A Wonderful Exhibit of Fac-Similes of

The Crowns of the Rulers of the World

A spectacle of regal pomp and splendor. A mass of gleaming gold and scintillating jewels. This exhibit, which has been prepared at an expense of nearly thirty thousand dollars, for the St. Louis Exposition next year, has been brought to Baltimore to give all an opportunity to view that wonderful symbol of monarchial and imperialistic majesty and political power—the Crown.

Each crown is full size and an exact counterpart of the original as to color of metal, size, cutting, color, brilliancy and setting of its priceless jewels.

The Crown and Orb of Great Britain — the Crowns of Napoleon and Josephine, that of the King of far-off Siam, of Germany, of Denmark, of Portugal, of Spain, of Norway and Sweden, of Russia and other countries are included in this magnificent and by far the most unique and attractive complimentary historical art exhibit ever attempted in the South.

The Iron Crown of Lombardy and the Laurel Wreath that distinguished Nero are faithfully reproduced; so is the triple Crown and Sceptre of His Holiness Pope Leo XIII. All in all, it is a gorgeous exhibit, and one that is of a highly educative value.

A cordial invitation is freely extended to every man, woman and child within reach of Baltimore to come and study the display as frequently as they desire. The exhibit is on the third floor near the new picture gallery. No admission is charged

NOVEMBER WEDDING CHIMES.

LOCKWOOD—SHRIVER.

Wednesday afternoon, at four o'clock, the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth W. Lockwood, near Warwick, Md., was the scene of a quiet, pretty wedding, the contracting parties being Miss Agnes Irene Lockwood and Mr. Walter H. Shriver. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. J. Wilkie, rector of St. Anne's Church, Middletown. The bride was attired in a pretty brown traveling costume, and after a bountiful, pleasant wedding supper and after receiving congratulations, Mr. and Mrs. Shriver were driven to their future home, near McDonough, Del., where Mr. Shriver is a prosperous young farmer.

The KENT NEWS extends congratulations to the young couple, and wishes them many years of married life.

The marriage of Miss Gertrude B. Rasin, daughter of Mr. I. Freeman Rasin, to Mr. William Tyler Gatchell, whose engagement was announced some weeks ago, took place Wednesday, Nov. 26, at noon. The ceremony was performed at the residence of the bride's father, 1039 North Calvert street, by Rev. Francis Brady, of Loyola College.

The bride wore a gown of white broadcloth, with picture hat to correspond, and carried a cluster of lilies of the valley. There were no attendants and only the members of the two famlies were present. A wedding breakfast followed the ceremony, after which Mr. and Mrs Gatchell will leave for the North. They will reside at the Westover, Park avenue and Eager street.

PARVIS—HARLEY.

Mr. Joseph M. Parvis, the well-known clerk to the Commissioners and Treasurer of Queen Anne's and Miss Mazie Harley, daughter of Mrs. Barbara R. Harley, and one of the most popular and attractive ladies of Centreville, were married Thursday morning at 8 o'clock at St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church, Centreville, by Rev. Jas. A. Mitchell.

As the bridal march from "Lohengrin" sounded the ushers, Messrs. J. F. Harper, J. Louis Evans, James Groome Knight and Charles E. Tucker, proceeded to the chancel, followed by the bride's attendant, Miss Margaret Spencer Corkran, who preceded the bride-elect leaning upon the arm of her uncle, Mr. Charles F. Harley, of the Baltimore bar. At the chancel steps they were met by the groom elect attended by his best man, Mr. Clayton Wright, where the betrothal service was performed while "call me thine own" was being softly rendered by the organist, Prof. W. W. Derr, of Baltimore. The ceremony was completed at the altar rail after which the recessional march from Mendelsshon was rendered and the bride and groom marched from the church to the carriages in waiting to take them to the Queen Anne's Railroad train, which they boarded at "Pearlee," in order to avoid the crowd at Centreville station.

The church was beautifully decorated with chrysanthemums and potted plants. The gentleman were attired in black cutaway coats and vests, light trousers and gray gloves and wore boutonnieres of white carnations. The bride's attendant, Miss Margaret Spencer Corkran, the ten-year-old daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Corkran, was gowned in white Paris muslin, trimmed in lade medallions and pink ribbons, and carried a hat filled with pink carnations and asparagus fern. The bride was beautifully attired in a blue cheviot, Louis XV coat. Her hat was of blue and green velvet, and she carried Meteor roses. The out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. John E. George, Sudlersville; Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Harley, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Whettle, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. O'Neil, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Norris, Mr. Casper Norris, Miss Anna Straughn, of Ingleside; Mr, and Mrs. Preston Parvis, of Henderson; Miss Caddie Sharp, of Harrington, Del.
