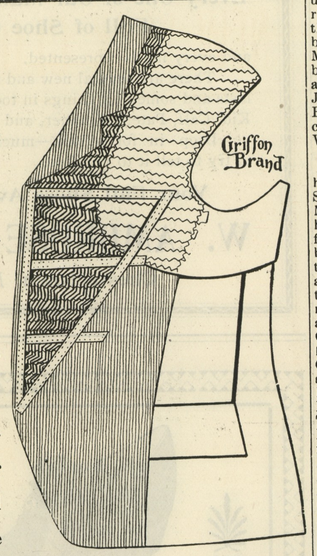
PERFECTION!

of fit and permanency of shape are leading features of the SUITS and OVERCOATS which we have provided for the Fall and Winter Seasons.

Men's Suits



The garments were designed in various styles, trimmed in faultless taste aud brought to the pinnacle of perfection by the best tailoring talent in the country, equal in all the essentials of high class tailoring to the best made-to-order apparel—about one-half as much as custom tailors charge.

Here is an extact representation of the inside of our coats. This line of suits and overcoats we allude to—have quite a range—both in pat-terns and prices and you will find upon examination that the custom tailor can't do any more for you except in price and he'll DO about half more—there.

OVERCOATS

We have the widest range of overcoats ever displayed in Chestertown, and the prices pinned on them will no doubt meet the approval of men who know a good thing when they see it.

Children's Clothing

in abundance. Suits and overcoats in all the leading shapes and patterns, and this department is progressing along very satisfactory lines indeed.

Separate Trousers, Hats, Underwear and all the perquisites in haberdashery.

Moody & Lusby,

DIRECTLY OPPOSITE COURT HOUSE,

DEATH'S DOINGS.

Annie E. Lecates, wife of Jefferson H. Lecates, died on Saturday noon at the Homeopathic Hospital, Wilmington, of tumor, aged 43. The deceased had been a sufferer for many years which she bore with great patience. The operation at first was thought to be successful but proved fatal. The deceased was born in Kent being the daughter of Mr. James Wood. She leaves a husband. Funeral services were held Wednesday at Union M. E. Church, Rev. R. H. Adams, of Wilmington, officiating; Undertaker, W. H. Krusen.

Mr. Samuel Mallalieu, of Millington, died suddenly last Wednesday night. Mr. Mallalieu's granddaughter, who makes her home with her grandparents, had several young persons visiting her, and they had all been enjoying themselves in music and games when Mr. Mallalieu said he would retire. He had only left their company a few minutes when they heard a heavy fall, and rushing upstairs, found him lying on the floor in his room speechless, and before a doctor could be called he died. Mr. Mallalieu was 68 years old and was born in Delph, England. He leaves a widow and five children—Mrs Julia Johnson, of Philadelphia; Clifton, of Brooklyn, N. Y; Woodlin, of New York city; George, of Paterson, N. J, and William Mallalieu of Millington.

Mr. Isaac McCurry, Sr., died at his home 2201 Barclay street Baltimore, Saturday morning November the 7th. Mr. McCurry was 73 years of age and had been suffering from lung trouble for about a year. Mr. McCurry was born in Londenderry, Ireland, and came to this county about 1848. He settled at Springfield, Mass, but after a short time came to Baltimore. He was a member of the Lynchburg Artillery and served through the Civil war under Gen "Jeb" Stewart. He is survived by his widow, who was Miss Mary S. Calhoun, of Fredericksburg, Va., two sons, Messrs. Isaac Jr., and John A. McCurry, and four daughters, Mrs. E. E. Rictor, of New York, Mrs. S. W. Trott, Mrs. Arthur E. Grove and Mrs. Robert J. Nicholson, Baltimore. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. F. H. Lewis, pastor of Mt. Royal Avenue M. P. Church, assisted by Rev. A. Norman Ward, of Washington, D. C. Interment was made in Loudon Park Cemetery.

Mrs. Wm. Gleaves, of Church Hill, has been theguest of Mrs. Milton Baker on Mill street.

Miss Aldridge, of Philadelphia, is visiting friends in Chestertown.

Mrs. Mamie Dodd and two daughters will spend the winter with the former's mother, Mrs. Howard, in Still Pond. We will miss them from our midst. Mr. Frank Wheatley and daughter have removed from Mrs. Dodd's to Mr. John L. Hudson's.

Miss L. Zaidee Hulme, of 2201 St. Paul street, formerly of Kent county, left Tuesday for a six-month tour through the West and Northwest. She will be accompanied by aunt, Miss M. C. Hulme, of Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wise left Savannah, Ga., on Tuesday for Chestertown, to visit Mrs. Wise's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Elliott, after spending the summer sn the South.

Mr. Noble P. Ferguson, of Cecil, is the guest of his brother on high street.

Senator-elect Garrett Foxwell, of Kent county, Maryland, was in town Monday guest of Mr. W. M. Lewis, and received the warm congratulations of his friends in the victory won at the election last Tuesday. Mr. Foxwell had a close fight and only defeated James H. Baker, Republican, by 190 votes. Senator-elect Foxwell is a representative farmer and is very popular with his constituents and will represent Kent county, Md., with ability. He has been given the glad hand by his Smyrna friends and he has invited all his young friends to visit him at Annapolis—Smyrna times.
