CORN PLANTER CASE.

Mr. Herman B. Massey Sues In Cecil Court To Recover Money Claimed To Be Due On Corn Planter.

Friday afternoon the case of H. B. Massey vs. P. Anderson and Son was put on trial before the following jury in Elkton, Cecil county: William T. Patton, foreman; M. S McMamee, P. M. Groves, Cecil E. Ewing, R. H. Logan, J. H Knorr, G. Elliot Brown, T. B. Gillespie, E. R. Hill, Henry M. Biddle, James Maloney and Charles D. Racine. The suit was brought by Herman B. Massey, of Massey's, Kent county, to recover $357 with interest from July 1, 1903, claimed to be due on 12 Davenport wireless corn planters bought from the Rock Hall Plow Company by Mr. Massey and sold to Patrick Anderson and Son, of Cecilton, at $38 apiece, with 5 per cent off, if paid for before July 1, 1903, and on which $100 had been paid by Anderson & Son.

The whole case rested on whether or not the planters were sold by Mr. Massey under a guarantee to do good work. Mr. Massey in his evidence stated that such was not the case, and that he had never had any complaint of the machines except from Anderson & Son. On the other hand, John Anderson the junior member of that firm, testified that they were guaranteed by Mr. Massey and a number of witnesses testified that Mr. Massey had said that it was his business to make them work properly. Messrs. William W. Beck, of Chestertown, and Joshua Clayton appeared for the plaintiff, Mr. Massey, Albert Constable and Henry L. Constable for the defendants. The witnesses for plaintiff were Herman B. Massey, George R. Moffitt, Barney McGuigan and Walter T. Wright; for defendants, John Anderson, Lambert W. Davis, A. B. Darby, James Boyles, William Boyles, George D. Pierce, John Woolevhand, Charles Bailey, John Bolton, George W. Peacock, Harvey S Allen, Joseph Peacock and John C. Davis. The case was given to the jury at 3.10 p. m., Saturday, and after being out half an hour a verdict was returned for the defendants, Anderson & Son.

VIOLATED GAME LAWS.

A Hunter Pleads Guilty Of Killing A Fox And Muskrat—First Case Reported.

Justice Samuel Hicks had an unusual case before him Monday, it being the first trial of a violation of the new game law for Kent county. Capt. John Geiser, a well-known sailor, of near Fairlee, had sold a fox-hide and muskrat hide to a merchant who hung the furs up in his store in Sandy bottom. Constable Gill learned of the violation and arrested Capt. Geiser who plead guilty and paid the fines and costs amounting to $21.73! The law for killing muskrats is out January 1st, but there is a law against killing a fox except when he is maraunding and even then you are not allowed to sell the hide. The game laws for Kent county were published in the NEWS last October.

THE snow banked in the public roads to an extent Wednesday that travelers found it difficult to get along. Mail Drivers Willis, Weer and others found the drifts very deep in many places while the paper mill wagons got stalled near Skiven's and had to dig their way out.

A Merry Christmas! To all our readers.

SLEIGHING NOTES.

Accidents On The Snow—Queen Anne's Horsemen Congratulate Successful Rivals On Chestertown's Speedway.

The sleighing has been of the best for the past week, especially after snowstorm No. 6. last Saturday. The Chestertown speedway has been thronged with good horses and racing has been enjoyed to the full both night and day.

Col. John E. George, one of the jolliest men in the State as well as a sport and politician of high rank, telephoned Saturday that he would be over and give Kent's horses a trial. "West Morrill," the plucky, honest snow bird of Mr. George W. Rash, was in town and gave Col. George's horse all he wanted and a little more. Col. George congratulated Mr. Rash, praised his horse, and invited him to Sudlersville but Mr. Rash stays at home, does not bet and gives his rivals a fair show. Among the fast horses out Saturday, not heretofore mentioned, were Oakley R., 2.16, Col. George; Peter L., 2.14½, driven by Mr. H. Barwick; Lucy A., owned by Wm. Anderson and driven by George Hazell.

