THE COUNTY W. C. T. U., consisting of the Presidents of the Unions, the Superintendents of Departments and all the County Officers are requested to meet at the home of Mrs. A. E. Vannort for a full executive session promptly at 2 o'clock on Tuesday, March 24. Call of County President.

THE NEW DRAW ACCEPTED.

At a joint meeting of the county commissioners of Kent and Queen Anne's counties held Saturday morning at 11 o'clock, at the Chester river bridge, the new draw was approved of and accepted. In addition they jointly purchased the scow which had been used as a ferry boat while the draw was being built. The price given was $25.00. The contract price for the draw was $7465, from which $185 was deducted to reimburse the commissioners for expenses caused by delay in completing the draw. The commissioners have decided to place a timber 4x4 in. down the centre of the bridge to keep travel more evenly divided and therefore prevent the boards from being worn in centre.

FOX IN THE KITCHEN!

Huntsmen in Kent Find Plenty of Foxes and Enjoy Find Sport on Wednesday.

A party of huntsmen on Wednesday enjoyed one of the most delightful day's sport of the century. The party comprised Messrs. George and Johnny Brice, Robert Wickes, Walter B. Strong, Chas. Brown, Frank Crow, J. B. Hossinger, Harry Nichols, John Moffett, Carson Greenwood, Walter Gale, Samuel Maslin, Murray Smyth, Joseph Watson, Elmer Porter, Hiram M. Brown, Benjamin Williams, Robt Ford, Howard Bowers, Earle Nicholson, Frank Shinn, Eugene Gooding, Harry Nichols, Jr., Warren Hurlock, Mrs. Wm. Bonwill, Mrs. J. B. Hossinger and others. The day started out with a chase after a fox that had been caught by Mr. John Moffett on Churn Creek and turned loose on Goose Hill.

For ten minutes the fine pack of hounds were in sight of the fox and for sometime old Reynard was compelled to dodge the dogs. Finally the dogs got so close on the fox that he rushed through the open door of Bill Boyer's home, on Goose Hill and took refuge under the bed! Billy was standing at the door watching the sport and was so frightened at the rush of the fox that he jumped outside and quickly closed the door, but old Reynard got inside! Jerry says that fox was to quick for him. Aunt Sarah was inside at work when the fox bounded in and was very much scared until Mr. George Brice entered and took the fox away.

The hunters then went over on Mr. Wm. B. Wilmer's farm and espied a fox crossing his field and soon earthed him in "Terrapin Hollow" on Wallis' farm. Within ten minutes two other foxes were jumped and each one was earthed on Mrs. Bryan's farm. The last fox was run at sight haying been discovered laying out in an open field and every minute it was thought he would be caught by one of the dogs as he had to dodge them at almost every turn, but finally succeeded in making his escape. It was certainly a series of remarkable runs.

Found his Boy.—The friends of Mr. John T. Bradley, of Crumpton, will be pleased to know that he has succeeded in locating his son, Lloyd, from whom he had not heard for several years. Several weeks since the NEWS contained a lengthy account of Mr. Bradley's search for his son by means of the press. Mr. Lloyd Bradley is a travelling salesman for a large house in Mississippi. He states to his father that he will come east some time in May and that both himself and wife are enjoying excellent health and are prosperous.

Hurt While Gunning.—Master Benjamin Gibbs, the 13-year-old son of Mr. Isaac Gibbs, of Massey, was taken to Baltimore for medical attention in consequence of a peculiar accident which occurred while hunting near Middletown, last Saturday with an elder brother. His brother was walking ahead with a double-barreled breech-loading rifle, which went off in his hands. The weapon recoiled and struck the younger boy on the forehead with such force that the frontal bone was fractured. Dr. J. T. M. Finney operated on the boy the same day, removing the fractured piece of bone. The patient is making good headway.

Tobe Caught.—Deputy Sheriff Startt succeeded in arresting Tobe Joiner on Thursday and he was to have had a hearing last night before Justice France. He was charged with brutally beating his wife at his home on Cannon street and when arrested admitted he had struck his wife but that he was intoxicated. He has been visiting in Wilmington and elsewhere for a week or more but decided to return and the officer arrested him soon after he arrived here.

A DELEGATION from Galena was in Chestertown Tuesday and appeared before the county commissioners portesting against the payment of any money for work on Fink's dam, near Galena. It seems that Supervisor Boyd and Mr. Finks disagreed as to the manner of doing the work on the dam and road to the latter's mill, when Mr. Finks exclaimed that the road was private and that Mr. Boyd had no business to work there. This was a bomb in the camp of the tax-payers, and a moyement was at once started to have the county cease work there, where about $200 had been expended for private use. Commissioner Atwell said he would guarantee that no more work would be permitted on private property where he knew it to be such.

