LOCAL NEWS

DAILY BOAT—The Emma A. Ford, of the Chester River line will begin daily trips from Chestertown to Baltimore next Monday, June 1. Leave Chestertown 7 A. M. and Baltimore 3 P. M. except Saturday, on which day she will leave at 2.15 P. M.

A Fine Outfit.—Messrs. Wm. T. Nicholson and Harry C. Willis have purchased an elegant engine and thresher and will be ready for the coming season. The outfit arrived Monday.

Accidents.—Mr. George Thomas Williams, of Worton Station, was thrown from his wagon on Saturday near constable Dwyer's home and sprained his limb. Dr. Maxwell dressed his bruises.

Mr. Charles Waddell while passing through the Park in Chestertown on Tuesday was bitten in the thigh by Mr. James Brice's dog. The dog was not mad. Druggist Toulson attended to the wound.

Mr. Elihu Rowley, of Pocomoke city, while employed at Crane, Hynson & Valliant's basket factory, fell down stairs Thursday night and is suffering with concussion of the brain. He is at the Loud House and has Dr. H. G. Simpers in attendance.

An Awful Death.—A two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Irving, of Barclay, suffered an awful death Saturday afternoon. During its mother's absence the little fellow got hold of a bottle of carbolic acid and drank it. Its screams alarmed the mother, who ran to its assistance and summoned Dr. Graham. The accident occured at noon, but death did not relieve the fearful agony of the child until nearly 6 o'clock. Mrs. Melvin is a daughter of Mr. M. S. Ford, of Galena.

Has Killed 32 Foxes.—Mr. Harry Legg, on Mr. H. L. Boyd's Broad Neck farm has been very unfortunate from the ravages of foxes during the past two years. On last Sunday in broad daylight a fox came up near the house and killed twenty fine young turkeys of Mrs. Legg's and would have killed more if he had not been discovered in time to drive him off. During the two years Mrs. Legg has lost over $200 worth of poultry from foxes. In this time Mr. Legg has killed thirty-two foxes and still there are more about the place.

Curiosities.—A curiosity was sent to the NEWS office this week by Mr. C. W. Crew, of Worton. It was a perfectly formed four-legged chicken and was worthy to be placed with Barnum's freaks. Another freak of nature in the way of a potato was left with us by Mr. Walter Elburn, of Piney Neck. This potato consisted of several new potatoes breaking out from an old one and was surely a novelty.

The Parson Slept.—Rev. Dr. D. L. Greenfield, the pastor of Christ M. P. Church, caused some uneasiness to his congregation Sunday evening by his absence from church at the opening service, but when the cause was learned the uneasiness turned to smiles. It seems that he had been feeling unwell all day, but about 6 o'clock was taken worse, lay down on the bed and was soon asleep. When he awoke the time was 8.15! He hurried to the church, where he found his congregation waiting. It happened that Dr. Elderdice was present and had opened the service, so that "all was well that ended well." There are few men who are more prompt than the pastors of our churches, and this incident was indeed rare and therefore is noted. However, in Dr. G.'s case, his excuse was a good one.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

A very enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hurlock near Kennedyville on Friday evening last in honor of the sixteenth birthday of their daughter, Miss Mae. As early as seven o'clock the guests began to arrive. The evening was spent in playing various games. Mr. Fogwell also rendered some very fine music on the autoharp. About eleven o'clock the guests were invited to the dining room where refreshments were served in abundance. In the "we sma' hours of morning" the guests began to take their departure wishing their hostess many more happy birthdays. Those present were Mr. James Archibald and wife, Mrs. Rachel Hill, Mr. Eli Hasting, Miss Lizzie Jones, Marguerite Kennedy, Clara Rawley, Ada Hurlock, Flora Johnston, Mae Hurlock, Grace Sylvester, Hettie Jarrell, Beulah Archibald, Mary Archibald, Kennedyville; Isabelle Vandyke, Locust Grove; Lola Hubbard, Cambridge; Zilla Clayton, Smithville; Annie Keffler, Marguerite Archibald, Crumpton; Messrs. Harry Kennedy, George Jones, Lloyd Kennedy, Robert Jarrell, Thurman Rawley, Earl Nicholson, Wm. Fogwell, Willie Archibald, Lindon Archibald, Harry Hill, Kennedyville; Walter Hill, Ralph Vandyke, Hill Beaston, Hughe Hill, Locust Grove.

The hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Stevens, near Blackston's, Del., was very much shaken up by a party of young folks on Saturday evening, the 23d instant, among them being several professional and amateur musicians. The piano was under the skillful playing of Miss Murray, of Philadelphia, and a Miss Waddell, a prominent instructor of both music and the English branches. Miss Mitchell, of Philadelphia, sang several fine selections and also exhibited some skill in playing the violin. Miss Atwell also entertained with both vocal and instrumental music. Ice-cream and cake were served, and some time was spent in social chat until near the midnight hour, when farewells were given, with many wishes for the good health and prosperity of all and with many kind thanks to our hostess for their hospitality.