Mr. Frank Baxter has purchased from Mr. Walter Morris the bay stallion Alcantell, recently purchased by the latter from State Veterinarian G. Allan Jarman.

A challenge is published elsewhere to beat any horse in Kent or Queen Anne's. This is a wide scope.

Among the elegant double teams noted on the speedway were those driven by Messrs. Lewin U. Skirven and Wilbur Gale, Henry Powell, Leonard Price, Henry Brown, James Bramble.

Mrs. Dave Sutton driving a grey mare was queen of the speedway for a while Tuesday afternoon. We learn that Mrs. Wm. Wagner lead the races at Rock Hall, even defeating Commissioner Ayres.

Several ladies in Kent have been deprived of sleighing because their husbands sold the sleighs! That's a pity sure.

Mr. Cooper Tarbutton drove a round turned roadster, of Messenger-Red Eagle blood, with considerable satisfaction.

John B., by Bedworth, Jr., has been on the street in the care of his groom George Warner and shows speed.

Mr. Wallace, of Queen Anne's county, drove a grey mare, said to be by Belton, that showed considerable quality and speed.

Alice Brock, Mr. John Brock's four-year-old daughter of Marcus K. 2:21, sustained a painful laceration of the right shoulder, Monday afternoon, by the shaft-point of a sleigh coming in the opposite direction. The mare and several other speedy ones were coming down the Voshell House grade at a rapid gate when the driver of the offending sleigh became somewhat confused and drove in front of the racers. Prompt action upon the part of Mr. Brock probably averted penetration of the mare's breast. Mr. Brock says if he ever races on the speedway again he'll be crazy. Mr. McMenamin is treating this fine mare and will doubtless effect a cures on

Rev. J. M. Sheridan's driving horse was frightened by a dog one day this week ran away and broke the sleigh, but Jarr driven her since and she is all ri

Mr. C. H. Hurlock, reinsman, and Mr. Walter T. Morris, chaperon, took a wagon load of College girls sleighing Tuesday and they had fine sport.

Mr. J. Anthony gave the public school boys a jolly ride in his big sleigh.

Much interest, in Middletown has been caused by a match race on the snow between "Grover C." belonging to Mr. John Boulden and the gray mare of Mr. Walter Buckworth, Maryland farmers. The race three best in five. Quite a large number of persons were present when the horses were given the word for the first heat. "Grover" was the favorite and won the heat easily. It was then declared that the mare was sick and the racing was over, much to the regret of the large crowd present.

New Light for Poole's Island.—Secretary of commerce Metcalf sent a letter to Congress Wednesday urging the erection of a lighthouse at Southwest Bar, a mile south of Poole's Island, in the Chesapeake Bay, the light to cost about $75,0 Mr. Metcalf says that the vessels of the Ericsson Steamboat Company ply between Baltimore and Philadelphia, have gone ashore on the bar, especially in foggy weather, and that the locality is dangerous to navigation.

WE would be pleased to have our friends and patrons in all parts of the county favor us with personal and social news of interest to their friends and acquaintances, in addition to other interesting news. The name of the sender should be enclosed however, as an evidence of good faith.

"KENTMERE" SOLD.

State's Attorney Wm. W. Beck to Remove There Next March and Mr. W. G. Evans Will Come to Town.

Mrs. Helen Kent Shaw has sold to State's Attorney Wm. W. Beck her beautiful home "Kentmere" on Chester river for $6,500. The purchase includes fifty acres of land with elegant river front. Mr. Beck will remove to his new home next March.

Mr. W. G. Evans who has been occupying "Kentmere" has rented the Meeter property on water street in which Mr. Beck resides and will take up his residence there next year.

Mr Herman B. Massey, of Masseys, has purchased the Bean property near the P. E. Church in the village of Masseys for $1600.

Mrs. Ida E. Duyer, wife of Mr. Frank E. Duyer, has purchased of Mrs. Mary A. Coulby her property on Queen street for $400. This residence fronts 25 feet on Queen street and runs back to a depth of 200 feet adjoining the properties of Miss Maggie Plummer and Mrs. Wickes.
