ROCK HALL LOCALS.

Rev. Warren Burr and Rev. J. L. Eldredice exchanged pulpits on Sunday morning last.

The officials and teachers of the M. E. Sunday school are engaged in plans for the usual Xmas entertainment.

Rev. Mr. Burr preached an interesting Thanksgiving sermon Thursday to a large congregation.

Our harbor presented a lively sight on Sunday morning, two tugs with dredging machines, etc,, came in and drew a large crowd to the shore. Dredges are now at work in the inner harbor and work out to 12 feet of water. Some of our oystermen have secured work on the machines.

The cool snap of last week and the moon's phase caused the slaughter of many hogs. Mr. Jos. Kendall, we hear, had three that weighed 1200 lbs.

One of the latest suggestions as an amendment to the Haman bill, if that bill must be enacted, is to have all the shells pass into control of the State, and be sold to the leaser of the barren bottoms and all unsold shells be spread on depleted bars and such bars closed until a good crop is assured.

We learn that our neighbor, Mr. Jas. Quick, has purchased the Saville farm in Pine Neck and will move there at the end of this year.

Mr. Marion Miller, our agreeable Rock Hall merchant, is busy these days and lookout for him Xmas.

Mrs. C. D. Kelley, Mrs. J. W. Boyer and Mr. Max Alexander are sick.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Culley have a very sick child.

Our oystermen think the outlook very dark for them.

Big Corn Yield.—Mr. Thos. Massey, of Massey, raised 1610 bushels of fine corn on 23 acres of land adjoining the station. This is 70 bushels per acre. The corn was drilled.