Mr. George S. Sartin, of Philadelphia, the genial manager of the Fidelity Mutual Life Insurance Co., is in town at Pippin's Hotel.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NOTES.

Mr. Daniel Loller, a well-known resident of Worton, went to Baltimore this week to consult a specialist as regards a cancer on his lips caused by nicotine poison from smoking.

Mr. J. King Wright, of Hagerstown, spent several days in town this week.

Miss Julia Taylor and Mrs. Camerson, of Baltimore, are guests at the home of Mr. C. H. Jefferson in Rich Neck.

Misses Hallie Connelly and Olive Beauchamp left Friday for the South, where they have accepted positions as milliners. The former will be stationed at Newburn, N. C., and the latter at Keyser, West Virginia.

Mrs. John Moffett, of near Worton, has just returned home after spending a few weeks with her sisters in Baltimore and Washington.

Mrs. C. S. Hurlock continues quite sick at her home near Massey.

Mrs. T. Waters Russell is very much improved as is also Mrs. Walter Morris.

Mr. Wm. Morris was able to drive out into the country this week.

Miss Kate Wheatley, who will have charge of the millinery department in Sparks & Jefferson's big store, has been in the city this week selecting Spring goods.

Mr. Fred Estes, manager of one of Fowler's grocery stores in Philadelphia, arrived in Chestertown on Monday on a visit to friends and returned to Philadelphia Wednesday. He reports the Chestertown colony as doing well.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lambert will celebrate the 50th anniversary of their marriage at their home on Queen street Tuesday evening, March 24th, by having a family reunion.

W. F. Gale, who has been farming on the Legg farm has sold his stock of implements to Mr. Robt. F. Jewell. Mr. Gale will accept employment in the bakery of Mr. Geo. T. Sewell at Rock Hall.

Prof. T. Howard Fowler, of the Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, spent a few days at his home in Chestertown this week.

Mr. Reginald Beauchamp, the expert druggist now with the Stam Drug Co., will leave town in a short time and expects to make his headquarters at Lewis, Del., or Cape May.

Mr. Harry Ivens has secured employment in Philadelphia.

Mr. Estobano Humet, of Cuba, aged about 38, has entered Washington College as a student.

Miss Elsie Fallowfield, of Baltimore, spent Sunday with her sister on Kent avenue.

Mrs. William Melvin, nee Miss Minnie Peregoy, of Cumberland, is the guest of her parents on Mill street. Rev. Mr. M. is proving a success in the Queen city and his wife is entitled to a great part of the credit. The marriage fees amount to more than the salary.

Mr. Lewin Startt and daughter, Mrs. Thomas Virden, of Wilmington, Del., is visiting his brother and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Startt, on High street Chestertown for a few days.

Miss Mae Hurlock, who left Chestertown to go to Monticello, Georgia, learned that one of the employes of the store in which she was engaged had the small-pox. She remainded in Atlanta several days to await developments and arrived at Monticello on Saturday.

Mr. Frank H. Ruth, one of Galena's well-known merchants, was in town Tuesday for the first time in three years! He was looking so sanctimonious, trim and neat that one of our attorneys took him for a preacher.

Mrs. G. R. Ellis, of Kenton, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Matthews, near town.

Mr. Thomas V. Simpson, of Chestertown has received temporary employment in Baltimore with his brother, but will not remove his family from Chestertown.

Mrs. Ovid C. Prettyman is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Downey, at Rock Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Leary and Mrs. G. E. Leary, of Rock Hall, spent Saturday and Sunday in New York.

Mr. John Bevans has returned from an extended visit to friends in Philadelphia.

Mr. Sterling Jones was attacked with congestion of the brain while at dinner last Friday and was quite sick for a few days, but is now able to be out.

A most enjoyable social was held on Wednesday evening at the home of the Misses Hendrickson, near Chestertown. Vasious games were indulged in and refreshments served to the company. Among those in attendance were: Mr and Mrs. Victor Hendrickson, Mr. and Mrs. Romie Byron, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur H. Morris, Misses Grace and Reba Stewart, Baltimore; Carrie and Nannie Ford, Helen Wilkins, Veyia and Pearl Hendrickson, Clara Biddle, Sadie Morris, Miss Hoover, Messrs. Henry Brown, Harry Barnett, Elwood Morris, George Hendrickson, Lewin Skirven, Elwood Burgess, William Knight, Lewin Ford, Harry Jefferson, Wm. Bell and James Steven.

