was attired in a gown of white and black satin foulard with trimmings of pink panne velvet, and wore a large white velvet Gainsborough hat with black plumes; in her hand she carried white roses and ferns. Then came the bride, who wore a simple gown of Persian swiss, whose beauty was marked by its simplicity, having no trimmings but its fluffy plaitings and wide Louisine sash. The veil, which was of the finest tulle, fell in graceful folds to the depths of her snowy gown, being caught in her hair with tiny rosebuds; her bouquet consisted of bride roses. Miss Heather wag given away by her brother, Mr. T. Howard Heather, of Philadelphia. Mr. Jacobs and his bride left on the afternoon train for a six months tour to Florida and the Sunny South.

Mr. Harry P. Roseberry, of Raton, New Mexico, was married on November 22nd to Miss Kathryn Amelie Dunn, of Gaston, New Mexico. The bride's family being of French and Spanish descent, the beautiful home wedding was conducted in the old French style. The wedding ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Oberio, Las Vergas, N. M. The banquet, served by Mexican and colored servants was like the time of sumptuous southern hospitality before the war. Among many valuable presents, the bride received a chest of carved Mexican workmanship containing one hundred and eight pieces of solid silver, made from the pure Rocky mountain ore. Mr. H. P. Roseberry is a native of this, Kent county, Md., and the son of Dr. Benjamin S. Roseberry, of Victor, Colorado.

Thursday at noon, Mt. Oliver M. P. Church, Warwick, Md., was the scene of a pretty wedding, the contracting parties being Miss Susan Gambel Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Wilson, and Mr. Harry Layfield Wilson, of Elk Neck, Md. The Rev. J. McLain Brown, pastor of the church, officiated. The bride was given away by her father. Mr. William Rutter, of Elk Neck, was best man, while Messrs. Walter Wilson, of Elk Neck, brother of the bride, and Daniel E. Wilson, of Wilmington, brother of groom, acted as ushers. The bride was gowned in blue cloth trimmed with steel satin, coat and hat to match. The church was nicely trimmed with evergreens, and the scene was a very pretty one, a large crowd being present. The young couple will make a short wedding trip.

W. C. T. U.

A County Executive Meeting was held in Chestertown on Tuesday, Dec. 10th. Convention notes and a report from the late State Executive were given by Mrs. Emma Shafer. The payment of dues and assessments early in the year is urged that the State work may be conducted upon a cash basis so as not to encroach upon the time of convention to adjust accounts. Also that parlor banquets be employed to enlarge the work, it having been due to them that the banner state won its laurels for the largest increase in membership. The County President, Mrs. L. M. Corey proposes to award a banner to the Union in Kent securing the same during the present year. Petition work with plans for the same will be made special work for the Unions at an early date. The question of holding an Institute in connection with the annual convention or at some other time was referred to the Unions, noping for reports of the same. Any information desired can be gained from the president or vice-president, Mrs. Emma Shafer.

A greater interest in the work was reported especially at Millington. Fairlee and Chestertown reported having recently sent donations of money and provisions to the Free Kindergarden in Balto. This branch of Missionary work would no doubt receive aid from those interested in the cause outside the W. C. T. U., were the results and needs better understood.

The committee on work in the public schools, Mrs. M. B. Simmons, gave an encouraging report and her resignation by reason of removing from the county, which was accepted with many regrets. Effort to have the annual World's Temperance Sun in November observed in the churches was reported attended with good results and another year better are assured through the combined efforts of the Unions and Zealous Sup't. of Sunday School work, Mrs. C. V. Skirven.

Looking to Christ and His Church this earnest band adjourned to enter upon another year in His Service.
