NEWSY ITEMS OF EVERY DAY LIFE

Canned Goods Selling at High Prices—Shipping Pears—Stock Farm Abandoned on Account of Mosquitoes—Call to Popular Pastors, &c.

Mr. Rich'd DeLacey, of near Queenstown, Queen Anne's county, has been appointed assistant keeper of Seven-Foot Knoll Light, vice Mr. Charles Greggs resigned. Mr. DeLacey is a bachelor and well qualified for the duties.

A stock farm at Trembley, N. J., occupying 105 acres, has been abandoned because the mosquitoes so harassed the cattle that they ceased to give good milk and many of them died. It is at Trembley that the largest brand of the insect is to be found.

William Dewitt, son of William F. Dewitt, who resides in the northern part of Dover while seeking cough medicine got hold of a bottle of iodine, and before discovering his mistake had swallowed sufficient of the fiery liquid to cause death. Prompt restoratives saved his life.

Likes, Berwanger & Co., the well-known clothiers, of Baltimore, by an advertisement in this issue announce the opening of their fall stock of clothing. Mr. Frank A. Roeder, who is well known in this section, will be pleased to have his many friends call and inspect their many values.

The Jewish New Year will begin at sunset on October 1. It is followed ten days later by the Day of Atonement, the most important event in the Jewish church calendar. New Year's Day is distinguished from other festivals by the blowing of the ram's horn during the services, while the Day of Atonement is an occasion for fasting and prayer.

A. N. Brown, of Wyoming, Del., is now making semi-weekly shipments of Keiffer pears to Europe. The first consignment left New York last Saturday afternoon. The pears are all carefully selected and packed in what are known as the California 40 pound pear boxes. Mr. Brown expects to ship them in car load lots as the season advances and the fruit becomes more matured.

Little Ben Magee, the bright young son of Arley B. Magee, Esq., of Dover, Del., while foraging about the kitchen got hold of a bottle of kerosene, and thinking it some new fangled sort of jelly, as it was preserving time, he quaffed a goodly supply of the liquid. He was of course made very ill and Dr. Anderson was summoned. The administration of emetics relieved him.

Mr. M. B. Slemmer met with a very painful accident while at the Gentlemen's Driving Park, Baltimore, last Tuesday, by being severely bitten on the left hand by the famous pacing champion, Bedworth, Jr. Mr. Slemmer, accompanied by Mr. David Lee and Mr. Edward B. Emory, of New York, were admiring the horse when he grabbed Mr. Slemmer by the hand and jerked him into the stall, cutting and mashing his hand and severely wrenching his arm.

Quite a commotion was stirred up in the Harrington M. E. Church at a recent service when the pastor, the Rev. E. C. Atkins, who had begun his sermon, stopped, and while pointing his hand at the door, said: "There is a house on fire over yonder." Men jumped from the church pews and stealthily hastened out of doors, while several women were on the verge of fainting, when Mr. Atkins went quietly on with his sermon. It was merely a quotation from the Bible that had caused the alarm.

Rev. R. K. Stephenson, pastor of the Elkton Methodist Episcopal Church, has received a call from the official board of Scott Methodist Episcopal Church at Wilmington, Del., to become their pastor, to succeed Rev. Walter E. Avery, who died several months ago. Mr. Stephenson is holding the invitation under consideration for several days. The official board of the Elkton Church has invited Mr. Stephenson to return for another conference year. The salary of the Wilmington church is $1,200 per year—$200 more than what is paid by the church here.

Since writing the above Rev. Mr. Stephenson has accepted the call.

During the last two weeks the price of three pound standard tomatoes have advanced from 85c to $1 a dozen, and gallon cans from $2.75 to $3.50 a dozen. The recent cold weather has retarded the maturing of the tomato. Consequently, the arrival of tomatoes suitable for packing purposes has been somewhat restricted. The frost in Maine and New York has resulted in the packers of those sections falling short in corn contracts 60 to 70 per cent. This has caused a big demand for Maryland packed corn and resulted in an advance of 10 cents a dozen within the past two weeks. Standard grades of corn are quoted at from 55 to 60 cents a dozen, and extra fancy from 80 to 90 cents a dozen. The peach packing period is now about over, and as there has not been more than 30 per cent. of the usual pack, the market is very firm. There has been a good demand for peaches and values recently have advanced from 5 to 10 cents a dozen, and will probably go much higher.