Ex-Justice Bartus J. Wilkins is in Baltimore suffering with dropsy.

Mrs. Bramble, mother of Messrs. Walter, George and Will Bramble, was stricken with paralysis at her home on Cross street Sunday.

Miss Mamie Davis, of Hanesville has been visiting her sister in Still Pond and attended the box social at D. C. Crew's and surprise at Miss Emma Meeks.

Mr. J. Frank Harris son of the late John B. Harris has resigned his position as superintendent of the Home Life Insurance Co., at Middletown, Del., to accept one with the Metropolitan Insurance Co., under the Chestertown office. Mr. Harris has had several years experience in all branches of insurance work. We wish him success in his new field.

Miss Edith Smith, of near Church Hill, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. B. C. Smith near Chestertown.

Mr. John W. Startt, agent for R. G. Chase & Co., is taking orders for Fall planting. Mr. Startt is peculiarly fortunate in having at least five horses offered him to drive because of his skill in handling young drivers and which enables him to cover a wide section in selling nursery stock.

Mr. Hugh Wallis and wife, of Washington, D. C., were guests of Justice Melvin and wife this week. Mr. Wallis is conducting a restaurant at 617 and 619 12th st. N. W., and is making a grand success. He has over twenty tables and his laundry costs 30 cents per hundred pieces, the daily wash amounting several hundred pieces.

Mrs. Brown, nee Fulong, and Miss Fulong, of Camden, N. J., are guests at "Riverside," the home of Mr. Wright.

The Rev. Father Scullin, of San Juan, P. R. has just returned, after a pleasant visit to his uncle, Mr. John McKee, of Morgnec, in company with Father McGinnis, of Philadelphia.

Miss Rose Scullin, of Philadelphia, is the guest of her cousin, Miss Mary McKee.

DEATHS OF A WEEK.

The Sad Demise of Mrs. Chas. G. Nickerson, near Kennedyville, last Friday.

Mrs. Charles G. Nickerson died last Friday at her home on the Jacob Sutton farm, near Kennedyville, after a short illness of that malignant disease diphtheria. The deceased is said to have contracted the disease from a visit to the late Mrs. Ryland, of Crumpton, and soon after being taken the doctor realized he had a bad case. She leaves a husband and two small boys. The funeral was held Saturday morning and was private, interment being in M. P. Cemetery at Kennedyville, Undertaker Krusen in charge. The bereaved husband and family have the sympathy of a host of friends.

John L. Spry, one of the best-known men in Queen Anne's and for several years a county commissioner, died suddenly Sunday night.

A number of neighbors called and spent several hours in social converse with him at night, leaving about 10 o'clock. He retired shortly after, and an hour later he was found dead. Death is supposed to have been from heart failure.

Mr. Spry resided on his farm in the Seventh district of the county. He was about 68 years of age and leaves a widow and several children.

●

William S., infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Hurd, died on Tuesday. Funeral services were held on Thursday morning. Interment in St. Paul's cemetery. W. H. Krusen, undertaker. Rev. Mr. Roe officiated at the grave.

●

Miss Eloise Purnell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar M. Purnell, of Snow Hill, died Tuesday night of appendicitis and peritonitis. Miss Purnell was just 18 years old, and graduated from the Snow Hill High School last June. She was well-known in Kent and has been the guest of Hope H. Barroll, Esq., and wife. She was present with her father, who is a Washington College Alumni, at the commencement exercises of the college last year and made many friends here.

●

John Lea, a highly respected colored man, died at the home of Mr. Samuel Cooper, Worton, from the infirmities of old age, Tuesday, aged 91 years. As was always his request no colored person attended his funeral. Prayers were said at the house on Wednesday afternoon by Rev. Mr. Denroche and he was carried to his last home in the Fountain Church yard near Lynch's by six gentlemen of Worton, who were sons of his former masters. Undertaker W. H. Krusen had charge of the burial.

SALE OF WESTERN HORSES.

The public sale of Wyoming horses by C. E. Donovan drew a large crowd to Chestertown Tuesday and Auctioneer Hurlock got good prices for them. They were all halter broke and most of them were mares. An expert lassoer handled the young horses in fine shape and they were without question the best lot of young horses that have been sold here from the west. The purchasers were as follows:

L. A. Hickman	$ 46 00
Alex Hall	50 50
