We are glad to learn she is doing as well as could be expected.

We regret very much to learn of the sudden illness of one of the ladies of our town, Mrs. Bryan, who is very ill at the home of Mr. Clendaniel near Kennedyville.

Miss Margaret Jones, of Wilm., is visiting in our midst.

Home Made

Have your cake, muffins, and tea biscuit home-made. They will be fresher, cleaner, more tasty and wholesome.

Royal Baking Powder helps the house wife to produce at home, quickly and economically, fine and tasty cake, the raised hot-biscuit, puddings, the frosted layer-cake, crisp cookies, crullers, crusts and muffins, with which the ready-made food found at the bake-shop or grocery does not compare.

Royal is the greatest of bake-day helps.

Think of All the Shopping to Be Done and Christmas Only a Little Way Off!

It almost takes one's breath away to see the days before Christmas go flying past. It is so easy to put things off, that the Christmas bells will be ringing before we know it. NOW is the time to head off the Christmas worries.

HOCHSCHILD, KOHN & CO.'S is the great answerer of Questions.

THE CHRISTMAS DOLLS AND TOYS

There's a potential Merry Christmas, in this superb Holiday Toy Store, for a great many children. In every feature it is bigger and better than any similar display heretofore attempted.

To begin with, it covers more floor area than before—more than any other single toy store in the city. Then the gathering of Dolls, and everything that dollies could hope, in their innermost sawdust hearts, to possess, and the wonderful collection of Toys, is vastly broader than ever before.

Among the Dolls, the "Babie Elsie" at a dollar, is easily queen. She was so assiduously courted last year, that she was but a memory long before Christmas came around.

This year it's different. She is here in large quantities—Sufficient for almost every demand.

AND THEN THE PRACTICAL THINGS

Every year the Christmas tendency is more and more toward pratical giving—things to wear, things to use.

Our providing, this year, is more than ever along the line of things especially good to give because there's something to them. Think of what husband, wife, father, mother, boys and girls, and friends can be helped most by in the way of a gift, and come here for it.

Our Mail Order Department is equipped to give prompt and accurate service.
The McCall Bazar of Fashions mailed free every month on request.
Samples of Silks, Dress Goods, Wash Fabrics and so on will be cheerfully sent if you will write for them.

OBITUARY.

"O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?" Happy are they, who in the hour of death, can triumphantly express the above sentence. It was the experience of Martha Catherine Gale, who on Saturday evening Nov. 19 exchanged the conflicts of Earth for the rest of Heaven. She was born in South R. H. in 1880, her parents being Capt and Mrs. G. T. Sewell. She was a dutiful and loving daughter, and about six years ago married Mr. William Gale, who survives her. During the pastorate of Rev. J. W. Talley at this place, she was happily converted and united with the M. E. Church and lived a consistent christian life Last winter she contracted pneumonia, which developed into consumption from which she never escaped. The desease which terminated her earthly life, was of such a nature as to occasion indescribable suffering for several months prior to her death, but amid all, she rejoiced greatly in the Lord. Besides her parents and husband, she leaves the following brothers and sister to mourn their loss; Mr. Samuel D. Sewell, of Baltimore, William Sewell and Mrs. William R. Larrimore of this place. They have bidden her fare-well, expecting to meet her in the "morning" "For lo, the morning cometh."

The funeral service over her remains, took place at her late home conducted by Rev. G. S. Conoway, whose scriptural lessons for the occasion were selected from Cor. 2 and 93 Psa the following selections from the church hymnal were beautifully rendered by many of the friends of the deceased who were assembled to pay the last respects to the dead: "I must tell Jesus," "The Haven of rest," "Trust and obey."

The pall bearers were Messrs. S. J. Davis, Page Gale, Dr. Mullan, Wm. Leary, Peter Hatcherson, and James Harrison. Interment at Wesleyan cemetery, Casey Bros. in charge. Thus has passed from earth away an estimable lady, beloved by a host of relatives and friends.

"Peace be with thee
In the spirit land,
Vainly look we for another
In thy place to stand."
